NAVY MAN LOSES PRIZED LUGGAGE ON VISIT HERE

The happiness of returning home after five years was dimmed yesterday when the navy man lost his luggage containing not only his passport, birth certificate and other valuable papers but war trophies as well. The bag, a brown canvas and leather grip with the initials "W.A.R." on it, was lost from a taxi last night as Lt. Rosene drove to Medford from the airport where he had been grounded on a flight from San Francisco to Seattle.

Lt. Rosene reported that some of the papers were irreplaceable and that others could only be replaced with much difficulty. The officer said he wasn't particularly interested in recovering the contents of a bottle of Japanese whiskey which he had brought home as a trophy, but that he would like to have the bottle which was of unusual design and which he planned to keep as a war souvenir. The bag was lost between 9:30 and 10 p. m. last night.

Anyone finding the bag is asked to wire collect or write to Lt. Rosene at 1311 Beach avenue, Vancouver, B. C., or the finder may take the bag either to the Yellow Cab company office here in Medford, to the United Air Lines office at the airport or the Medford police. A reward is offered.

A neighbor of the North Pole

Up where icebergs are born, and the North Pole lives just around the corner, resides one of our favorite customers. He is a minister of the Protestant Episcopal Church—a missionary in Eskimoland.

Some months ago he sent our marketing department an order for petroleum products needed at his station—St. Thomas Mission at Point Hope, Alaska. Enclosed was his check, signed—but blank.

That was enough to thrill a totem pole. This shepherd of a far flock had found our folks worthy of trust. Not, mind you, with his worldly goods alone. When he assumed we would send products he could depend on to see his mission through a cruel Arctic winter—there he showed confidence that was confidence.

Well, the regular Point Hope ship was cancelled. But, like the chap who carried the serum to Nome, we felt we had to get that stuff through. We could have turned handsprings when the Department of Interior granted our plea to let us put those supplies aboard a government vessel.

Now, people send us such checks fairly often. Certain other shepherds—they raise sheep on California oil lands—always pay the rent that way. Yet a similar confidence, which in a way resembles a blank check, is shown by every motorist who entrusts us with the protection and functioning of his car.

At least, we like to look at it that way. It gives us the same feeling of responsibility as the good padre's trusting signature. It makes us realize how important it is to live up to the expectations of our friends—whether on the highway or among the blizzards of the Arctic.

Does this sauce make good cooks better cooks? LET'S ASK THE WOMEN WHO COOK WITH DEL MONTE!

2 out of 3 of them have used it more than 10 years

Yes, Del Monte Tomato Sauce has been the grand old cooking sauce of western housewives, for years! Was their favorite—is their favorite!

And even during the war, when it was hard to get, they didn't forget it. Certainly not!

How do we know? Well, one of America's largest independent research organizations went out and asked them.

And what did Del Monte users say about Del Monte Tomato Sauce? Plenty! Two out of three women preferring Del Monte have used it over 10 years. Listen to Mrs. Falkenrath, for instance:

"You can streamline any tomato dish with it!"

—Says MRS. JOHN G. FALKENRATH, 302 BEVERLY AVE., SAN LEANDRO, CALIF.

You've always used Del Monte, Mrs. Falkenrath?

"Yes and no. I'm an experimenter! Naturally, in 39 years of cooking I've tried many sauces. And when I say other sauces don't suit me so well as Del Monte, I speak from experience and lots of it."

Just why do you like this sauce so much?

"For many reasons. It has the true tomato flavor—and too, its fine clear color makes any dish look so good. Another thing—it's a fast worker. You can streamline any dish with it. In 15 or 20 minutes you can make a sauce or gravy that used to take hours of mixing, blending and simmering."

Do you use tomato flavor often?

"Well, I should say so! You see, I was brought up on French cookery. My Shrimp Creole recipe has been a family favorite for 50 years or more. Mother used it—I've speeded it up with Del Monte Tomato Sauce. I'd be lost without Del Monte for plainer dishes, too—stews, meat pies, soups, Spanish rice, and many others. It always gives me just the flavor I want!"

—so, for real tomato flavor BE SURE IT'S
