Miss Helen Omann Married Recently To Lewis Buckley

Miss Helen Omann, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Omann, Sr., of Grants Pass, became the bride of Lewis T. Buckley, son of James Buckley and the late Emma Buckley of Jacksonville and Ruth, at a nuptial mass in St. Ann's Catholic church, Grants Pass, Dec. 1. The Rev. A. A. Meyer performed the ceremony at nine o'clock in the morning.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a gown of white satin, fashioned princess style and with a train and a fingertip length veil. The bridal bouquet was of orchids and gardenias.

Miss Grace Omann, bridesmaid for her sister, wore a pink taffeta gown and carried a shower bouquet of pink and white carnations.

Steve Strylewicz of Portland, classmate of the groom, was best man.

Following the service a reception and luncheon were held in the Cave dining room of the Redwood Hotel in Grants Pass. Among the guests was Mrs. Alice Ulrich, Jacksonville, grandmother of the groom.

Mr. Buckley and his bride made a wedding trip to San Francisco and have returned to Medford where they will live for the present. Mrs. Buckley wore a chartreuse suit with brown accessories for traveling.

The bride attended St. Mary's Academy here and later attended Medford Business college. Mr. Buckley also attended St. Mary's Academy and was graduated from Medford high school and Portland university. He was recently discharged from the army after having served overseas three years with the Sixth Port Transportation Corps engineers, with the rank of corporal.
