

Miss Bettie Brown Wed to Ray Huson Saturday Evening

Among post-holiday weddings was that of Miss Bettie Brown to Ray Huson, the ceremony taking place last evening, Jan. 5, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Darrell Huson, 45 Lindley street. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Brown, Route 1, and the groom is a son of Mrs. Ina M. Huson, Lozier Lane.

The service was read at 6:30 o'clock by the Rev. Delbert W. Daniels of the First Christian church, the living-room fireplace, arranged with flowers and lighted tapers, forming a setting for the bridal party. Miss Brown's wedding gown was fashioned with a satin bodice and chiffon skirt with train, the skirt being trimmed with small satin bows. Her veil was finger-tip length and she carried a shower bouquet of gardenias and pink sweet peas. Mr. Brown gave her his daughter in marriage.

Matron-of-honor, Mrs. Robert Walker, was gowned in blue and carried white carnations and pink sweetpeas.

Darrell Huson served as best man for his brother.

Meryl Dawes Potter played traditional wedding music before the service and accompanied E. Ronald Rice who sang "Because." Margaret Huson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Darrell Huson, played the wedding march.

For the reception which followed, the mothers of the bride and groom poured and Mrs. Tyley Evans cut the wedding cake. Assisting at the reception were Mrs. Eugene P. Powers, Eagle Point, and Miss Margaret Merriman. Mrs. Potter provided a musical program for the reception.

For the wedding trip Mrs. Huson wore an aqua blue suit with black accessories and a gardenia corsage. Upon their return the couple will be at home in the GeBauer apartments.

The groom, discharged from the army last September, served with a coast artillery unit, having been overseas for 69 months prior to and during the war.
