

Society and Clubs

Miss Jean Leonard Is Wed To Captain In Church Service

At a wedding held last Sunday in the First Methodist church, Miss Jean Camille Leonard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Morris B. Leonard, Wellington Heights, became the bride of Captain Robert E. Rector, United States Army, the service being read at 4 o'clock in the afternoon by Dr. Louis C. Kirby.

The bride and groom pledged their vows before an altar banked with baskets of white chrysanthemums, woodwardia and tall white tapers. Miss Leonard, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white mouseline de soie fashioned with a lace bodice and her full length veil was held in place by a small tulle half-cap trimmed with seed pearls. She carried a shower bouquet of gardenias and stephanotis centered with white orchids.

The bride's matron-of-honor, Mrs. Benjamin Belknap, was gowned in white ruffled marquisette and carried American Beauty roses.

The tapers were lighted by Miss Margaret Ruth Bolton who used a candle nestled in a nosegay of Cecile Brunner roses.

Proceeding the ceremony Mrs. Elsie Carleton Strang sang "Because" and the "Lord's Prayer" preceding the altar vows. She was accompanied by Mrs. Eva Marsh at the organ.

Captain Frank Prime was best man for Captain Rector and ushers for the wedding were George Gates, Jr., and Benjamin Belknap.

At the reception following the wedding Captain Rector and his bride cut the first slice of cake and the serving was continued by Mrs. Tod Porter. Assisting at the reception were Miss Margaret Ruth Bolton, Mrs. Robert Lindsmith, Mrs. Prime and Mrs. Stanley Jones, Jr.

The bride and groom left the same evening on a wedding trip to Bluffton, Ind., to visit the groom's mother, Mrs. E. R. Rector, and family and from there will travel to St. Augustine, Fla., to visit Ensign Morris B. Leonard, Jr., brother of the bride. For traveling Mrs. Rector chose a black suit with matching accessories and wore a corsage of white orchids. Captain and Mrs. Rector will be at home in Medford after March 1.

Capt. Rector recently returned to the states after 20 months overseas with the 96th Infantry Division during which time he was awarded the silver star medal, two bronze stars and the Military Order of the Purple Heart medal.

Parents Announce Daughter's Troth To Sgt. McGinty

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Pawlowski of Los Angeles announce the engagement of their daughter, Betty Jane, to Platoon Sergeant Clifford M. McGinty, USMC, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh McGinty, 524 1/2 North Riverside avenue.

Both attended Jacksonville high school and were graduated in 1941.

Miss Pawlowski is now attending Los Angeles City College and Sgt. McGinty has just returned from overseas duty with the marine corps.

Victory Club To Hold Installation Wednesday

Installation of new officers will be held at a meeting of Victory club, Reames chapter of Eastern Star, Wednesday at the Masonic Temple. Luncheon will be served at 12:30 o'clock by a committee, with installation to follow.

Bride From South Is Married Here To Army Officer

An early January wedding was that of Miss Bernadine Wegmann, New Orleans, La., to Lt. Raymond Proctor, the service being an event of January 2. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Wegmann of New Orleans while the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford C. Proctor, 134 Portland avenue in Medford.

The double-ring ceremony was read at the Camp White chapel by Chaplain Carl S. Ohman at nine o'clock in the morning. Lt. (jg) Suzanne Agnew played the wedding music.

For her wedding the bride wore a gown of white net and lace and her fingertip length veil was held by a Juliet cap. She carried a bouquet of white rosebuds. Earl Sims, close friend of the Proctor family, gave the bride in marriage.

Mr. Proctor served as best man for his son.

A reception at the Proctor home followed the wedding. Lt. Proctor and his bride cut the first slice of wedding cake with a Japanese Samari which the groom had brought from the South Pacific. Mrs. Frank Runtz completed the cutting, assisted by Mrs. Clyde Leonard.

For the service and reception the groom's mother was attired in a suit of forest green with brown accessories. Her corsage was of yellow rosebuds.

Lt. and Mrs. Proctor made a wedding trip to Oregon coast points, the bride wearing for traveling a brown suit with pink accessories. They have returned to Medford temporarily and will leave Wednesday for Santa Ana, Calif., where the groom will await reassignment with the air corps. He returned home a few weeks ago from 3 years with the 13th air force in the South Pacific, having served as a photographic officer.

Mrs. Proctor was graduated from St. Stephen's school in New Orleans while the groom attended West High school in Salt Lake city.

Elsie Lee Cooper, George H. Peachey Married At Chapel

The Chapel of the Rocks and Roses was the scene Monday evening of the wedding of Elsie Lee Cooper to George Henry Peachey. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Shults of Medford while the groom, who makes his home in Medford, is a son of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Peachey of Ashland.

For the service, performed by the Rev. D. E. Millard, the bride wore a gold colored suit with brown and gold accessories and a brown hat. Her flowers were a corsage of gardenias and bouvardia. Mrs. Russell T. Royer, matron-of-honor, wore a beige suit with brown accessories and a corsage of tallman roses.

Russell T. Royer was best man for the groom.

Proceeding the ceremony the Rev. Millard sang "I Love You Truly" and with Mrs. Millard sang "Ah, Sweet Mystery of Life."

A small group of relatives and friends were present for the wedding.

The groom, formerly a sergeant in the army and now on the staff of the Rogue River Chevrolet company, was recently released after 37 months of service, 26 of which was in the European theater. He received the Military Order of the Purple Heart medal among other decorations.

Farewell Parties Given For Couple Leaving Medford

Mrs. W. Alex Kuehlthau has been honored at a number of social affairs given in recent days. Mr. and Mrs. Kuehlthau and their three children, Martha, Walter and Amy, will leave Wednesday for Seattle where they will make their home in the future.

Thursday Mrs. John McCabe and Mrs. Paul McDuffee entertained at luncheon and bridge in compliment to Mrs. Kuehlthau, the affair being at the McCabe home, Valley View Drive. Prizes for bridge went to Mrs. W. W. Deakins, Mrs. Henry Zacharisen, Mrs. R. D. Grey and Mrs. Kuehlthau, and the hostesses presented the honored guest with a farewell gift.

Another party which honored Mrs. Kuehlthau was a bridge-luncheon given Tuesday by Mrs. Robert M. Miksche, Mrs. Ralph Furrer and Mrs. W. W. Deakins. Luncheon was served at the Medford hotel after which the group played bridge at the Miksche home, 407 West Jackson street. The hostesses and guests presented Mrs. Kuehlthau with a gift.

Mrs. Kuehlthau was also honored at the last meeting of the bridge club to which she belongs. Luncheon was served by Mrs. Charles Warner, who entertained at her home, 516 North Bartlett street, and Mrs. Kuehlthau was given a going-away gift.

Last evening a group of friends entertained at a no-host dinner and dance at Chalkers-on-the-Rogue for the Kuehlthaus, with ten couples attending.

Mrs. Kuehlthau has been active in club and church groups of the city.

News of Wedding In Klamath Falls Of Interest Here

Valley friends of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jenkins, Klamath Falls, will be interested in news of the wedding of their only daughter, Mary Jane, who became the bride of Dr. George Harris Merryman, Jr., Jan. 1. Dr. Merryman is the son of Dr. and Mrs. George H. Merryman, also of Klamath Falls. The service was held at the Jenkins' home.

Dr. and Mrs. Merryman are in southern California for the present and have no definite plans for the future. Both recently returned from service overseas. Mrs. Merryman, following graduation from Stanford university and a career in the newspaper field, joined the staff of the American Red Cross and served until October of last year. Dr. Merryman, now on terminal leave from the army air corps where he held the rank of captain, served overseas for two years. He practiced medicine in Klamath Falls before entering the army.

Sojourners Name Mrs. Hood Head At Last Meeting

Mrs. Dyle C. Hood is the newly elected president of Medford Sojourners' club, having been named at a meeting held Thursday at the Girls' Community club. She succeeds Mrs. C. P. Talbot, Jr.

Mrs. Harry Stahl was elected first vice president; Mrs. Jack Clark, second vice president; Mrs. Keva Hutchinson, secretary and Mrs. D. Ray Allred, treasurer. Officers will be installed at the next meeting.

Cards followed the business session, with bridge prizes going to Mrs. E. Ronald Rice, Mrs. J. J. Elliott and Mrs. Charles Botter and pinocchio prizes to Mrs. Frances Simcox, Mrs. H. A. Krause and Margery Eklund.

Hostess chairman was Mrs. Leo Hazel; assisted by Mrs. Cray and Mrs. Dallas McNichol.

Mr. and Mrs. Price M. Hennan, Jr., married in Ashland earlier this winter, are now at home in Jal. N. M., where the groom is manager of a theater. Mrs. Hennan is the former Margaret Whittle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. David Whittle, 123 High street, Ashland, while her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Price M. Hennan, Sr., of Albuquerque, N. M. (Shangle photo)

Ashland Couple Married Sunday In Church Rites

Ashland — The wedding of Miss Gladys Applegate to Edward Chase Gardner took place here Sunday at Trinity Episcopal church, the Rev. A. H. MacDonnell reading the service at two o'clock in the afternoon.

For the service Miss Applegate wore a gown of blue with sequin trim, a blue hat and matching accessories. Her corsage was of orchids.

A reception followed at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Ella Applegate, 94 Granite street, with more than 150 friends calling between the hours of three and six o'clock. Assisting Mrs. Applegate were the bride's sister, Mrs. Otto Klum, and Mrs. Margaret Rush. Mrs. Floyd Burk, Mrs. Ollie Easterling and Mrs. Frank Thompson served the wedding cake and pouring were Mrs. Aileen Kay, Mrs. Charles J. Worth, Mrs. Elmer Biegel, Mrs. Carlton Elhart, Mrs. Homer Elhart and Mrs. Paul Finnell. Miss Johanne Burk assisted about the rooms and Mrs. Harvey A. Woods was in charge of decorations.

White chrysanthemums, snapdragons and stephanotis decorated the rooms of the Applegate home and formed a centerpiece for the serving table.

Mr. and Mrs. Gardner will make their home at the Golden Crest ranch in Valley View. Mrs. Gardner has many friends in Medford, having been on the staff of the California-Oregon Power company here as chief of the filing department for a considerable period.

Lodges Announce Installing Date

Installation of officers of Olive Rebekah lodge and Medford I.O.O.F. lodge will be held in the hall Jan. 21. Grand Master H. A. Neunham of Gold Hill and Ina Huson, district deputy president, Olive Rebekah lodge, assisted by the installing teams of the Rebekah and Odd Fellows lodges of Gold Hill, will conduct the ceremonies.

Refreshments will be served by a committee from the Medford organizations.

Miss June Chensey Is Honored Guest At Shower Friday

One of several social events honoring Miss June Chensey, bride-to-be of Harry W. Heidenreich, Jr., of St. Louis, Mo., was a shower at the A. V. Hardy home, 1100 East Main street, Friday which was given by Mrs. E. V. Chesney, sister-in-law of the honored guest, and Mrs. J. C. Archibald.

The refreshments table was centered with an old-fashioned bouquet of primroses and lace above which was suspended a miniature white wedding bell. Mrs. Marie Chesney, mother of the bride-to-be, served the decorated cakes and Mrs. A. V. Hardy presided at the punch bowl.

Cards and games of fortune were enjoyed.

Guests were the Misses Dorothy Jenkins, Mary Dooley, Janice Pitts, Mary Jane Bestul and Patricia Powell; the Mesdames Donald H. Mills, Dan Brewer, L. F. Crowell, Harry Dunn, C. H. Rohlf, Ann Hamilton and Marie Chesney and the guest of honor.

The bride-to-be, a member of an old Rogue River valley family, is the daughter of Mrs. Marie Chesney and the late O. V. Chesney. She attended the University of Oregon and for the past year has been on the staff of the Jackson County Public Welfare commission. Mr. Heidenreich, with the 207th Ordnance, was stationed for two years in the Hawaiian islands and prior to that was at Camp White.

The wedding will be an event of the coming week.

Mary Malcomes Becomes Bride In Chapel Rites

Miss Mary Elizabeth Malcomes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James H. Malcomes, Central Point, and Jack William Craig, a son of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Craig of Deer Lodge, Mont. were married Monday at the Chapel of the Rocks and Roses in Medford.

For the wedding, performed by the Rev. D. E. Millard, the bride wore a military green suit and hat and a corsage of tallman roses. Mrs. Glenn B. Duell, matron-of-honor, wore a light blue suit and corsage of pink roses.

James H. Malcomes, Jr., brother of the bride, served as best man.

Proceeding the service the Rev. Millard sang "Always" and the minister and Mrs. Millard sang "Ah, Sweet Mystery of Life."

Mr. and Mrs. Craig are spending their honeymoon in California and will later go to Deer Lodge where they will reside. The groom was recently discharged from the army after 43 months of service, including 33 months in the Mediterranean theater. The bride's family recently came here from Los Angeles.

Maxine Tyrell, Lieut. Stearns Married Sunday

Rogue River—Miss Maxine Hazel Tyrell, daughter of A. M. Tyrell of Rogue River, and Lt. Robert W. Stearns of Klamath Falls were married Sunday afternoon at the home of the groom's brother, Wallace Stearns of Grants Pass.

The Rev. Kilpatrick of Grants Pass performed the ceremony before an archway banked with pink and white chrysanthemums and lighted tapers in candleabra.

Miss Tyrell, given in marriage by her father, wore a pink wool dress with black accessories. Her flowers were white rosebuds and gardenias.

Mrs. J. A. Bowdoin of Klamath Falls, sister of the bride, was matron-of-honor, wearing for the wedding a powder blue suit with black accessories and a corsage of pink and white carnations.

Wallace Stearns was best man for his brother.

Following a reception, also held at the Stearns home, the bride and groom left for Klamath Falls where Lt. Stearns is to be released from the service. Later Lt. Stearns and his bride will make their home in Long Beach, Calif.

Medford Firemen Are Entertained By Ladies Club

City firemen were entertained at a dinner given Tuesday at firemen's hall by the Lady Lions' club. Following dinner at 6:30 o'clock games and contests were enjoyed. An impromptu speaking contest was won by Fire Chief Roy Elliott, for which he was presented a bowl of gold fish, and the chief also won another contest, his prize for this being a "baby tears" plant.

The women held a brief business meeting, with Red Cross sewing distributed, and the evening closed with the firemen serving dessert for their guests.

Twenty-two members of the club and seven firemen attended the party. Mrs. Frank Cullen, Mrs. N. D. Rowe and Mrs. Clyde Leonard made up the committee in charge.

Prospect Couple Announce Troth Of Miss McGrew

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin W. McGrew, Prospect, announce the engagement of their daughter, Marjorie, to Wendell Vaughn, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Vaughn, Trail. No date has been set for the wedding.

Mr. Vaughn, boatswain's mate first class in the navy, is now at Ft. Pierce, Fla., after spending the holidays in the county with his parents.

Miss McGrew is a senior in Prospect high school.

Mrs. Moore Returns

Mrs. Donald Moore has returned from Eugene where she spent several days with her husband, Dr. Moore. Dr. Moore, formerly a major in the army medical corps, has established a practice in Eugene but his family is remaining in Medford until a home can be found in Eugene.

THE TAILOR IS ALWAYS GLAD TO HEAR THAT YOU HAD A RIPPING TIME!

And PRUITT'S are always glad to hear that you have enjoyed your visit to PRUITT'S stores.

PRUITT'S
Music & Radio Center
111 W. MAIN • 19 N. FIR

Laurelhurst Photographers

Wish to thank their many customers of 1945 and will

Open Again Monday, Jan. 14

Open Daily Till 4 P. M.

Any Evening or Sunday by Appointment

PHONE 3402

910 Stevens Street
off Crater Lake Hiway,
Opp. Cook's Grocery.

Styled by Koret
for SMART
Early Spring
Office and Street Wear

2-PIECE SUIT

of All-Wool Challis
Grey or Cocoa Brown Colors
with White Chalk-Line Stripe
Sizes 12 to 20

Graceful in every line, the newest Koret suit combines this season's latest style and youthful design in the Dolman sleeves, clever pleated shoulder, and slim "pencil skirt" with front kick pleat. The cardigan jacket closes with a single button at the waist, lending a smart neckline to your favorite feminine or tailored blouses.

$15.95

JUST ARRIVED!
New Shipment of June Bently, Jr.,
Dresses in Lovely Spring Shades

PAY LESS AND DRESS BETTER

M•M DEPT. STORE

We Are Open Saturday Nights Until 8:30

HAROLD'S JANUARY CLEARANCE SPECIALS

Ladies' Hats $2.00 Values to $5.89	Children's Hats $1.25
Ladies' Jackets $5.00 Values to $8.98	Girls' Dresses 7 to 14 Cotton and Rayon $3.75 Regular $4.89

FUR COATS—CONEYS
$132 Coat now $102.00
$78 Coat now $57.60
Tax Included

EXTRA SPECIAL!
GIRLS' SWEATERS
Sizes 7 to 14

All Wool, Button and Slip—$1.50
over—Values to $4.98

Harold's Ladies Apparel
130 E. Main St.

For Your Engagement

a Keepsake
DIAMOND ENGAGEMENT RING

Your precious Keepsake will stand forever as the symbol of the great love you share. Come in soon and see the many new Keepsake creations.

Keepsake DALL
150.00
White and natural gold.

Keepsake MALDEN
400.00
Also $50, $75 to 1975
White and natural gold.

Lawrence's
JEWELRY and GIFT SHOP
35 Years in Medford. Specializing in Fine Diamonds only. Ask the person who wears a Lawrence Diamond.
AUTHORIZED KEEPSAKE JEWELER

Prices include federal tax