Construction Underway At Yankee Stadium for Louis - Conn Title Go

New York, Jan. 17—(U.P.)—Construction of facilities for packing up to 113,000 fans into Yankee stadium began today in promoter Mike Jacobs' lumber mill, less than 24 hours after he announced that Joe Louis and Billy Conn would battle for the heavyweight title at the ball park next June 19.

No Time Lost
Lumberman Jacobs lost no time in getting crews of workmen into action building portable ramps which will be used not only at Yankee stadium, but at the Polo Grounds for three outdoor title fights there and at Los Angeles. Plans are in the making to stage an outdoor championship bout there next winter, probably at the huge Olympia stadium where the 1932 Olympic games were held.

Promoter Jacobs said he had announced the site of the Conn-Louis return bout sooner than expected in order to allow all possible time for completion of arrangements and so that out of town fans could make plans to attend.

65,000 Folding Seats
"Uncle Mike" said he had 65,000 folding seats in a warehouse in New Jersey and that he would try to get as many of them into Yankee stadium as possible for the fight. He estimated that about 40,000 portable seats could be used in addition to the 73,000 grandstand and bleacher seats.

The ramps will be stored between fights and can be shipped to any major city in the country Jacobs said, indicating that he planned to put on outdoor shows in other sections and that existing facilities in most of them would not be sufficient to house the crowds he expected.

Talent, C. P. Top "B" League Play

Central Point, holding down first place in division two of the Jackson county "B" basketball league, faces Talent on the Central Point floor Friday night. Talent was considered a favorite to cop the division before their stunning set-back by Rogue River last week.

Other "B" league games send Kerby to Rogue River and St. Mary's of Medford to Eagle Point in division two. In division one Jacksonville travels to Gold Hill, Phoenix moves to Butte Falls and Prospect draws a bye.

SINGLER SCORES 20 MARKERS AS KLAMATH BEATEN

Bill Singler, holding down the forward spot for Jerry Ross who was ill and couldn't make the trip, potted 20 points to pace Medford high's basketball team in a 38 to 22 rout of Klamath Falls in a Southern Oregon conference game played at Klamath Falls last night.

Singler got off to a slow start, getting only six points in the first half, but made up for it in the last two quarters when he rolled in 14. The Tornado looked ragged in the final stanza turned on the heat and really looked like a ball club.

Medford led 7 to 6 at end of the first quarter, rolled it up to 14 to 8 at the half and made the count 22 to 16 at end of the third chapter.

Total scoring for the Tornado was divided between three players—Singler, Bob Watson and Darrell Riggs. Watson collected four points while Riggs netted 14. Coach Al Simpson used four substitutes in the fray, none of whom were able to find the range.

Jay Vee's Beaten
Klamath Wildcats jumped in to an early lead and held it throughout the game to defeat the Medford Junior varsity 40 to 35 in the preliminary.

Next trip to the maple board was for the Tornado who will be Saturday night when they meet the Oregon State Rocks on the Medford floor.

CASH AWARD WON BY LOCAL TRAPPER Skillful Handling of Muskrat Pelt Earns Award for Everett M. Young in Sears 17th National Fur Show

Read How You, Too, May Win an Award as High as $1,000.00 Cash

Proving again that "better pelt handling pays," this local trapper got an extra $5.00 in cash—one of the Daily Awards in Sears 17th National Fur Show—and, besides, a chance to share in the big major awards! What this trapper did, you too can do—whether or not you sell your furs through Sears Fur Marketing Service. For Sears Fur Show offers, this season, a total of 942 cash awards, including the 1st Award of $1,000.00 for the best handled pelt of all.

942 Awards—$7,590 Cash
Yes, a total of 942 cash awards for fur shippers—942 opportunities to share in $7,590.00 in cash.
MAJOR CASH AWARDS: There are ten major cash awards, ranging from $50.00 to $1,000.00.
SECTIONAL CASH AWARDS: There are sectional awards, too—for complete shipments of five or more pelts—one award of $250.00; eleven of $50.00 each.
DAILY CASH AWARDS: Finally, there are 918 daily cash awards of $5.00 each, for pelts received during the Fur Show.

Pays You 3 Ways
First, every award is in cash and the cash Sears get you for your pelts.
Second, Sears can be depended on to obtain for you top prices.
Third, even if you don't win an award, careful handling enhances the value of your furs.
This third feature is the real reason for Sears 17th National Fur Show with 942 Cash awards, totaling $7,590.00.
By encouraging careful pelt handling, Sears believe the annual value of America's raw furs can be increased by millions of dollars. And that the income of every trapper can be given a big boost.

Nelson Withdraws From Golf Tourney; Snead Is Favored

Richmond, Cal., Jan. 17—(U.P.)—Defending champion Sammy Snead was favored to repeat in the $10,000 Richmond open golf tournament, which opened today, following the sudden withdrawal of Byron Nelson.

Nelson was summoned to a business meeting at the Toledo, O., umbrella firm of which he is vice-president. He had taken the two 1946 winter meets, at Los Angeles and San Francisco. Nelson expected to miss the Phoenix and Tucson opens also. He said he would have a physical check-up before he returned.

Snead's stiffest opposition today was expected from Herman Barron, White Plains, N. Y., runner-up at the San Francisco Open, and Chandler Harper, Portsmouth, Va., who has finished among the big winners in both San Francisco and Los Angeles.

C. Point Legion Plans Formation Of Casaba Squad

Central Point, Jan. 17—Formation of a basketball team under American Legion auspices here is a possibility if enough interest is shown, reports from various members of the post indicate. Lee and Ronald Pinkham, recently returned vets, have been appointed by the post to approach prospective players and supervise organization of the team.

The two men have issued a call to all those interested to be on hand for practice sessions on Mondays at 7:30 p. m. in the high school gymnasium. Bid for entry into the second half race of the southern Oregon independent league will be made if the quintet is whipped together in time.

CHAMPION, PETE BATTLE TO DRAW

Coast junior heavyweight champion Joe Lynam and Pete Belcastro went to a furious draw in a spectacular match on the Medford armory wrestling card last night. It was one of the most brutal brawls fans have seen in the North Barrlett street arena in many moons and kept the crowd yelling all kinds of advice and criticism throughout the six rounds.

Belcastro grabbed the first tangle in the fourth round with uppercuts and Lynam's midsection and jaw and the champion evened the match in the final session with a body press.

Not all of the activity and excitement was in the ring last night. As Tony Ross, substituting for Earl Malone, was leaving the ring after going to a draw with Herb Parks, he was accosted by an unidentified fan who called the Salem Terror names and offered a fight. Ross and the fired gentleman went into a clinch and were broken up by police before any actual blows were exchanged.

Joe Smolinski won over Jack Lipscomb on a foul when the former champion provoked the referee Wally Moss by socking the arbiter.

DOBBS CONCERT TO DRAW MANY

Advance ticket sales indicate that when Ralph Dobbs, American pianist, gives his concert in the Medford high school auditorium tomorrow night it will be to a full house of music lovers. It was stated this morning there are no reserved seats, but for the convenience of those who dislike standing in a ticket line, tickets are being sold in advance at the Purucker Piano House and Pruitt's Music center.

Mr. Dobbs is particularly interesting to experienced musicians, but his music is highly enjoyable to the average listener, according to many who have attended his concerts. He will give a short concert for high school students Friday at 10:40 a. m.

It is stated that those who find it impossible to attend the evening concert may attend the high school assembly. The evening concert is set for 8 o'clock.
