DOCTOR'S FRIEND TELLS OF AFFAIR

San Francisco, Dec. 11—(UP)—The trial of Mrs. Annie Irene Mansfeldt moved toward a climax today after an intimate friend of her late husband quoted him as admitting an affair with the nurse his widow was charged with slaying.
Charles Kispert, Burlingame, Calif., insurance broker, brought shouted objections from Prosecutor Norman Elkington when he declared under cross-examination that his life-long friend, Dr. John H. Mansfeldt, confessed to an affair with Mrs. Vada Martin.
Kispert, called as a rebuttal witness by the prosecution, was asked by Chief Defense Counsel Vincent Hallinan if "Dr. Mansfeldt (didn't) admit to you he was having a love affair with Vada Martin?"
"Yes," Kispert replied, "a week or so before all this (the shooting of the nurse Oct. 4) happened. It was after he was caught in front of the French hospital with Mrs. Martin."

Defeat at Midway Not Told at Home By Japanese Navy

Tokyo, Dec. 11—(UP)—Makoto Koyama, a member of the Japanese Diet's house of representatives, today denounced the Japanese navy for concealing its defeat in the battle of Midway from the highest Japanese authorities.
Speaking before the house budget committee, Koyama said failure to report the results obstructed the war effort for succeeding operations.
"That miserable defeat was the turning point in the entire war but the navy did not even report the truth to Prime Minister Hideki Tojo, let alone the emperor," Koyama said.
The famous English potteries founded in 1759 by Josiah Wedgwood have been operated continuously by the family for nearly two centuries.

Many Outside Nations May Witness Big Test Of Atomic Bomb's Power

Washington, Dec. 11—(UP)—Progress of plans for international control of atomic energy may determine whether the world will have grandstand seats when the United States conducts its great atomic bomb experiment on ships at sea.
Formal announcement that the U. S. is preparing for a gigantic naval test of atomic bombs was made last night by the army and navy, both of whom will take part in the experiment. The results are expected to have an important bearing on the future of navies, their size and nature and disposition in warfare.

Observers here believe that if some international formula can be devised before the experiment is ready, many outside nations may be allowed to witness the tests as observers.
Britain and Canada are more certain of observers' posts, since they helped develop the bomb, the question of whether the U. S. press will be permitted to see the tests is also still unanswered.
One of the nation's leading scientists, Dr. Irving Langmuir, associate director of research for the General Electric Co., believes there should be periodic demonstrations of the atom bomb so the world will never forget what it can do. He believes that will do much for the cause of world peace.
As for the big test itself, the questions of when and where it will be held, what and how many vessels will be used and what types of explosions will be uncocked are still without official answers.

MEXICAN STRIKE TIES UP RAILWAY

Nogales, Sonora, Mex., Dec. 11—(UP)—Mexican troops were to be assigned today to prevent what Gen. Jose F. Botello called "further railroad sabotage" which tied up Southern Pacific of Mexico trains for 34 hours in a union dispute.
Gen. Botello, commandant of the Nogales military garrison, last night arrested 12 men, the crews of two trains, and announced he would order troops to see that trains got through.
Those arrested were members of the Brotherhood of Trainmen and Oilers, an organization claiming 28,000 Mexican railroad workers, which is striking against attempted control by the government-backed Syndicate of Railroad Workers of the Republic of Mexico, claiming 80,000 workers.

Dangerous mixture ...

During the war there was little production of civilian goods, and a lot of the things people had were worn out or used up—
People did not spend the high wages they earned, so savings increased rapidly.
The result is that America has built up tremendous buying power.
Lots of buying power and little to buy make a dangerous combination—like chemicals that explode when put together.
When people need things badly and have plenty of money, they are apt to pay too much for what they need. INFLATION then begins!

It's a dangerous mixture—shortage of goods and plenty of money.

The answer to high prices and inflation is plenty of goods.
America's factories should be working day and night to turn out the things people need—to balance needs with goods.

Instead—what do we have? A demand by UAW-CIO leaders for a 30 per cent wage increase. More than that, a strike which has closed down General Motors plants. Both are inflationary. Both make the mixture still more dangerous.
