

Oak Grove Teacher
Of 30 Years Ago
Wants Mistletoe

A request for Oregon mistletoe, especially that from the Oak Grove district, was received this week by Mrs. Mary Schuler, principal of the Oak Grove school, from Mrs. Lucile Rader Powell, former primary teacher of the school, who now resides in Washington, D. C.

Mrs. Powell, who wrote that she had missed the holiday greenery every year since leaving Oregon 30 years ago, and would like some mistletoe for the Christmas holidays this year, asked also that her best regards be given the "old timers who may still remember Miss Rader who married the principal and moved to Washington, D. C." The former teacher's husband,

R. H. Powell, is now an instructor in the Washington Cathedral School for Boys.

Carl Norris, Lorier Lane, district clerk of the school and former student of Mrs. Powell's, has been given the task of supplying Mrs. Powell with mistletoe for the coming holidays.
