

LOCAL and PERSONAL

Church Board Meets—Official board of the First Methodist Church will meet in the church parlors at 7:30 o'clock tonight, it was stated today.

Visitors Here—Visiting at the home of Mrs. D. B. Reinhart are her daughter, Mrs. C. B. Norton, her granddaughter, Mrs. Norman Hadley and her great-granddaughter, Donna Hadley, of Kentfield, Calif.

Society to Meet—Jackson County Medical Society is to meet Wednesday evening at 7 o'clock at Rupp's Home Dining Room in Central Point. Dr. I. D. Inskip will act as host and the paper of the evening will be presented by Dr. C. M. Young.

Beer Promoted—Ernest W. Beer, son of Mrs. Laura Beer, 327 Edwards street, has been promoted from private first class to technician fifth grade with an engineer combat battalion. Cpl. Beer is a member of the 81st Infantry Division in northern Honshu. He was formerly a truck driver at Beck's Bakery.

Daughter Home—Miss Lucile Young, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd V. Young, is spending two weeks at the home of her parents in Talent. Miss Young is in her senior year at the University of Portland College of Nursing. A member of the United States cadet nurse corps, she plans to affiliate with the Veterans' Administration during the last six months of her training.

Return From South—Returning to Medford Sunday from San Francisco, where they attended the wedding of Miss Jean Hermanson to Sgt. Robert Carr, were Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Hermanson, Mrs. William Mansfield and son, Billy, 502 South Grape street, Mrs. M. M. Morris, Stewart avenue, and Mrs. Vernon Wright, Elm street. The wedding took place Sunday, Dec. 2, at the post chapel of the Preside.

Meet in Capitol—News of the meeting in Washington, D. C., recently of Donald Campbell, Medford councilman in the east on business, and Jack Cowley, formerly of Central Point, was received here yesterday in a letter from the councilman. Cowley, son of the late W. A. Cowley, Central Point merchant, left Medford with the family in 1921 and is now engaged as an engineer in the Reconstruction Finance Corporation, Office of Metals Reserve. His home is in Arlington, Va.
