* * *

On Inactive List — Alvin L. Wimer, 410 North Ivy street, and James Muncie, box 252, Old Military Road, will revert to inactive status soon, according to the commanding officer of the Fort Lewis Separation Center. Wimer will become inactive Dec. 30 while Muncie becomes inactive Jan. 18.

* * *

Veteran Discharged—Veteran of two years overseas service in Burma, former technician, fourth grade, Alan D. Rethemeyer, arrived yesterday at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rethemeyer, Gold Hill. Rethemeyer, who was honorably discharged from the army at Ft. Lewis, Wash., served over four years with the army ordnance department and received the European theater ribbon for a month's service in Africa, and the Asiatic-Pacific theater ribbon with one bronze battle star. He resided in Wallace, Ida., before entering the service.

To Erect Residence — Harvey Young, 1204 West Main street, applied yesterday at the office of the city superintendent for permit to erect a residence and garage costing $5,000.

* * *

Official Here—Col. Elmer V. Wooten, Salem, state director of selective service, today paid an official call on the selective service boards of Medford. Col. Wooten discussed problems of the returning veteran with board members.

* * *

In Portland — Mr. and Mrs. Harold Peebles and daughter, Mary Louise, 513 Pennsylvania avenue, returned Tuesday from Portland where they spent three days visiting at the home of Mrs. Peebles' sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Ned Cioeta.

* * *

Enlists — Douglas Jack Parkhurst, son of H. H. Parkhurst, route 2, has enlisted in the army air corps for a three years period, according to a press release from the Portland military personnel procurement service. Parkhurst, who attended Medford high school two years, received a United States assignment, the release stated.

* * *

Seek Identity—City police today are seeking information concerning the identity of Pete B. McCurdy of Ellensburg, Wash., who committed suicide yesterday in Ellensburg, according to a call from the Ellensburg sheriff's office to local officers. Anyone having information concerning the deceased is asked to get in touch with police.

* * *

Colonel Here—Col. D. H. Baxter is to leave the city tomorrow to report to the Portland army air base after a short visit in Medford at the homes of his aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Kellogg, 717 East Jackson street, and Mr. and Mrs. C. E Gates, also aunt and uncle of the colonel. Col. Baxter is en route to the Portland base from the Panama canal zone, where he has spent the past two years. His wife and family are residing in Orando, Fla.
