SOCIETY and CLUBS

Reception Given For Grant Todd At Jacksonville

Jacksonville — Grant Todd, Medford, member of the budget committee of the grand chapter of Oregon, O. E. S., was honored at a reception given by Order chapter No. 3 of the Order Saturday evening at the Masonic Hall in Jacksonville.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Gould presided. In addition to the guest of honor, other distinguished guests included Mrs. Alma Cofer, grand representative of Tennessee; Mrs. Adalade Clary and Herman Mayberry, worthy matron and patron of Alpha chapter, Ashland; Mrs. Ethel Stinson and Orville Hamilton, worthy matron and patron of Nevada chapter, Central Point, and Ralph Lue of the chapter of Rose Croix.

Mrs. Todd and Mrs. Fay Peters were introduced and welcomed and Mrs. Ralph Lue, secretary of the chapter, read letters from grand officers and grand representatives who could not attend.

A musical program was given, with piano solos by Miss Gloria Fair; two violin numbers by E. C. Root, accompanied by Mrs. Imogene Smith; two vocal numbers by Mrs. Darrel Huson, accompanied by Mrs. Eva Marsh, and a piano solo by Mrs. Grace Denman. An original skit, written by Mrs. Ina Huson and Mrs. Libbie Root, was staged by Mrs. Fay Peters, V. T. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. William Childers, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Brill, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Brewster, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gardner, Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Neil Peterson, accompanied by Mrs. Root.

Mrs. Adalade Clary, Mrs. Grant Stimson, Mrs. G. R. Todd and Mrs. Fay Peters poured. Past matrons were in charge of refreshments and decorations, and assisted about the dining room.

The affair was well attended by Eastern Star members and their friends from chapters of northern California and southern Oregon.

Auxiliary-Guild Holds Election; Dinner Is Given

Mrs. William B. Clegg was named president of St. Mark's Auxiliary-Guild at the annual election Tuesday during a meeting at the parish house. Retiring president is Mrs. N. D. Rowe. Mrs. D. O. Hood was elected first vice-president; Mrs. H. Gates, second vice-president; Mrs. Victor Morgan, secretary, and Mrs. Aletha Vawter, treasurer.

Installation of officers will be held at the meeting set for Jan. 8.

A Christmas program was presented, with the girls' trio from senior high school singing and other appropriate numbers. Gifts were exchanged. Hostesses for the meeting were Mrs. H. C. Goldsmith, Mrs. Robert Holmes and Mrs. Nelle Osborne.

The Auxiliary-Guild members entertained their husbands and about 25 men from engineers' troops recently arrived at Camp White and navy personnel from the camp hospital at a dinner at the parish house the evening of Dec. 15. The parish had been decorated with a Christmas tree, holiday evergreens and each table held lighted candles and holly. Husbands assisted with serving.

The Rev. George R. Turney led community singing, with Mrs. Fred Strang at the piano, and John Eads, magician, was presented.

Miss Jane Snedcor and Mrs. Martin Sands made up the decorations' committee and on the dinner committee were Mrs. N. D. Rowe, chairman, and the Mesdames Herschell Morris, Victor Morgan, William B. Clegg, A. G. McMillin and Hazel Macklin.

Annual Parties Held Last Week By Local Lodges

Odd Fellows and Rebekahs entertained with the annual Christmas party for children of members Thursday night, with Roger Cram and Florence Klatt serving as co-chairmen.

Little Jerry Ivie, aged two years, gave a welcoming speech and A. J. Hanby delivered the invocation. Carol Davis presented an accordion number. Katherine Gott gave two piano numbers and Jeanne Klatt a reading. Accordion solos were also presented by Denny Bateman.

Maxine Powell, Reta Rogers, Carol Davis, Joan Anderson, Marian Dorf, Edna Keoler and Barbara Vance gave group accordion number and also played for carol singing.

Santa visited the hall and presented each child with a Christmas treat. A Christmas tree and the traditional greenery decorated the hall.

Olive Rebekah lodge held the annual yuletide party Monday, with Ina Huson and a committee planning the program. A Rebekah chorus sang carols, Laura Wicker and Ethel Pease read a Christmas story and Marian Ward also gave a reading. Ethyl Weed gave the story of the first Christmas tree in America.

In the chorus were Mary Cave, Lucile Cave, Julia Gregory, Ethyl Weed, Laura Wicker, Leah Ivie, Bessie Hubler and Ella Gould.

Gifts were exchanged and a committee headed by Julia Gregory served refreshments.

Farewell Party Honors Couple; Leave for South

Mr. and Mrs. William Meyst, Jr., who have left Medford to make their home in Visalia, Calif., were honored at a farewell party the evening of Dec. 15. Hosts were Mr. and Mrs. Victor Hillnes and Mr. and Mrs. Sydney Bouck, the affair being at the Bouck home, 21 Portland avenue.

Guests, in addition to the Meysts, were Mr. and Mrs. C. Lyall Fidler, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Spanier and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Humphrey. Buffet supper was served at midnight.

Mr. Meyst, on the staff here of the McCoy Machinery company, will be general manager of the Tulare County Tractor company at Visalia. He was a member of the Medford Kiwanis club, Junior Chamber of Commerce and Sheriff's Posse, while Mrs. Meyst was active in the Lady JayCee group.
