WATERFIELD UNANIMOUS CHOICE FOR ALL-STARS

Chicago, Dec. 4—(U.P.)—Cleveland's champion Rams, led by the unanimous selection of Rookie Bob Waterfield, placed three men on the United Press' 1945 all-professional football team today while Green Bay's 1944 champions also won three berths, Philadelphia and Detroit two each and Washington one.

The selection board, made up of sports writers who covered National football league games all season, awarded Waterfield the only unanimous spot on the annual honor team, marking the first time a freshman player has gained the honor.

Backfield Turnover

Topping Green Bay's first-team trio was Don Hutson, voted an end position for the seventh consecutive season. The first-team backfield represented a complete turnover from last year although two linemen, in addition to Hutson, were placed on the honorary team for the second consecutive year, Tackle Al Wistert of Philadelphia and Guard Riley (Rattlesnake) Matheson of Cleveland.

Washington's Sammy Baugh, winding up his greatest passing season in nine years of pro football, was the second top vote-getter, receiving 19 out of a possible 20 first-team ballots.

First-Team Personnel:

Major League Status For Coast Loop Is Seen Soon

Columbus, O., Dec. 4—(U.P.)—A strong possibility that a third major league may be established by next season was indicated today by Clarence (Pants) Rowland, president of the Pacific Coast league, who said that officials of his circuit were ready to vote on the move.

Such a move would be contingent upon approval by Baseball Commissioner Albert (Happy) Chandler, and the heads of the two major leagues, Ford Frick of the National and William Harridge of the American, but the coast league officials were expected to take preliminary steps in a meeting today.

The vote on whether to apply for major league membership took precedence over a previously scheduled Pacific coast meeting at which the club owners were to vote on whether to seek triple A minor league classification with the other current double A minor circuits, the American Association and International league.

Activity elsewhere at the minor league sessions was confined to trade talk and separate meetings of a number of circuits. With 19 more leagues slated to operate next season than last, club owners were faced with the task of selecting managers from a wide array of candidates and of lining up talent to fill their rosters. A number of deals were expected to be completed.

Miami Invited To Play Holy Cross In Orange Bowl

Miami, Fla., Dec. 4—(U.P.)—The University of Miami has been invited to play Holy Cross in the Orange Bowl here on New Year's day, after a huge parade of students through downtown Miami turned the full heat on the Bowl committee.

The action climaxed a two-week wave of public sentiment to give the home town school recognition for a fine season. While the committee was meeting this afternoon, most of the 1,600 students joined in a parade through downtown streets.

The committee passed up Louisiana State university and broke a 10-year tradition of having a Southeastern Conference team in the Bowl.

The actual number of languages computed by the officers of the French Academy is 2,706.

ATTENTION Sportsmen

Thanks very much for your interest in the puppies of the PEEKAY BILL strain which you so overwhelmingly showed following my announcement of new kennel location in the Nov. 18th Mail Tribune. I regret that the demand exceeds the supply but selective breeding for fine bird dogs produces quality, not quantity. I have several more litters soon to be available and will be glad to accept advance reservations now. Puppies will be given to HUNTERS ONLY!

ARMY DOMINATES ALL-STAR BALLOT IN EASTERN AREA

New York, Dec. 4—(U.P.)—To nobody's surprise, Army dominated the All-Star East football team selected by United Press today with five men on the first team, closely followed by Navy's valiant Midshipmen who landed three.

Columbia, Holy Cross and Pennsylvania squeezed in with a man each to round out an eleven that would stack up with any of the pre-war All-Star teams if it ever came down to an actual test on the gridiron.

The selection of Glenn Davis and Felix Blanchard of Army came as a matter of course but there was plenty of argument as to the rest of the All-East backfield, finally filled with Columbia's power fullback, Lou Kusserow, and Stan Koslowski of Holy Cross.

First team choices: Henry Foldberg, Army, and Dick Duden, Navy, ends; Dewitt Coulter, Army, and George Savitsky, Penn, tackles; John Green, Army, and James Carrington, Navy, guards; Richard Scott, Navy, center; Stan Kowloski, Holy Cross, Glenn Davis, Army, Lou Kusserow, Columbia, and Felix Blanchard, Army, all backfield.

Athletic Assn. To Face Rogue River

Medford Athletic association's basketball team will open their season tonight when they face Rogue River there, beginning at 8 o'clock. The teams will meet in a return engagement on the Jackson school court here next Monday night.

Medford's starting lineup tonight likely will include Hugh Williams and Rusty Crooks, forwards; Jim Smith, center, and Dick Kidwell and Homer Sullivan, guards. Others making the trip are Dick Babb, Paul Freer, Elwood Webber, Dick Crawford and Team Manager Floyd Lawson.

Reconversion Camp Is Baseball Plan

Chicago, Dec. 4—(U.P.)—The Chicago Cubs, who have pioneered many major league baseball innovations in the past decade, today announced they will operate a special "reconversion" camp for returned war veterans at Lake Worth, Fla., next year.

Camp dates are Jan. 15 to March 14.

It will be the first project of its kind in the big leagues and will be operated for players reinstated from the National defense list of the Cubs or any of their 11 minor league teams.

BOWLING

In Classic league last night Signal Oil took three straight games from Maid-Rite (Little 197—Sims 207). Valentines turned back Highway Club three games to none (Hohlweg 207—Cannon 185). American Pbl. Co. won two out of three from Domestic Laundry (J. Powell 209 Bradley 215), and Hawkinson Tires defeated Beck's Bakery two games to one (E. Morgan 211—Paske 203).

Signal Oil took two out of three games and total pins from Signal Oil of Portland at Portland Sunday. (Barr, Proctor 196 Kennedy 235).

DETROIT BOWLERS UP IN ARMS OVER INCREASE IN RATE

Detroit, Dec. 4 — (U.P.) — The Detroit Bowling association today was letting some 60,000 sanctioned league bowlers in Detroit decide whether to quit bowling in a "strike" against the Bowling Proprietors' association for raising pin prices 2 2/3 cents a line.

Despite an association warning that the customers might walk out, the proprietors voted last night to boost league rates from 17 1/3 cents a line, with rebates of five and 15 per cent, to 30 cents a line, with a one-cent rebate, effective at once.

The government last week lifted ceiling prices for bowling, first established in September, 1941.

The Bowling association passed a stern resolution Sunday condemning the proposed increases as violating contracts at the old rate signed before the start of the season. The resolution included a warning that if the increases went into effect, bowlers would be advised to "abstain from bowling."

Felix Blanchard Awarded Maxwell Football Trophy

Philadelphia, Dec. 4 — (U.P.) — Felix (Doc) Blanchard, West Point's bruising fullback, was selected by the Maxwell Football club as the outstanding collegiate football player in America.

Bert Bell, co-owner of the Pittsburgh Steelers, of the National Football league and president of the Maxwell club, announced that Blanchard was the unanimous selection of the organization's board of governors for the 9th annual award.

The award will be presented to the big fullback, who scored three touchdowns in Army's 32-13 victory over Navy Saturday at the club's annual dinner on Jan. 15. Glen Davis, Army's brilliant halfback was the recipient of the Maxwell award last year.

New York, Dec. 4 — (U.P.) — Army, undisputed college football champion for 1945, reaped the individual and team honors today—the Heisman and Maxwell trophies to Fullback Doc Blanchard and the Lambert trophy to the team.

The Heisman and Maxwell trophies are given annually to the player chosen as the outstanding performer, and the Lambert trophy is emblematic of the eastern football championship.

Toastmasters to Abandon Routine at Next Meeting

Next regular Monday night meeting of the Toastmasters club will be featured by the complete absence of the regular routine the club announces, with no topicmaster, no toastmaster and no regularly appointed speakers or critics. This will be the annual "let your hair down" Christmas meeting of good fellowship and each member will be required to take the floor for five minutes in the interest of something humorous or jovial.

Last night's meeting was highlighted by Pat Graham who spoke on "The union's side of the strike controversies;" Carlos Morris on "Conditions east of the Mississippi," and President Burelson on "Co-operation for success."

Last evening the club had as guests ex-Sergeant Paul Rukaveno of Bend, Ore., former Bend high school football player; and F. A. Clark, field representative, Signal Oil company, Klamath Falls.

"This Is the Last" Says Peggy Joyce

New York, Dec. 4—(U.P.)—Much-married Peggy Hopkins Joyce was married for the fifth time today and announced solemnly that "this is the last."

The blonde actress and Anthony Easton, tall, slim and blue-eyed British aircraft engineer, were married by Supreme Court Justice Ferdinand Pecora in his chambers in a brief ceremony.

VETERAN BOWLER LEADS

Chicago, Dec. 4—(U.P.)—Walter Ward, veteran Cleveland bowler, led 139 of the nation's top competitors today at the three-quarter mark of qualifying rounds in the fifth annual All-Star tournament.
