SEALS PRESIDENT SEES BIG LEAGUE OK BY WEDNESDAY

Columbus, O., Dec. 7—(AP)—Unanimous approval of the Pacific Coast league's request to become a third major league was given by the minor league executives today with the proviso that it will be "welcomed back" if the American and National circuits fail to accept its application at Chicago next week.

San Francisco, Dec. 7—(AP)—The Pacific Coast league can be classified as triple-A, but by next Wednesday its status definitely will be "major league."

Charles H. Graham, president of the San Francisco Seals, in a telephone call to his son, Charles, Jr., last night from the Columbus, O., meeting of the minors, said that the step up had been tentatively approved.

The league drew 3,000,000 paid admissions last year—nearly a million more than the International or American association. The attendance is about 40 per cent less than either of the major leagues, but as large as either could have boasted outside the New York metropolitan area.

"We have received the approval of the minor leagues to withdraw from the National Association of Professional Baseball Leagues (minors) and we have assurance there will be no opposition from the majors," Graham asserted.

Fishing in Rogue river has improved with steelhead being taken every day on eggs, says Al Piche in his weekly "where to fish" yarn. A few silversides also are taking spinners, Piche says. Since the river has started to drop there have been more steelhead caught than for several weeks. Last Sunday, at Gold Hill, six steelhead were taken from 11 a. m. to 3 p. m., the largest fish weighing close to five pounds. All were caught on eggs.

Illinois river has been spotty, according to Piche, but most every day some fish are caught. From now to the middle of next month the stream will be at its best. Proper method to fish the Illinois, Piche reveals, is with a braided wire leader two or three feet long with a size 0 or 2 hook attached with a large chunk of skein eggs.

The secret method, Al continued, to fish the Illinois successfully is to get on the bottom and keep bait moving with the current. The moment the bait stops for any reason, give a set for you either have caught a snag or a fish, he warns.

Opening game of next football season is only about nine months away and we feel now is the time to start plans for additional covered seating at Medford Stadium. We would like to see an additional 20 or 30 feet of grandstand built onto each end of present facilities and then a covered stand of the opposite side of the playing field.

Of course, materials probably could not be obtained for such a job at the present time but it is felt end of the lumber strike would enable the school district to get lumber for the job. We feel additional covered seating is badly needed and would pay itself out in a year because more people would undoubtedly go to football games if they could sit under cover.

GRAPPLING FINALE RESULTS IN DRAW

Pittsburgh, Dec. 7—(AP)—The Crosby-Benswanger rumors die hard.

Giving new strength to the rumor that Bing is dicker for the purchase of the Pittsburgh Pirates was a report that the crooner will be in Pittsburgh next week.

Theatrical circles said that Bing would attend the convention of the Allied Motion Picture Theater Owners of Western Pennsylvania. Crosby does not ordinarily attend such meetings, the theater people said.

Giving extra heat to the oft-repeated rumor was the recent link-up of the Pirates with the Hollywood club of the Pacific coast league. The "Sporting News" reported yesterday under a New York dateline that the Pirate sale was in the offing.

Pete Belcastro and the Gray Mask also went to a draw in their match and Joe Lynam dropped a one-fall decision to Rough Rufus Jones.

Belcastro, first man eliminated in the battle royal, got off to a bad start. By the time Pete came into the ring the other five battlers were already there. As Belcastro stuck his head through the hemp Jones clipped him on the chin and smacked him with a few head butts. Wally Moss, who later said he thought it would be suicide to try to stop them, declared the free-for-all under way without benefit of introductions or other ceremony.

The Weed Assassin lasted quick and was pinned by the combined efforts of Jones, the Mask, Johnson and Lynam. The Mask was next eliminated, followed by Lynam and Jones.

Belcastro announced later he would like to meet Jones next week for "money, marbles or chalk."

Kerr said that more than half of the 24-man eastern squad, which begins workouts at Chicago Dec. 17, already has been selected.

State College, Pa., Dec. 7—(AP)—Penn State's center, Bronco Kosanovich, of Alliquippa, Pa., and Blocking Back Chuck Drazenovich of Brownsville, Pa., have accepted invitations to play in the East-West game at San Francisco on Jan. 1, it was announced today.

Big 10 To Oppose Post-Season Tilts

Chicago, Dec. 7—(AP)—The Big Ten conference, preliminary to tightening its general eligibility rules, went on record again today as opposed to having its football champion play any post-season games, the Rose Bowl included.

Athletic directors, faculty representatives and coaches of the western conference entered the second day of their three-day executive sessions today indicating that the 10 conference schools will be just as strict with their athletes in the future as they were during prewar years.

WAR-TIME STORK STILL BUSIEST

Washington, Dec. 7—(AP)—The federal children's bureau finally got around to its 1945 statistics today and reported—to no one's surprise—that the stork still is more active in war years.

The bureau reported that nearly 3,000,000 babies were born during this country's second year at war as compared with only 2,000,000 during 1933, low point of the depression.

The 1943 live birth rate, however, still was considerably below the all-time high set in 1915-16 when it reached 25 births per thousand population.

Infant Triplets Back in Oregon After Long Hop

Portland, Ore., Dec. 7—(AP)—It took 30 baby feedings and three airline stewardesses, to help hold the bottles, but Mr. and Mrs. Richard O'Brien and their triplets—Jerry, Jackie and Joanne—are finally back home in Oregon.

The family left Atlanta, Ga., Tuesday evening and were in Portland last night, by way of Eastern Airlines and Northwest Airlines.

Paratrooper O'Brien has just been discharged from the army and the triplets are the first set to be born at any army paratroop training school. Their arrival Oct. 10 at Fort Benning has kept "Mister" O'Brien hopping but he is "the proudest guy in the country and the biggest nervous wreck."
