

Society and Clubs

League Conference Scheduled In City For Next Saturday

Oregon League of Women Veterans will hold a sectional conference in Medford Saturday, Jan. 26, according to plans being completed by Mrs. John Stark Evans, Portland, state president, and the Jackson County League board, headed by Mrs. Justin Smith.

Conducting the conference and main speaker at a luncheon will be Dr. Edna Landros, faculty member from the University of Oregon at Eugene, and Miss Manche Langley, Portland, a regional vice-president of the league.

Dr. Landros, considered an authority on the United Nations Organization, will outline the work which local leagues may do to carry on the program of the national league concerning UNO. Miss Langley will bring information on the state league program for "the extension of youth services through establishment of family courts and revision of child welfare laws."

The two women will conduct round table discussions with league members from 10 a. m. until noon. All women interested in the program of the county league, or in further information on UNO, are invited to attend the Saturday noon luncheon Mrs. Smith states.

Miss Townsend Engaged To Wed James L. Worden

Betrothal of their daughter, Mildred V. Townsend, to James L. Worden has been announced by Mr. and Mrs. George Townsend, 1035 West Tenth street. Mr. Worden is a son of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Worden, Perrydale avenue.

The wedding is being planned for later this month.

Miss Townsend, a graduate of Medford high school, is on the staff of the Western Thrift store here while her fiancé recently returned from overseas service with the air corps.

Officers' Outpost To Give Musicales

Scheduled to appear at 5 o'clock today in a candlelight musicale at the Officers' Outpost are Caroline Andrews, soprano, coloratura soprano, and Richard Werner, violinist and conductor. Mr. and Mrs. Werner, who arrived in the valley recently from New York, have been prominent in music circles of the east. Mrs. Werner having appeared in grand opera, concert and on national radio programs. Her husband is a former member of the New York Symphony and served as a conductor on Broadway at one time.

Miss Phyllis Furry will serve as accompanist and the program has been arranged by Mrs. Roberta Ward Bebb.

All army and navy officers, their wives and patrons and patronesses of the Outpost are invited to attend the musicale and buffet supper to follow, according to Mrs. I. E. Schuler, director of the Outpost.

Eleanor LeMire Becomes Bride Of Leslie Corey

In a setting of yellow and white blossoms, Miss Eleanor LeMire became the bride of Leslie Corey at a nuptial mass in Sacred Heart Catholic church the morning of Wednesday, January 9. The Rev. Thomas Hamilton officiated.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white satin fashioned with basque bodice and full skirt forming a train. Doves of white lace were applied on the skirt. Her full-length veil was held in place by a halo of seed pearls and she carried a white satin missal with streamers of bouvardia and rosebuds.

Miss Louise LeMire, sister of the bride, was maid-of-honor. She wore a yellow chiffon gown with a shepherdess bonnet of white lace trimmed with yellow rosebuds and carried a colonial bouquet of the yellow rosebuds. Little Eloise Corey, flower girl, was dressed in blue and carried a nosegay of yellow rosebuds.

Neil Iven was best man for the groom and James Lewis and Edwin LeMire were ushers.

A breakfast for the immediate members of the families and the bridal party was held at the Holland Hotel following the ceremony, with Mr. Corey and his bride cutting the first slice of the wedding cake.

After a wedding trip north the couple plans to reside in Eugene, where Mr. Corey is planning to enroll in school. For traveling Mrs. Corey wore a brown ensemble with dappled accessories and a corsage of rosebuds.

The bride, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George B. LeMire, Thomas Road, is a graduate of St. Mary's Academy and had recently returned to Medford from Santa Barbara, Calif., where for the past year and a half she had been employed at the Army Redistribution Center.

Mr. Corey, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry E. Corey, former Medford residents now living in Salem, is also a graduate of St. Mary's Academy and recently was released from the army after spending considerable time in Europe with the Eighth air force.

Snyder-Miller Rites Are Held

The wedding of Patricia M. Snyder, San Luis hotel, to Leon S. Miller, Medford, son of Mr. and Mrs. George S. Miller, Medina, O., took place at 2 p. m. Jan. 17 at the Chapel of the Rocks and Roses.

Mr. and Mrs. Miller will make their home in Medford.

To observe Girthday

Electa Social club will celebrate the tenth anniversary of organization with a luncheon Friday at the home of Mrs. C. E. Kunz, Old Pacific highway. Luncheon will be served at one o'clock and members are asked to bring service.

Mrs. Edith Olson is president of the club.

Mr. and Mrs. David L. Harbison were married in the First Christian church in Medford during the holidays. The bride is the former Dorothy Troxell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Troxell, South Peach street, and the groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Harbison, Lakeview. —(Shangle photo).

Helen Sandberg Becomes Bride Of Alvin Gould

Miss Helen Louise Sandberg, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Sandberg, Portland, became the bride of Alvin Alfred Gould, formerly of Medford, at a ceremony in Peace Lutheran church in Portland January 12. The groom is a son of Mrs. Andrew Hedlund, Oregon City, and the late Edward Gould.

For the wedding the bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white slipper satin with long train and fingertip length veil held in place by a Juliet cap of seed pearls. She carried a white Bible with an orchid.

Mrs. V. J. Barron, sister of the groom, was matron-of-honor. Her gown was of pink net. Miss Norma Sandberg, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid. She wore a blue net gown and both carried nosegays of pink roses with white carnations.

Thompson White was best man for Mr. Gould and ushers were Arthur L. Mayer, Jr., and Dick Payne.

During the service Floyd Conklin sang "Always" and "Entreat Me Not To Leave Thee."

At the reception Mrs. W. Childreth and Mrs. James Asbaugh, sisters of the groom, poured and the bride's mother cut the wedding cake. For the wedding and reception Mrs. Sandberg wore a pink crepe gown while the groom's mother was gowned in American beauty crepe.

The groom is a graduate of Medford high school. He returned to this country last summer after serving in the European theater with the air corps as a bombardier, having also been a prisoner of the Germans for an extended period.

Retiring Queen Job's Daughters Honored At Ball

One of the largest of the winter social affairs for the city's young people was the semi-annual queen's ball given by Medford Bethel, Daughters of Job, at the Lincoln school gymnasium Jan. 12. The affair honored Miss Carmen Wright, retiring queen.

"Black Magic", theme of the dance, was carried out with black and white murals of dancing couples and the orchestra was seated beneath a canopy of black and white.

During intermission Miss Wright was introduced by Miss Jean Zacharisen, newly installed queen, and was presented with the past honored queen's jewel.

Miss Zacharisen was in charge of the ball and heading the various committees were Miss Margery Thompson, decorations; Miss Phyllis Merrick, clean-up; Miss Janet Horsley, program; Miss Pat Older, music; Miss Norma Stearns, program; Miss Kathleen Seekatz, publicity; Miss Marilyn Weintraut, refreshments, and Miss Ann Butler, patrons and patronesses.

Serving as patrons and patronesses were the Messrs and Mesdames W. H. Holt, L. P. Older, Ray E. Wright, C. L. Thompson, W. V. Hammond, Scott Davis, Emerson Merrick, Clarence Winetrot, Darrel Hudson, Victor Sether, Elton Waldron, Arnel Butler, George Hiles, A. K. Morse, and Lt. Col. and Mrs. J. W. Horseley. Mrs. Effie Adams and Mrs. Wilson Waite.

Heads Installed By Junior Club

Mrs. Ida M. Wilson was installed as director of the Junior Club of the Degree of Honor Jan. 12 at a meeting in the Lincoln school hall. Mrs. Ethel Lindholm of Portland, state director, was installing officer with Mary White, past president, and Mamie Atkins, usher, assisting.

Other officers installed were Carlene Mark, past president; Virginia Lee Corey, first vice president; Doris Hake, second vice president; Barbara Johnson, color bearer; Kathleen Carrara, musician; Dannie O'Toole, usher; Dannie Pool, assistant usher; Alice White, secretary; Morine White, treasurer; Richard Pool, inner watch; Frederick Williams, outer watch; and Leota Central, program chairman.

Initiated as new members were Alice and Norma White and Frederick Williams.

Departing Couple Honored Recently With Many Parties

Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Kurtz, who will leave next week-end for Washington where they will reside on a farm near Chehalis, have been honored in recent days at a number of farewell parties.

One of the largest affairs was that given Thursday evening by a group of friends at the Chapel of the Rocks and Roses. Walter Nitzel showed colored pictures taken by him in Crater Lake and Glacier National Parks, and later supper was served.

The serving table was appointed in yellow and white and a decorated cake was cut by Mrs. Kurtz. The affair, attended by about 30 friends of the couple, was arranged by Mrs. Earl Moore and Dr. and Mrs. D. E. Millard.

Last evening Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Sims entertained at dinner for Mr. and Mrs. Kurtz, inviting friends to their home on Ross Lane. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Kurtz, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Cook, Mr. and Mrs. Marmie Olson, Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Bohnert, the Rev. and Mrs. Delbert Daniels, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Troxell, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Smith and Mrs. Eloise Winkleblock.

Members of Zonta club entertained for Mrs. Kurtz recently at an evening party at the home of Mrs. H. W. Conger. A program of games was enjoyed and Mrs. Kurtz was presented with a farewell gift. Yellow chrysanthemums decorated the rooms of the Conger home and refreshments were served from tables centered with cases of acacia.

Mrs. Eva Marsh entertained recently for Mrs. Kurtz, inviting members of the music committee of the Science church, for which Mrs. Kurtz has been soloist, and a few other friends from the church. The affair, a handkerchief shower, was at Mrs. Marsh's home, 425 West Fourth street. Mrs. Thomas Young assisted and ten guests were present.

This afternoon Mrs. James D. Flemming is entertaining at a small tea for Mrs. Kurtz, the affair to be at her home, 311 Laurel street.

A number of other farewell parties are being planned for this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Kurtz have made their home in Medford for the past 15 years and are widely known. Mrs. Kurtz has been active in music circles of the valley, is a member of the Medford Zonta club and district chairman for the group, and has served as choir director and soloist for Medford churches.

Mr. and Mrs. Kurtz have sold their home at 204 North Ivy street to Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Russell. Their farm, about nine miles south of Chehalis, consists of 80 acres of farm and forest land.

Ashland Branch AAUW Entertains Medford Members

A group of Medford members of the American Association of University Women were entertained by the Ashland branch at a meeting Wednesday evening in the Lithia Hotel. Joint meetings of the two groups are held annually.

Featured on the program was a one-act play presented by the Ashland Theater Guild under the direction of Angus Bowmer of the Southern Oregon College of Education. Taking part were Ethel May Bonnette, a member of the Ashland AAUW branch, Kenneth Miller, Nanette Cudde and Douglas and Patty Peck. The play was Thornton Wilder's "Happy Journey."

Miss Neva West, president of the Ashland branch, also appeared on the program, telling an "Uncle Remus" story. Miss West also welcomed the visitors and introduced Mrs. Will Dodge, chairman of the drama group of the branch and in charge of the evening's entertainment.

During the refreshment hour Mrs. Angus Bowmer poured and Mrs. Dodge served ices.

January Meeting Held Wednesday By Wives' Club

Mrs. Henry J. Pauls and Mrs. V. M. Lancaster were in charge of the January meeting of the SCU 1913 Officers' Wives club held Wednesday at the Officers' Outpost. Bridge followed luncheon.

Wives of navy officers and of officers of the air corps search and rescue unit at the Medford air base were guests for the luncheon and meeting.

Shower Is Given For Mrs. Miller

Phoenix, Jan. 19—A shower honoring Mrs. Johnny Miller was held Jan. 15 at the home of Mrs. Ray Zulauf. Mrs. Elmer Coffman was assistant hostess.

Guests included Mrs. Walter Smith, Mrs. Delbert Cook, Mrs. Johnny Roberts, Mrs. Miles Brownrigg, Mrs. Cora Foster, Mrs. Dave Osborn, Mrs. Brooks Montgomery, Mrs. Earl Davis and Misses Lula Roberts, Shirleen Miller and Carol Roseborough.

Newlywed Couple Arrive In City; Will Reside Here

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh B. Collins, whose wedding was an event of Monday, Jan. 14, arrived in Medford Wednesday evening and will make their home here.

Mrs. Collins is the former Miss Vivian Susan Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Smith, Billings, Mont., and Mr. Collins is a son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Collins, 2224 East Main street.

The wedding took place at the Billings Presbyterian church. Miss Mary Adeline Cook was maid-of-honor for the bride and Charles Wetherell was best man for Mr. Collins. A reception followed at the home of the bride's parents.

Mr. Collins, an attorney, is a former first lieutenant in the army transportation corps, having served in the Pacific war theater for a considerable period.

Olsens Announce Daughter's Troth To Merlyn Perry

Mr. and Mrs. Paul G. Olsen announce the betrothal of their daughter, Barbara Jean, to Merlyn D. Perry, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Perry, Eagle Point.

Plans are not yet complete for the wedding, which will take place in February.

The Olsens reside on the highway between Eagle Point and Shady Cove.

Announce Trothal Puyallup Teacher To Captain Ibsen

From Puyallup, Wash., comes the announcement of the engagement of Miss Ruth Hanawalt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hanawalt, Puyallup, to Capt. Ibsen A. Nelsen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Julius Nelsen, 306 Hamilton street.

Miss Hanawalt attended the College of Puget Sound and the University of Washington, where she was affiliated with Lambda Sigma Chi sorority and active in Y.W.C.A. During her senior year Miss Hanawalt was a member of the Mortar Board, senior women's honor society, Totem club and Pi Lambda Theta, women's educational honorary. At present she is instructor of home economics at the high school in Centralia, Wash.

Capt. Nelsen, a graduate of Medford high school, served 39 months overseas with the 41st division and is now in Medford on terminal leave.

Date of the wedding has not been announced.

Alter Society Plans Benefit Party Tuesday

St. Anne's Altar society of

Sacred Heart Catholic church is sponsoring a games and card party at the parish hall Tuesday, Jan. 22 at 8 p. m. Prizes will be awarded, the committee states.

Officers of the society, of which Mrs. A. Meunier is president, will be in charge of the party. The public is invited to attend.

BEAUTY SCHOOL SPECIALS

Permanent Wave
$5.00 $4.00
$8.00 $6.00
$10.00

COLD WAVE $10

Shampoo & Hair Style $1.00

All work under the direction of competent supervisors

MEDFORD SCHOOL

of

BEAUTY CULTURE

235 E. Main Phone 2538

Wood and Coal Combination

HEATERS

Younger's Appliance

31 N. Bartlett

Bowman's Beauty Salon

227 So. Central

Phone 3186

Permanents

$750

FEATURING
Zoto's Cold Waves
Breck Treatments
Hair Tinting
— OPERATORS —
Glenny Tillie
Dot Lola

Evening Appointments for Permanents Taken

Orange Blossom
ENGAGEMENT & WEDDING
RINGS BY TRAUB

We recommend these lovely rings for their fineness of quality, styling and craftsmanship. Come and see them.

Lawrence's
JEWELRY and GIFT SHOP
35 Years in Medford. Specializing in Fine Diamonds only. Ask the person who wears a Lawrence Diamond.

War Music Topic To Be Presented For Local Group

Hostess for the January meeting of the Medford Musical society will be Mrs. Frank Humphrey, 28 Geneva street, the meeting to be held Monday at eight o'clock.

Mrs. Earle Hoover has arranged the program, topic of which is "War Music." Appearing will be Mrs. H. L. Rutherford, Mrs. A. C. Pierce, Mrs. C. H. Paske, Mrs. Emogene Smith and Miss Mabel Nansen.

Serving will be Mrs. A. A. Seekatz, Mrs. F. M. McKean, Mrs. Ernest R. Gilstrap and Mrs. Wilbur A. Arnold.

COME TODAY

APOSTOLIC FAITH CHURCH
(No. Central & 3rd Street)

SPECIAL MUSIC — PERSONAL TESTIMONIES
35-Piece Orchestra

SPIRIT-FILLED MESSAGES
Services: 11 A.M., 3 P.M., 7:45 P.M. Sunday School 9:30 A.M.
Tuesday and Friday, 8 P.M.

"The Church Without a Collection"

CY COLOGY SEZ.

"A CAT WATCHING A MOUSE IS CARELESS COMPARED TO A VILLAGE WATCHING A WIDOW"

Our friend Cy might also have said something about the way the public is watching store windows these days for new merchandise. We feel as bad as you about the shortage of such items as new radios and record players. We can only say that we are doing our utmost to speed delivery.

We have several top lines franchised, such as General Electric and Emerson, and we suggest that you get your name on our waiting list right away. There is no obligation.

JUST RECEIVED!
Large shipment of WESTERN RECORDS

PRUITT'S
Music & Radio Center
111 W. MAIN • 19 N. FIR

JANUARY Clearance

1/2 PRICE SALE

Must Make Room for New Stock
Going Out at 1/2 Original Price

FUR TRIMMED AND PLAIN COATS-SUITS - 3 PC. SUITS-DRESSES

Jackets - Sweaters - Hats

Bags - Print Robes - Novelries

One Rack of Dresses Specially priced at $5.00

ADRIENNE'S

NO EXCHANGES
NO REFUNDS
ALL SALES FINAL