

FIRE DEPARTMENT SHOWS 218 CALLS DURING PAST YEAR

Medford's fire department responded to 218 calls in 1945 and the total loss for the year was $28,613.39 according to a report from Fire Chief Roy Elliott read to the city council last night.

The figures are lower than those of 1944 when 221 calls were answered and losses amounted to $31,052.68. Estimated value on property involved this year was $368,876.64 and the insurance at risk was $300,700. Insurance paid was $28,163.39. The city's loss per capita was $1.79 compared to $1.94 in 1944.

Fire Chief Elliott made 305 personal inspections of buildings and property, had two fire hazards removed, issued 510 permits and inspected all schools and attend fire drill at each school during the year, his report stated.

There were two injuries and one death due to burns.

New equipment added was one American LaFrance 1,000 G.P. M. pumper. Equipment was in service a total of 83 hours, 32 minutes.

Elliott's report said that "The department wished to thank the public for their wonderful cooperation, also the mayor and the city council for their excellent support during the past year."

ROBERT VOEGTLY NEW PRESIDENT OF JAYCEE CLUB

Robert W. Voegtly, representative of the Hines Lumber company of Chicago, was elected president of the Medford Junior Chamber of Commerce at the semi-annual elections held at the Chamber of Commerce offices last night. Paul Hershey was named first vice president, E. Carl Bennett second vice president, Chester Cole, secretary, and Alan Jewett, treasurer.

Named to the board of directors were Vince Smith, Les Stampler, Robert Schenck, Lynn Robertson, Harry Stahl, Lew McLaughlin, Dr. Henry Krause and Floyd Darland.

Bob Rucker, retiring president, presented past president pins to Vic Milnes and Paul Selby and was in turn presented a pin by Voegtly.

A director's meeting was called for the home of Les Stampler, 720 South Peach street, at 8 p. m. Friday. The club decided to hold weekly meetings each Tuesday night.

The Coast Guard is the oldest arm of the United States military service, formed in 1793 as the Revenue Cutter Service.

Mrs. Emma Jordan Former Resident, Dies In Bremerton

Emma Jane Jordan, wife of William H. Jordan, and a former resident of southern Oregon having lived at Ashland, Grants Pass and Gold Hill, passed away at her home in Bremerton, Wn., January 12. Mr. and Mrs. Jordan moved to Bremerton about two months ago to establish their home with a daughter, Mrs. Irma Perry.

Mrs. Jordan was born near Grants Pass, May 15, 1874. She and her husband celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary December 4, 1942 while living at Ashland.

In addition to her husband she is survived by daughters Mrs. Perry of Bremerton, Mrs. Winnie Bogle of San Francisco, Mrs. Laura Evangeline Pitcock of Medford; brother Riley M. Thompson and sister Mrs. Rebecca Mee, both of Eugene; also 11 grandchildren and four great grandchildren.

Hall Funeral Home of Grants Pass will announce the funeral services.

County Groups Urged To Help Clothing Drive

Groups of the county were urged again today by committees handling the victory clothing drive to cooperate in every way possible in order that the drive might be "put over the top." Carey W. Thomson, Jackson county chairman for the drive, gave high praise to churches for "doing a splendid job" but added "We have been hopeful, however, that clubs, lodges, fraternal organizations and unions would also take up collections of clothing and bundles. Laundries and dry cleaners could do likewise."

The Salvation Army has made a splendid collection, Thomson states, having turned in over 600 pounds of clothing, bedding and shoes already. Boy Scout troops throughout the city and county are bringing in daily contributions under the supervision of Gordon Gilmore, Scout executive, and Scoutmasters. Mack Lillard has requested wrestling fans to bring donations to the armory on match nights for the balance of this month.

City schools under E. H. Hedrick are planning a drive this week and C. R. Bowman, county superintendent of schools, states that the drive through county schools has gotten underway with good results promised.

Collection depots have been established throughout downtown Medford in leading stores so that all clothing donated will be inside in a dry, guarded place. Neighborhood stores are asked to accept the clothing for the drive and to phone Reginald Staff at 3843 for pickups.

Donors may leave bundles at the main depot at the USO on Riverside and Sixth streets, Humphrey's garage on South Riverside, at the Medford and Jackson hotels, M M Department store, Mann's, Acme Hardware, Rogue River Chevrolet garage or at any church. Donors are also asked to write a letter and enclose it with their contributions.

Persons having large paper cartons are asked to place their contributions in these since they are urgently needed for packing and shipping. Heavy cord or twine will also be greatly appreciated by the crew in charge of packing and shipping, under the direction of Dale Stephenson.

It is stressed again that shoes, boots, overshoes and footwear of all sorts must be securely tied in pairs.

A big parade, signalling the end of the drive, is planned for Saturday, Jan. 26, with donors to congregate at Main and Central around 9 p. m. to deposit contributions in boxes arranged for that purpose.

AMY WILL FILED FOR PROBATION

The will and codicil of the late Frank M. Amy, pioneer resident of Jackson county, was filed for probate yesterday. Mrs. Vada G. Lewis, Portland, was named executrix, and Eugene Thorndike, Carl Y. Tengwald and E. L. Scott appraisers.

In a petition filed for admitting the will to probate, probable value of the estate is placed at not to exceed $17,000 consisting of $11,000 in United States government bonds, cash and personal property and effects.

Will was made Nov. 30, 1941. In the codicil, property purchased after that date and located in the Barnett road district, is bequeathed to Mrs. Fred L. Whitman of Union Creek, who "has been very kind to me."

The cabin, furniture, household effects and some jewelry, located at Union Creek, where Amy made his home for several years, is left to Mrs. Vada G. Lewis. His auto is bequeathed to his sister and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Wright, Central Point.

Bequests of $500 each are made to two nieces, Mrs. Louise McKim and Mrs. Dorothy Greenleaf.

Half of the balance of the estate is left to a sister, Mrs. Laura Josephine Crow, and the other half to his deceased wife's sister and brother.

County Jury List In Preparation

Preparation of the Jackson county jury list for the coming year, consisting of between 400 and 500 names, is now underway by the county court. It will be completed in time for the first jury, to be drawn for the February term of court starting Monday, Feb. 25. Sufficient names are placed on the jury list to provide for regular and special venues throughout the year.
