JOHN DAUGHERTY IS PRESIDENT OF ASHLAND RIDERS

Ashland, Jan. 9.—John P. Daugherty, Ashland merchant, was elected president of the Ashland Riding association at the annual meeting held at the Valley View school, near here, last night. C. B. Harrison was named vice president and W. P. Hamby was elected secretary-treasurer. Elected to the board of directors for 1946 were Daugherty, Harrison, Hamby, H. G. Enders, C. Lyall Fidler, C. P. Talent, Henry Owens, Dave Kerr, Jim Warren and William Briggs.

A committee was named to inspect various acreages for a new home where full rodeo grounds and a race track could be built. One of the chief aims of the association is to make Ashland the "Fourth of July capital" of southern Oregon and to put the city on the "rodeo map."

The association was organized in 1944 by a group of 16 riders for the purpose of promoting horsemanship. It was incorporated later the same year and is a non-profit organization with members holding all stock.

During the winter months the group holds social meetings with spring, summer and fall devoted to trail rides, inter-club horse shows, roping events and games of all kinds played on horseback. Several rodeos and horse shows have been sponsored by the group with plans afoot to continue the events.
