

POISON EVIDENCE FOUND IN ASHES OF CLINE FRIEND

Portland Woman Who Died in Company of Suspect
May Have Died of Arsenic

San Francisco, Jan. 4.—Dr. Joseph Swim, city toxicologist, has found evidence of poison in the ashes of a woman who died Nov. 29 in Portland, Ore., in the company of Alfred L. Cline, 56-year-old murder suspect, Assistant District Attorney Tom Lynch reported today.

Cline, soft-spoken former choir singer, has been held in jail on suspicion of forgery and a Dallas, Texas, murder complaint while authorities in several states conducted a coordinated, transcontinental investigation of the deaths of at least persons who have died or disappeared while they were associated with Cline.

Arsenic Found
Lynch said Swim, after "exhaustive tests," found traces of arsenic and antimony in the ashes of the woman who has been variously identified as the wealthy Mrs. Delora Krebs Cline or Mrs. Isabelle van Natta, of San Francisco.

The woman who died in Portland was listed as "Mrs. Delora Krebs Cline" and death was attributed to "cerebral hemorrhage and hypertension." Mrs. Krebs Cline was the widow of a wealthy Chicago, Ill., manufacturer.

The body was cremated—as were those of several others of Cline's deceased associates—but exhumed for investigation purposes. Examinations of the ashes raised doubts that they were those of Mrs. Cline, and Portland police expressed belief that the woman who died Nov. 29 may have been Mrs. van Natta. She was reported to have gone to Portland with Cline.

$300,000 Bequeathed
More than $300,000 have been bequeathed to Cline from dead or missing persons he has known during the past 14 years.

Swim previously reported "indications" of arsenic compounds in the ashes, but said he could not be positive until he had examined specimens of Oregon embalming fluid.

District Attorney Edmund Brown said Cline will be tried for forgery here before he is surrendered for a murder trial.

LEGION AT C.P. TO WELCOME VETS IN JAN. 19 JUBILEE

Central Point, Jan. 4.—Committees meeting Wednesday night set the evening of Jan. 19 as time and date for the World War II Veterans' Homecoming Jubilee to be celebrated here under American Legion auspices, William B. Keizer, Sr., program committee chairman reports.

Dancing and other entertainment climaxed by the crowning of the jubilee queen at 10 p. m. will feature the occasion.

Returned vets will be requested to wear their service uniforms or discharge buttons in order to gain admittance.

Business organizations and the Grange are sponsoring queen candidates. Winner will be determined by a sale of votes in blocks of 50 at a price of one cent per vote. Receipts showing purchases of at least 50 votes will entitle entrance to the dance to those who are not returnees. Award for the queen will be a $25 victory bond. Prizes are to be given away.

The Legion auxiliary and other civic organizations are assisting in the event. Subcommittees include: food, Violet Ross and Olive Goin; reception, Vivian Prior; floor, Lester Mathes, Fred Jauror, Don Faber; vote receipts, John Elstead, William Keizer, Sr., Don Ebbe.

Churchills Leave For U. S. January 9

London, Jan. 4.—Winston Churchill, accompanied by his wife, will sail for the United States Jan. 9 aboard the Queen Elizabeth, it was announced today. His daughter, Sarah, will join her parents later. Churchill will spend at least a month and possibly more in the United States.
