'FEARLESS' FRALEY GIVES DOPE ON TUESDAY'S TILTS

By Oscar Fraley
United Press Sports Writer
New York, Dec. 31 — (UP)—Just in case you have a few bob left over from the Christmas debacle and you'd like to start the New Year with an absolutely clean financial slate, Fearless Fraley comes up today with an upsetting prediction on the morrow's Bowl games.

Before dealing it off the bottom of the deck, it might be more according to Hoyle to remind you that old Fearless has given you several second best hands this 1945 we wind up tonight. There was, for instance, Burning Dream in the Kentucky derby (a rousing ninth); Penn over Navy (the Gobs winning, 14-7); and the Cubs over the Tigers in the series, just to name a few.

New Hops
But when they kick off tomorrow from coast to coast, it will be a New Year—and "hope springs eternal, etc." so from behind these keys it looks as if four favorites and four underdogs will come through.

All of the usual methods were used: Reading tea leaves, the ever-present crystal ball, the Chinese method, the alphabetical system, a ouija board, a clipped coin (borrowed) and a hat pin. The result:

Rose Bowl—Southern California over Alabama.
Sugar Bowl—St. Mary's over Oklahoma A. & M.
Orange Bowl—Miami over Holy Cross.
Cotton Bowl—Texas over Missouri.
Oil Bowl—Tulsa over Georgia.

Gator Bowl—Wake Forest over South Carolina.

Sun Bowl—New Mexico over Denver.

Shrine Game—East over West.

Mostly Hunches
As for the reasons, they are few and far between with a few hunches thrown in to relieve the monotony.

Southern Cal is just that, a hunch, plus the fact that the Trojans never have tasted defeat in the Tournament of Roses. This time they are in a tough spot. Figured to lose by two touchdowns. But they had forgotten family differences at the end of the season and anyhow, did you ever try to break up a bout between a husband and wife? Oh brother! With 13 points they look like a mortal lock.

RACING

Arcadia, Cal., Dec. 31—(UP)—Movie Magnate Louis B. Mayer's three-horse entry of Honeymoon, Moneybags and Charivari finished in that order in the $25,000 added California breeders' championship stakes which featured the opening day at Santa Anita Saturday.

Hollywood, Dec. 31 — (UP)—The Hollywood Bears gained for the Pacific Coast professional league championship today after retaining a mathematical chance for the title when they mauled the Oakland Oaks 48 to 0 yesterday.

Missing

(Acme Telephoto)
Jeannette Mullin, 31-year-old ex-WAC, recently discharged from Camp Beale, Calif., is believed by her family to be missing in San Francisco following her failure to return home in Newton Centre, a suburb of Boston. Miss Mullin is 5 feet 1 inch tall, weighs 115 pounds, has brown hair and is badly scarred on right hand, arm, leg and back from burns received in the Coconut Grove night club fire in Boston in 1942.

Decay is one of the most important natural processes, for without it the chemicals needed by living creatures would become "locked up" in dead plants and animals.

Trojan Mentor Pessimistic As Zero Hour Near

Pasadena, Calif., Dec. 31 — (UP)—It was zero hour for the tournament of roses today as tridders from the universities of Alabama and Southern California poised for football strife in the huge saucer which will seat 93,000 fans.

For the first time the memory of modern sports writers the rival coaches agreed upon the outcome of tomorrow's New Year game.

Coach Jeff Cravath of the USC Trojans, seeking their ninth consecutive Rose Bowl win, admitted he had "little, if any" chance for victory.

Savings Buried In Jar Are Recovered In Quick Fashion

Birmingham, Ala. (UP)—One of the quickest cases on record in the Birmingham police files:

Ed Jackson kept a fruit jar containing some $350 buried under his chicken house. He reported to police that the night after he had made a $17 deposit in his "bank," the entire bank disappeared.

Police advised Jackson to spread the word in his neighborhood that detectives had been called in on the case.

A little later a neighbor suggested to Jackson that if he went out to the hen house he might find his missing jar.

He did.
