GARBAGE SERVICE FOR CENTRAL PT.

Pick-ups once per week beginning the first of March will be made in Central Point by the City Sanitary Service company of Medford, Anthony Boitano, proprietor of the service, said this morning.

Boitano met with Central Point city councilmen last night and discussed the proposed service.

Merchants of Central Point several months ago requested the service but shortage of help has retarded its initiation. Details of schedule and charges are not yet settled for announcement, it was stated.

Union Creek Snow About Two Feet

Snow in the Union Creek area now measures about two feet according to information from the Rogue River National Forest service ranger. Six inches of new snow fell Monday, it is reported.

About 40 people were on the ski run near Union Creek Sunday, the ranger reported, but skiing was only fair due to softness of the snow.

ASHLAND CRIME LIST NEW RECORD FOR YEAR

Ashland, Jan. 8—A record number of 358 cases were cited by city police during 1945, Chief of Police C. P. Talent told Mayor T. S. Wiley and the city council in his annual report. Amount of cash collected for violations and fines, $5,348.10, also was a marked increase over previous years, the report stated. A record number of parking tickets where bail was forfeited also was established, Talent said.

There were no persons killed or injured in auto accidents during the past year and 18 stolen cars were reported to police with all recovered, according to the report.
