

Dover To Inspect Oil Land Holdings

Rogue River, Jan. 8.—Floyd K. Dover, president of the Jackson County Mining Association, has been called to Montana due to new discoveries in the Cat Creek oil field. As superintendent and chief engineer for an Oregon company with large holdings in the Cat Creek field, Mr. Dover will meet with the group in Portland before leaving for Montana. The Oregon company will drill off-set wells, as the seven new wells brought in during December are from 250 to 500 feet from the property line of the Oregon company. Mr. Dover plans to make the round trip by plane. At the meeting of the Willamette Democratic Society in Portland Jan. 10, Mr. Dover will be guest speaker, leaving immediately after luncheon for Montana.

ULRICH WILL BE WEATHER MAN AT FAIRBANKS FIELD

Russell Ulrich, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Ulrich, 839 Minnesota avenue, has accepted a position with Pan-American Airways and will be stationed in Fairbanks, Alaska, as meteorologist for the company his father stated today. Young Ulrich was recently released from the navy after four and one-half years of service, his last assignment being at Clark Field in the Philippine Islands where he was attached to fleet air wing 17 as a typhoon observer.

A graduate of Medford high school and the University of Washington, Ulrich received his serological training at the Naval Academy at Annapolis.

Mr. Ulrich and his wife left for Seattle last week after spending the holidays with his parents here.

Ashland Elks Hand MAA-M 52-15 Loss

Ashland Elks served notice on the Southern Oregon independent basketball league last night when they took a 52 to 15 victory over a game but badly outclassed Medford Athletic Association-Mobilgas quintet at the Jackson school gym. It was the first game of the league schedule. Medford high junior varsity entertains the Medford hotel in a league tussle at the high school Wednesday night.

Groceries Gold Bars dropped a 37 to 20 practice tilt to Camp White Naval hospital at the camp last night. Both are league members.

Prineville Lad To Symbolize Children Who Have Had Polio

Portland, Ore., Jan. 8.—(U.P.)—A sturdy 5-year-old boy, Donald Anderson of Prineville, Ore., soon will be in New York City to symbolize all children who have suffered from infantile paralysis and through public support, have been able to make recoveries.

Little Donald is undergoing checkups in Portland before flying east with his mother, Mrs. Edward S. Anderson, at the request of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis.

His picture is on two posters of the 1946 March of Dimes campaign, one taken two years ago when he was unable to walk and another taken as he appears today.

The lad is quite oblivious to the fuss being made over him or of the prominent part he is playing in the 1946 campaign. He will make several public appearances between next Monday and Jan. 31.

Donald was stricken with the disease in September, 1943, and recovered after treatment at Doernbecher hospital and Shriners hospital in Portland. Funds for treatment were provided by Crook county chapter of the March of Dimes.

Parcel Delivery Service Started

William H. Judy, 204 South Central avenue, recently discharged from the armed forces, and T. D. Hinkle, 713 Oak street, yesterday began operation of Hinkle's Parcel Service with headquarters at the Oak street address.

Day or night parcel service will be provided in the city limits with only light delivery equipment to be used. Judy and Hinkle plan to operate the business by themselves for the present and assure prompt and courteous service at all times, they said.

Poultry Big Item In Josephine Co.

Grants Pass, Jan. 8.—Poultry and turkeys provide 17 per cent of the county's agricultural income. It has been estimated by the Turkey and Poultry committee of the Josephine County Farm Program conference. The money returned to farmers of the county in 1945 from turkeys is estimated at $400,000; from poultry and eggs, $650,000. Frank Sparks is chairman of the committee and Assistant County Agent Lloyd C. Baron is secretary.

Phoenix Sophs To Play Host Friday At Costume Party

Phoenix, Jan. 8.—High school sophomores here will play host to the student body at a costume party in the gymnasium, Friday evening.

Awarding of prizes for the best costumes and playing of indoor games will feature the evening and refreshments will be served. Floyd Holloway, sophomore president, and Mrs. Mabel Sims, class advisor, are directing the committees in charge. Prospect's basketball team and supporters were treated to doughnuts and punch by the lettermen's club after the game here last Friday evening.

The wife of Fred Herrin is awaiting transportation to the States from Australia, where the two met while he was there as a member of the 35th fighter patrol. They were married in June of 1944.

The former airman, whose home is now in Los Angeles, received an honorable discharge

Byrnes Appoints Committee of Five On Atom Control

Washington, Jan. 8.—(U.P.)—Secretary of State James F. Byrnes today created a five-man committee to study safeguards and controls of atomic energy and advise this country's delegates to the United Nations organization on the subject.

The announcement came after some members of the U. S. delegation to UNO in London, indicated dissatisfaction with the atomic energy resolution drafted by the recent Moscow foreign ministers meeting for submission to the UNO assembly this month.

The state department said Sen. Arthur H. Vandenberg, R.,

Mich., was the principal objector to the resolution.
