

Deaths in Nebraska for the first six months of 1945 totaled 6,270, compared with 6,658 for the same period of 1944. Of the total, 408 were listed as accidental.

SOCIETY and CLUBS

Jacksonville Club Hears Mrs. Nichol

Jacksonville — Mrs. R. T. Nichol spoke on landscaping at the last meeting of the Jacksonville Garden club held at the home of Mrs. Otto Heckert, Dec. 20. She discussed new trends in yards and ideas borrowed from the English, French and Italian gardeners, and used charts to illustrate formal and informal yards with their relation to the house, trees, walks and other areas.

Hostesses for the afternoon were Mrs. Heckert, Mrs. Marian Niedermeyer and Mrs. Mary Godward. Mrs. Godward was awarded a prize.

Gold Hill Couple Give Dinner Party

Gold Hill—Employees of the Gold Hill auto park and their husbands were guests of the proprietors, Mr. and Mrs. John Cogswell, for dinner Friday evening, December 14, at Rupp's dining room in Central Point.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Joe Lewis, Mr. and Mrs.

Harry Newnam, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Parker, Mr. and Mrs. Merrit Davis and the host and hostess.

Wednesday Club Has Yule Party

Christmas stories and quotations featured the meeting of the Wednesday Study club held last week at the Girls' Community club. Roll call was answered by giving a Christmas quotation.

Mrs. A. J. Handby read "Our Christmas" by Julia Walcott and "The Bells" by Longfellow and the story "To Springvale for Christmas" by Zona Gale was given by Mrs. F. K. Deuel. Mrs. F. E. Nichols sang "The Birthday of a King" and "White Christmas" and carols were sung by the club with Mrs. Nichols leading and Mrs. Stella Hendrickson accompanying.

Refreshments were served by the "good times" committee, Mrs. Frances Cochran, Mrs. F. K. Deuel and Mrs. O. H. Brenne-man.

Ephrata Couple Wed in Medford

Mrs. Georgia Muncieff Anderson, Ephrata, Wash., and Clarence Reuben Peebles, also of Ephrata, were married here Thursday at the Chapel of the Rocks and Roses, with the Rev. D. E. Millard performing the ceremony.

For the wedding, Mrs. Anderson wore a brown suit with an orchid corsage.

Mr. and Mrs. Peebles will return to Ephrata to reside. Mrs. Peebles has been in Medford for the past two months at the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Harris, South Oakdale avenue, and Mr. Peebles arrived from the north Thursday morning. He is chief deputy auditor of Grant county, Washington.

Spokane Woman Here For Holiday Visit

Mrs. R. C. Bamber has arrived in Medford to spend the Christmas holidays with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Rice, 302 Vancouver street, and their two daughters. Mrs. Bamber is from Spokane, Wash.

MARSHALL OPENS CHINESE PARLEY

Chungking, Dec. 22 — (U.P.) — Gen. George C. Marshall arrived here today from Nanking and authoritative American sources said that he would remain in China until his task of bringing peace to the country's warring factions is completed.

Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek, who met Marshall in Nanking yesterday, is scheduled to arrive here tomorrow to open a series of conferences which, it is hoped, will lead to early unification of China.

Both nationalist and communist leaders were at the airport to greet Marshall when his plane put down in misty winter weather.

EAGLE POINT CHURCH INCREASES CAPACITY

Eagle Point, Dec. 22—Enlarging accommodations for the increased attendance, an annex to the community church here was recently completed.

The church has acquired the W. C. Clements property and will utilize the dwelling as a parsonage. Renovations are also being made to the church interior and new heating and lighting equipment is being installed.

Floyd Pollock is the newly appointed full time pastor.

Closing time for Classified Ads 5:30 a.m.—Too Late to Classify 12:15 p.m.

ROGUE ELK DINNERS PLANNED BY LEASEE

Rogue Elk, Dec. 22—George Morris who leased the cafe and grocery here from Glen Ode early in November will soon accommodate private dinner party groups. Some remodeling is contemplated as he intends to have a special dinner party room eventually.

George Adams, Cottonton, Ala., farmer, has used the same creosoted pine poles on his farm for 21 years. Most of them are still in good condition.

TO ONE AND ALL

And Sincere Wishes for a JOYOUS NEW YEAR

May this holiday bring to our southern Oregon friends the utmost of joy and may the New Year bring with it success and happiness for you all. The year which has just closed was crowned with victory—and for this we are all truly grateful. It is our hope that 1946 will see the spirit of "On Earth Peace, Good Will Toward Men" more firmly entrenched than ever before. We, here at the Dairy Co-Op, are appreciative of your friendly cooperation since our establishment in recent months and we take this opportunity to pledge anew our policy to serve this community to the very best of our ability.
