Wall Street

New York, Dec. 21—(U.P.)—Stocks continued their decline today for the third successive session as trading held at the slow pace of the last two days. Pre-holiday considerations, coupled with the absence from Wall street of large numbers of brokers who began their Christmas holiday early, resulted in the small volume.

Preliminary closing Dow Jones stock averages: Industrials 169.07, off 0.29; railroad 62.66, off 0.25; utilities 37.70, up 0.19; 65 stocks 71.09, off 0.10.

Sales totaled 94,000 shares compared with 800,000 yesterday.

Cars Damaged—Damage estimated at $400 was caused an auto operated by Charles Smith, 333 Laurel street, Ashland, yesterday afternoon in a collision with a lumber truck driven by Thomas W. McFadden, Jackson hotel, according to an accident report filed with city police. McFadden's truck also was damaged considerably, the report said.

Men Home—Reporting to county selective service boards yesterday following honorable discharges from the service were Harvey J. Dutton, Walbert C. Flackus, Harvey E. Johnson, William A. Jones, James F. Keeton, Henry B. Kilburn, Jr., Elizabeth J. Miller, Kenneth W. Norris, James J. Patton, George L. Ray, Roy L. Rinnan, John M. Sanderson, Mildred R. Sandstrum, Leon G. Stanley, Eldon M. Tolle, George B. Waterman and Joe E. Welch.

Daughters Arrive—Miss Lucille Seiler and Miss Cherokee Seiler, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. John R. Seiler, 1132 West Main street, arrived home Tuesday from Atlantic City, N. J. Miss Cherokee Seiler, who has spent the past two and one-half years in the Spars, received an honorable discharge from the service Dec. 11 at Philadelphia. A specialist, 2/c, welfare, while in the coast guard, Miss Seiler served 15 months as a chaplain's assistant at the coast guard training center in Atlantic City after spending considerable time recruiting on the west coast. Miss Lucille Seiler left the city last May and has been visiting her sister in New Jersey since that time.

Gold Hill

Gold Hill, Dec. 21—Amethyst Rebekah lodge met Wednesday evening and conferred the degree on Emily Butler. There were 11 visitors from Central Point, six from Grants Pass and one from Medford. Good of the Order Chairman Pearl Ferguson had a short musical program of instrumental music and Christmas carols. Sister Willie McLean and her committee served refreshments, the tables being decorated with Christmas scenes, candles and greens.

Mrs. T. C. Buckingham, who has been visiting in Canada, returned to her home here Tuesday.

Gold Hill Garden club met in November at the home of Mrs. Chas. Long on the highway west of Gold Hill. An interesting Thanksgiving program was given by Program Chairman Willie McLean. The next meeting was Dec. 7 with Mrs. Edith Bornemann. Plans were made to gather evergreens and make wreaths and garlands for the Camp White hospital. Plans were also made for the Christmas party held at Mrs. Hazel Holderness' home on Dec. 13, when a Christmas program was given. A pot luck luncheon and a gift exchange. Each received a Christmas corsage.

Gold Hill Extension unit met Dec. 14 at the home of Mrs. Willie McLean with a pot luck luncheon and gift exchange. Subject for discussion was "Developing Good Taste at the Dining Table." Christmas decorating was also discussed.

Mrs. Earl Cook visited over the week-end in Roseburg with her daughter, Mrs. Mel Davis.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Bell and daughter returned Tuesday from a business trip to Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Gribble left Wednesday for Oklahoma to spend the holidays with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Linsley Dorman and son of Portland visited this week with Linsley's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Dorman. Linsley has just returned from overseas duty.

R. C. Gail of Medford visited Monday with his brother, C. N. Gail.

Miss Doris Jones of San Francisco came Tuesday to spend the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Jones and family.

David Drake, 81/c, is spending a 30-day leave here with his parents.

Among local boys who have recently returned or are spending furloughs and leaves here are Seth Coy, Woodrow Nealy, Ethmer Boeu, Bill Betts, Dale Clement and Luis Dorman.

Jacksonville

Jacksonville, Dec. 21—Gifts will be exchanged following a Christmas turkey dinner given by the IOOF and Rebekah lodges and scheduled for 6:30 p. m. Sunday at their hall. Serving on the Christmas committee are G. A. Kimball, Alfred Coffman and L. M. Cline. Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Millard are in charge of the program. Rebekahs and Odd Fellows and their children are invited.

A dance, sponsored by the IOOF, will be held Saturday night, December 22, at U. S. Hall. The public is invited.

Fire, Thursday evening, December 13, caused slight damage to the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Kantor.

Well drilling to provide needed additional water supply is progressing satisfactorily, city officials say. City employees are also traveling several streets.

Several homes under construction here give evidence of the town's expansion.

Hope of having the preview of the movie, Canyon Passage, at Jacksonville has been expressed by city officials. The picture depicts the life of the town during its early days.

Firemen have requested the townspeople to remain at home when the fire alarm has sounded rather than turning out en masse for the blaze. Such cooperation will clear the streets and enable the department to operate more efficiently.

Veterans Solve Housing Problem By Pooling Coin

St. Paul, Minn., Dec. 21—(U.P.)—Ten St. Paul veterans have solved the housing problem by buying their own apartment building for $28,000, it was disclosed today.

The OPA approved the transaction and said the present tenants must move out within the next three to six months. The veterans, eight of them life-long friends, said they were "tired of living with friends, in-laws and people to whom we cause discomfort and crowding."

Each man put up $400 in cash and the group made a $4,000 down payment to the former owners. Each veteran will pay $35 a month for his four-room apartment.

PREMATURE CHRISTMAS FOR LUKEMIA PATIENT

Nuevo, Cal., Dec. 21—(U.P.)—Seven-year-old George Murdock was enjoying his premature Christmas presents today because doctors say he may die from myelogenous leukemia before Dec. 25.

The Perris Valley Lions club played Santa Claus for the youngster, ill for two weeks, when Dr. W. S. Parker that George probably would not live to see Christmas.
