

BOSC PEARS ARE IN FAVOR WITH DETROIT EATERS

Raymond Reter, chairman of the Fruit Growers League and local traffic association, today said "people in Detroit, Mich., are now highly conscious of the fine eating qualities of Bosc pears. Fruit dealers of Detroit are sold on the profitability of handling Fall Russet Bosc from the Medford district as a result of the recent promotion and conditioning campaign sponsored by the two committees."

Local Bosc growers will be pleased to know that as a result of the five cents a box they contributed, the forty carload pool of Bosc shipped from here will return a higher price to the grower than the average of other markets, Reter said.

First Class Outlet: Detroit, heretofore one of the lowest cities in the country in per capita consumption of Bosc, is now rapidly becoming a first class outlet for local quality-conditioned fruit, the committee chairman said.

"By working with the trade and demonstrating the dollar and cent value of proper handling as well as carrying the ball on advertising, the local committee has made unfriendly receivers highly enthusiastic for Rogue River Valley pears and the consumers are for the first time getting pears that are best for eating," Reter said.

Some money from the five cents per box promotion fund has been left over for next year's campaign, it was stated.

PRESBYTERIANS TO WELCOME HIGHEST CHURCH OFFICIAL

Dr. William B. Lampe, moderator of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian church, highest officer in the denomination, will be entertained by the First Presbyterian church here next Wednesday. Dr. Lampe, who was elected moderator last May, is making a brief tour of west coast churches.

He has been pastor of several important churches, including 25 years at the West Presbyterian church, St. Louis, Mo., and according to the Rev. Harry Hansen, local pastor, he is rated among the brilliant preachers of the church, has been prominent in its councils and has held numerous positions of honor.

Presbyterian moderators are elected annually at the general assembly meeting. Occupying a position of highest honor and great responsibility, the moderator is the executive for the entire church and is charged with seeing that all activities planned by the general assembly are executed and committees and boards function properly throughout the year. It is customary for the modeerator to visit as many churches as possible in various sections of the United States to learn at first hand the condition of the church and to convey the particular program emphasis suggested by the general assembly for the year. With 8,900 churches in the denomination and the moderator's ability to visit only a relatively few, it is considered a distinct honor to be selected for his call. Ministers and delegations from churches throughout southwest Oregon are expected from as far as Coos Bay, Bandon, North Bend on the coast and Tule Lake and Klamath Falls on the east. The moderator's address will be given at 7:30 p. m. Wednesday in the church following a covered dish dinner to be given by the congregation in his honor.

San Francisco, Jan. 12—(AP)—Six navy enlisted men face general court martial as a result of theft charges filed in connection with the disappearance of $3,000 worth of food and other government property at the Port Chicago, Cal., naval base.

CARD OF THANKS
We wish to thank our many friends for the flowers and kindness shown during our recent bereavement.

INDIAN BROUGHT TO COUNTY JAIL

Willard Williams, 29, Klamath Indian from Beatty, Ore., was brought to the Jackson county jail Friday by Paul Hanlin, deputy marshal, who stated that Williams will be held on a charge of murder until the next session of the grand jury.

Williams was arrested following the death of Elman Smith, 19, also an Indian, who died as the result of knife wounds, Hanlin reports.
