Shady Cove Father, Son See Guam Duty In Two World Wars
Shady Cove, Dec. 21—Both Clyde D. Williams and his son, Jack M. Williams, served on the island of Guam during world wars, the father having been stationed on Guam with a marine corps unit during the first World War and his son having served on Guam with the navy during the war just ended.

The younger Williams, a seaman first class, was with the naval units which took the Marshall Islands and later helped to take Guam from Japanese troops. He was in the navy two and one-half years and is now in Shady Cove visiting his parents. He will report to Farragut, Ida., Jan. 12 for discharge. Clyde Williams operates a plumbing business in Shady Cove.

Impressive Vesper Services Planned
Traditional candle-light vespers will be presented by young people of the Presbyterian church Sunday at 4:30 p. m. White Christmas trees and tapers will form an effective background for the program of quiet organ music and the Christmas story fittingly portrayed in Scripture and song. The carefully planned service is one of the most beautiful and impressive services of the year, according to Harry Hansen, minister. Friends and members of the congregation are invited to attend.

Special Program At Church of God
A special program will be given Sunday at 7:30 p. m. by the Sunday school children, young people and choir of the Church of God, Haven and Holly streets. The Christmas message will be given by the pastor, the Rev. R. F. Wilson. Recitations and music will be included in the program.

The recent hurricane in Florida caused only five per cent damage to the orange and grapefruit crop, and the trees showed very little damage.

Special Services Mark Holiday At Lutheran Church
The happy yuletide will again be celebrated in St. Peter's Lutheran Church with special services and programs, beginning with a Sunday school Christmas program on Christmas Eve at 8 p. m. in the Lincoln school auditorium on North Bartlett and Maple streets. According to the pastor, Harry H. Young, the program will tell the story of the Nativity in songs, readings and recitations. A Christmas treat will be given to every child attending.

A special Christmas communion service will be held Christmas morning at 11 o'clock in the chapel on Portland Avenue with special Christmas music by the organist and girls' trio.

The public is cordially invited to all these services.

Closing time for Sunday Too Late to Classify 4-00 Saturday afternoon. Please remember.
