MEDCO WORKERS PLAN YULE PARTY

At a special meeting of Lumber and Sawmill Workers Union, Local 2715, A. F. of L., consisting of employees of Medford Corp., held Sunday, arrangements were made to hold the union's annual Christmas tree festivities for members of the local and their families when gift packages will be distributed to the children, and a program of music and entertainment held. Time and place for the festivity will be announced later.

Plans were also completed for assistance to members of the local who may be in need due to the prolonged strike, according to Tom Gray, president of the local. Gray said sufficient funds are now available through the general organization to take care of the present, and additional provisions will be made for the future, should that become necessary.
