

NAVY SIGNS SEVEN FROM THIS AREA IN RECENT DAYS

Seven men in Medford and vicinity have enlisted in the navy recently according to J. F. Acosta, CEM, in charge of the navy recruiting station in this area. Enlistees are Junior Herbert Davison, son of E. J. Davison of Grants Pass; Harry Ronald Johnson, son of Harry Johnson, Grants Pass; Robert Edwin Robinson, son of Edwin F. Robinson, Medford; Jim LaVerne Turnbough, son of Willey Turnbough, Applegate; Jerry Lee Gleaves, son of Otis L. Gleaves, Medford; Ezra Foster Wolfe, son of E. N. Wolfe, Ashland; and Irwin Rowley Whiting, son of Bernard S. Whiting, Ashland. The income of enlisted personnel in the navy is the greatest of any branch of the service according to Acosta, who asserts that proof of this is found in a study of organization charts. More than half of the navy enlisted men are petty officers, he pointed out, while a large percentage aboard ship are seamen first class or firemen first class. The latter two pay grades received $66 a month, which compares to the pay of a corporal.

Navy pay begins at $50 a month, Acosta said, with top of $138 a month plus many extras, including five percent additional for every three years of service.

Landis, with many other missionaries, spent a year in the interior hiding out, living on roots, insects and anything available in the jungles. They were later captured by a Jap squadron and spent 25 months in concentration camps, being rescued by American paratroopers and amphibious forces in the closing days of the war.

Union Membership In Heavy Increase

Chicago, Jan. 10 — (U.P.) — Edgar L. Warren, director of the U. S. conciliation service, said today that union membership has increased from between 3,000,000 and 3,500,000 persons in 1930 to between 14,000,000 and 14,500,000 in 1945.

"We can make a reasonable guess that the terms and conditions of employment of approximately 47 per cent of the working population (excluding agriculture, domestic service, government and self-employed) are determined by about 50,000 collectively bargained union contracts," he told the Chicago association of commerce.
