Physicians Dash Hope For Life Of Blue Baby Janice

Baltimore, Dec. 28—(U.P.)—Johns Hopkins doctors failed today to lift the sentence of ultimate doom which hangs over three-year-old Janice Marie Hayden of Michigan City, Ind.

Janice was admitted to the hospital Dec. 18 suffering from a serious heart malady. Doctors hoped that the so-called "Blalock operation," in which Johns Hopkins specialists, would effect a cure.

When the operation was undertaken, however, Dr. Alfred Brooke Taussig and Dr. Helen Blalock found that it could not be performed in Janice's case.

The child, who spent a happy Christmas in the hospital, is in "very satisfactory condition" after today's surgery, attendants said.

Sheriff Office To Be Open Saturday

Sheriff Howard Gault announced today the sheriff's office would remain open all day tomorrow (Saturday) for the accommodation of autoists who have not yet procured their 1946 license stickers. County offices usually close at 1 o'clock on Saturday. No other county office will be open tomorrow afternoon.

Belated motorists lined up today at the sheriff's office. Sheriff Gault estimates about half of the 10,000 auto owners of the county have secured license stickers. They must be displayed after Monday.

Chauffeures Give Way To Vets

Los Angeles, Dec. 28—(U.P.)—The Yellow Cab company's women cabbies were told today that after Jan. 6 they would have to return to back-seat driving.

The company said it needed the girls' jobs for returning servicemen, but that its "respect and good wishes will accompany them back to their woman's world."

FURNITURE OUTPUT STIMULATED BY OPA

Washington, Dec. 28—(U.P.)—The Office of Price Administration put into effect today a program designed to stimulate production of low and medium priced furniture by allowing manufacturers a 4 to 20 per cent price increase.

OPA officials expressed hope that the program would bring adequate stocks of low and medium priced household furniture back on the market by next spring.

Bretton Woods Money Agreements Are Formally Signed By 31 Nations

Washington, Dec. 28—(U.P.)—Thirty-one nations today signed the Bretton Woods agreements for an $8,800,000,000 international currency stabilization fund and a $9,100,000,000 reconstruction and rehabilitation loan bank.

The formal ceremony was held at the state department. Secretary of Treasury Fred M. Vinson signed the agreements for the United States.

Under the Bretton Woods agreement drafted in July, 1944, each participating nation contributes a quota based on its national wealth to the bank and to the fund.

The agreements provided that the fund and bank could go into operation after nations whose combined contributions equal 65 per cent of the total have signed. The 31 nations which signed today account for 75 per cent.

The United States' quota for the stabilization fund is $2,750,000,000 and for the bank, $3,175,000,000. This money, however, will not be paid immediately. Within 60 days of the time the bank is organized, each nation must put up two per cent of its quota. The rest will be subject to call when actual operations begin and funds are needed.

To the stabilization fund, each nation will be called upon to pay immediately one hundredth of one per cent of its quota for administrative expenses. In the case of the United States, this would amount to $275,000.

As the nation with the largest quotas, the United States will call the first meetings of the boards of governors of the bank and the fund to put the Bretton Woods plans into action. This is expected early next year.

Soviet Russia is the only major power which has not yet approved the Bretton Woods agreements.

Crew Lack Holds 60 Ships Loaded With Grain, Coal

Washington, Dec. 28—(U.P.)—At least 60 ships loaded with grain and coal for liberated Europe are tied up in east coast ports because crews are lacking, it was learned today.

Meanwhile, officials of the office of war demobilization and reconversion are trying to find ways of increasing wheat shipments to Europe and North Africa. In response to a plea for help from the state department, the OWMR asked the department of agriculture to provide a report on bottlenecks in shipment and supply.

An OWMR official said he has been advised that maritime workers were taking advantage of the Christmas holidays to be with their families and that this was one cause of sailing delays. In Baltimore harbor alone, he said, 14 ships loaded with coal and six with grain have not been able to sail because of lack of crews.

Solon's Advisers In Smuggling Try

Shanghai, Dec. 28—(U.P.)—The army newspaper Stars and Stripes said today that two American businessmen, traveling in China as consultants to Rep. Maury Maverick of Texas, had been thwarted in an attempt to make a "quick kill" in smuggling cultured pearls.

The men, not identified but said "to travel in the highest government circles" were caught while attempting to use government transportation to accomplish their personal mission, the newspaper said.

Jobless Veterans Receive Huge Sum

Washington, Dec. 28—(U.P.)—The Veterans Administration said today it has paid more than $100,000,000 to unemployed veterans under the GI bill of rights.

In the week ended Dec. 8, it said, 337,909 ex-servicemen drew the readjustment allowance of up to $20 provided by the GI bill. The week's payments totaled $8,121,060.

JAPS LAUNCH SHIP

Tokyo, Dec. 28—(U.P.)—The Japanese government today launched the first Japanese-built ship since the war's end. It was a 4,000 ton train ferry which will replace those knocked out by Adm. William F. Halsey's Third fleet on the Hokkaido to Honshu run.

MAC TO STICK

Tokyo, Dec. 28—(U.P.)—An Allied headquarters spokesman anticipated a new crop of rumors that Gen. MacArthur might resign as a result of the Big Three foreign ministers' decision to set up an Allied control commission for Japan, said today Gen. MacArthur is still determined to "see this thing through."

Closing time for Sunday Too Late to Classify 4:00 Saturday afternoon. Please remember.

Board of Control Planning Building

Salem, Ore., Dec. 28—(U.P.)—The state board of control has under consideration a proposal by the Lloyd corporation to construct an office building on Portland's east side. The board has asked Attorney General George Neuner for an opinion as to its authority to enter into a contract for a building to be paid for on the installment plan.
