Texas Girl Wed To Lt. Grigsby In Home Rites

Details of the wedding of Miss Wanda Hudson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Hudson, Vernon, Tex., to Lt. Donald R. Grigsby, son of Mrs. and Mrs. Roy Grigsby, Hillcrest Road, have been received here. The ceremony was performed Dec. 6 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Huber in Vernon.

Prior to the ceremony Miss Anita Faye Webb played "Clair de Lune" and Miss Nelda Naylor sang "Because", accompanied by Miss Webb.

Dr. E. S. James of the First Baptist church read the vows before an improvised altar of cathedral candelabra with lighted tapers and baskets of white carnations and gladioli with fern.

Given in marriage by her brother, Nelson Hudson, the bride was attired in a dove gray suit with black accessories and wore a corsage of salmon pink gladioli and tuberoses.

Miss Billye Hudson, sister of the bride, was maid-of-honor and Sgt. A. Rauf acted as best man for the groom. The Misses Jean Turbett and Billye McMahon lighted the tapers. Wedding refreshments were served following the ceremony, the bride's table being arranged with white button chrysanthemums, mistletoe and Christmas candies.

Lt. and Mrs. Grigsby left immediately after the reception for Midland Army Air base in Texas where the officer is now stationed.

Mrs. Grigsby was graduated from Vernon High school, later attended business school and for the past four years has been employed by a credit association. Lt. Grigsby attended school at Eagle Point and Ashland before enlisting in the army air force in 1942. Graduating as a bombardier, he was stationed in England with the Eighth air force and since returning to this country has been stationed at Childress air base before being transferred to Midland. He was awarded the air medal with three oak leaf clusters and the distinguished flying cross with one cluster.

Other officers installed were Mrs. Donna Brenner, associate matron; Marshall M. Day, associate patron; Mrs. Clara Beebe, secretary; Mrs. Gladys Vincent, treasurer; Mrs. Roberta Andren, conductress; Mrs. Juanita McKibbin, associate conductress; Mrs. Montella Freeland, chaplain; Mrs. Betty Day, marshal; Mrs. Thelma Dobrot, Adah; Mrs. Jessie Hamlin, Ruth; Mrs. Zuba Walker, Esther; Mrs. Gertrude Furry, Martha; Mrs. Ruth Sawyer, Electa; Mrs. Edith Scott, warder.

Engagement News Told In Portland Of Interest Here

Announcements of the betrothal of two couples, made recently in Portland, are of interest to friends here, both young men being students from Medford.

The engagement of Miss Barbara Louise Finch of Portland to Lewis Wilson Church of Medford was announced at a luncheon which Miss Finch gave at the Mallory Hotel. The bride-to-be is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph D. Finch, Portland, while Mr. Church is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Klemm, 1119 West Main street.

Miss Finch is a former student at Oregon State college while her fiance, who returned to this country in November after serving in Italy with the Tenth Mountain Division, has resumed his studies at the college.

Also revealed was the engagement of Miss Phyllis Lehman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Lehman of Portland to Alfred Ewing Dodson, Jr., son of Dr. and Mrs. A. E. Dodson of 815 Taylor street, Medford. The announcement was made at a party at the Lehman home.

The bride-to-be is a junior at the University of Oregon, where she is a member of Delta Delta Delta social sorority. Mr. Dodson is a junior at the University of Oregon Medical school, Portland, and is affiliated with Nu Sigma Nu medical fraternity.

No date for the wedding has been announced.

Installation Held By Nevita Chapter In Central Point

Central Point — About 150 members and friends witnessed the annual installation of officers of Nevita Chapter No. 93, O.E.S. Tuesday evening, with Mrs. Violet Hamilton installing worthy matron and C. W. Abbott, worthy patron.

Installing officers were Mr. and Mrs. Hensley Holt, installing matron and patron; Mrs. Lelia Paxson, chaplain; Mrs. Sam Koehler, organist; Mrs. Everett A. Faber, marshal; Mrs. Leonard Freeman, assisting organist; Mrs. C. W. Abbott, assisting marshal.

Other officers installed were Mrs. Donna Brenner, associate matron; Marshall M. Day, associate patron; Mrs. Clara Beebe, secretary; Mrs. Gladys Vincent, treasurer; Mrs. Roberta Andren, conductress; Mrs. Juanita McKibbin, associate conductress; Mrs. Montella Freeland, chaplain; Mrs. Betty Day, marshal; Mrs. Thelma Dobrot, Adah; Mrs. Jessie Hamlin, Ruth; Mrs. Zuba Walker, Esther; Mrs. Gertrude Furry, Martha; Mrs. Ruth Sawyer, Electa; Mrs. Edith Scott, warder.

A musical program included songs by Mrs. Edwin Andren, accompanied by Mrs. Sam Koehler, and piano selections by Miss Phyllis Furry.

Newly installed officers presented Mrs. Hamilton with a bouquet of yellow chrysanthemums in an addenda arranged by Mrs. Ethel Stimson. The Courtesy Girls gave an addenda entitled "Violets for Violet" with Mrs. Charles Hopkins singing an appropriate song. Included in the group are the Mesdames D. R. Allred, Luther Day, Ray Chamberlain, Merritt Swing, Bert Langston, Charles McCoy, Muriel Perry and Clarence Coon.

Mrs. Lloyd Stimson, retiring matron, was presented a past matron's jewel, a gift of the chapter, by Orville Hamilton, retiring patron. Mr. Hamilton presented his past patron's pin, a gift of Mr. and Mrs. Stimson, by Mr. Abbott, new patron.

Mrs. Koehler, retiring as organist after 13 years of service, received a gift from the chapter presented by Mrs. Howard Jewett.

New officers wore corsages of yellow and blue and decorations for the chapter room were in same colors, with yellow acacia, ferns and palms forming an attractive setting. Mrs. Leonard Freeman and Mrs. Merritt Swing had arranged these.

The unusual dining room decorations were in a winter wonderland theme, with white trees, white cedar sprigs and white figurines used on each table. These original decorations had been made by Mrs. Ellis Clark. Her committee included the Mesdames Edward C. Faber, Guy Tex, Mary Moore and Everett A. Faber.

Special guests for the evening included Mrs. Hope Wood, Grant Todd, Mrs. Amelia Hiles, Mrs. Mabel Todd and J. E. Mathews. Next meeting of the chapter will be Jan. 22 at the temple.

Preceding the ceremonies a program was given. Duets were presented by Mrs. Myres and Miss Bailey and also by Mrs. Michael and Emilie Conrad, and a skit was given by Harriett Dawson, Grace Reed and Ruth Walden. Refreshments followed the installation.

Degree of Honor Ceremonies Held Tuesday Evening

Mrs. Ruetta Groves was installed as president of the Degree of Honor Protective association, Medford Lodge No. 105, at an installation ceremony held Tuesday evening. Mrs. Ethel Lindholm, state director and national committeewoman from Tabor Lodge No. 55 of Portland, acted as installing officer assisted by Alpha Newman, installing past president, and Bertha Bennett, installing usher, of Grants Pass Lodge No. 118.

Other officers installed included Loleta Bennett, vice president; Mary White, second vice president; Evelyn Tarr, past president; Mary Carrara, financial secretary; Susie Johnson, treasurer; Frances Bentley, usher; Mayme Adkins, assistant usher; Myrtle Smith, first assistant; Gayle Robertson, second assistant; Elsie Gleave, color bearer; Edith Elliott, drill team captain; Matilda Dietrich, inner watch; and degree staff members, Minnie Bowers, Edith Elliott, Katherine Smith and Isabel Thomas.

The next regular meeting will be held Jan. 22.

Couple Return Here After Montana Stay

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Fitzgerald, former Medford residents, have returned to the city to live after spending the past two years at Ronan, Mont., where Mr. Fitzgerald served as county agent of Lake county. Mr. Fitzgerald, who returned to Medford the first of this month, is again on the staff of Humphrey Motors. Mrs. Fitzgerald arrived here last Wednesday, having stopped en route to visit in Yakima.

Royal Neighbors Set Installation For Thursday Eve

Installation of officers continues important on the club and lodge calendars of the city, with that ceremony planned for Mistletoe Camp, Royal Neighbors of America, Thursday at eight o'clock at the KP hall. It will be open to members and friends.

Marjorie Pearson will be drill captain for the service. Mistletoe club installed officers at a meeting last week at the Girls' Community club, with Pearl Miller taking office as president. Freda Kingsley was installed secretary and treasurer and Maude Lovell was installed vice-president.

Luncheon was served, with the Mesdames Elsie Alexander, Irene Shirley, Frances Zundell and Ruth Bismark serving as the hostess committee. Plans were made for a rummage sale to be held later this month. Pinochle followed the business meeting, with Freda Kingsley and Elsie Rostrum winning prizes.

Members of the drill team are asked to practice Sunday at 3 p. m. at the hall.

Election Is Held By Scout Leaders

New officers for the Girl Scout Leaders association were elected at a meeting Monday afternoon at Scout headquarters with Mrs. H. J. Roemer named president. Mrs. B. C. Taylor was elected vice-president; Mrs. Lee Van Ausdall, secretary, and Mrs. Lloyd Smylie, treasurer.

Mrs. Clarence Meeker presented the topic, "Courtesies," for Girl Scout troop discussion. Helpful suggestions and references were given for all age groups and courtesy tips for various occasions were stressed.

Hostesses for the meeting were Mesdames Rollin Jones, Walter Jensen, Ernest Kessler, Eva Kight and Alberta Kehn.
