

ANNUAL REPORTS READ AT MEET OF COMMUNITY CLUB

Sixteen Girls Enjoy Cooperative Plan of Organization During Past Year.

The Girls' Community club of Medford has successfully carried out a program devoted to community service, and especially to the problems facing the young employed girls, for the past 13 years according to reports read at the annual joint meeting of the board of directors and trustees held Monday evening at the club house on North Bartlett street.

The recreation room has been used the past year by 44 different civic organizations with an average of 20 meetings a month, and an average attendance of 25 persons per meeting, the club reports show.

Many Parties Held Report of the matron, Mrs. Stella Hendrickson, showed that 16 girls have enjoyed the cooperative plan of the club this year and that many parties were held. Mrs. Hendrickson stated that many former residents return for visits and letters are received from young women who lived at the club four or five years ago expressing appreciation for the help received.

The treasurer, Mrs. Aletha Vawter, reported operating costs of the clubhouse to be $2,020, of which $1,538 was received from the Community Chest. Because of the failure of the chest to meet the budget, activities for the year were necessarily curtailed, it was reported.

Mrs. Porter Neff, house chairman, gave a list of supplies purchased and repairs made to the house and Mrs. Glenn Jackson, reporting for the building committee, stated that no definite action would be taken until it was ascertained whether plans for the city park would contain a civic building with club rooms.

Acknowledgements Reports were made on the softball team which the club sponsored and which won the valley championship, and it is hoped this activity may be expanded. Acknowledgement for gifts and other aid was extended Mrs. Michael Beck, the Mistletoe club, Porter Neff, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Carpenter and the city fire department.

It was pointed out that the club facilities and counselorship were especially useful to young girls during the war years. Many of the girls live at the club house for the full allowed period of one year and there is always a waiting list. Restrictions include a wage ceiling so that only girls needing assistance are accepted. Letters are received from young women all over the United States inquiring about the club, it was said.

Officers Elected Election was held, with Mrs. Dolph Phipps named president; Mrs. Martin Luther, vice president; Mrs. Glenn Jackson, secretary and Mrs. Aletha Vawter, treasurer. Other members of the board include Mrs. Porter Neff, Mrs. R. W. Sietter, Mrs. Don Newbury, Mrs. Grace Collins and Mrs. M. M. Morris. Members of the board of trustees are Mrs. A. J. Hanby, Mrs. B. G. Harding, Dr. Bert R. Elliott, Eugene Thorndike and Don Newbury.

Oregon Farmers Urged to Retain High Production

Portland, Jan. 23—(U.P.)—Oregon farmers are being informed that another year of high agricultural production is expected of them.

This is revealed in announcement of 1946 crop goals for Oregon by state AAA committee chairman R. B. Taylor. It is the desire of the United States Department of Agriculture production and marketing administration that goals be maintained as high as those of 1945, Taylor declares.

Crop goals call for acreages about the same as last year. However, with the exception of dairy products, goals for livestock and poultry are somewhat lower than in 1945.

Why is this sauce the Western favorite?
LET'S ASK THE WOMEN WHO COOK WITH DEL MONTE!

2 out of 3 of them
have used it more than 10 years

Yes, Del Monte Tomato Sauce has been the grand old cooking sauce of western housewives, for years! Was their favorite—is their favorite!

And even during the war, when it was hard to get, they didn't forget it. Certainly not!

How do we know? Well, one of America's largest independent research organizations went out and asked them.

And what did Del Monte users say about Del Monte Tomato Sauce? Plenty! Two out of three women preferring Del Monte have used it over 10 years. Listen to Mrs. Brock, for instance:

"There's no tomato flavor like it to me!"

—Says MRS. W. L. BROCK, 2117 SANTA YNEZ STREET, LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA

Have you used this sauce a long time, Mrs. Brock?

"Ever since it came on the market, I guess—33 years or so. Seems I've always known about it and always used it. And in all those years, it never has failed to give me the good rich tomato flavor my family likes."

Just what do you like about its flavor?

"Well, it's a nice clear flavor—a genuine tomato flavor without too much spicing. When Del Monte was scarce, I had to use whatever sauces I could find. But I really like Del Monte best. It is very dependable—always good and always the same."

Do you cook for a family now?

"Only four of us now, but I brought up five children. My boys are still in the service, and they're really anxious for some of 'Mom's cooking'! One dish they'll ask for is barbecued spareribs. We all like the way Del Monte Tomato Sauce peeps up plain meats. And I use it in many other ways, too. In fact, when I want tomato flavor, it's Del Monte Tomato Sauce for me!"

BARBECUED SPARERIBS

- 3 to 4 lbs. pork spareribs or lean beef shortribs
- 3 cans Del Monte Tomato Sauce
- 1 cup vinegar
- 3 tps. sugar
- 1 medium sized onion, minced
- 1 clove garlic, minced
- 2 or 3 small, pickled red chili peppers, minced
- Salt and pepper to taste
- 1 tsp. Worcestershire Sauce
- 1 cup hot water

Arrange the meat in a good-sized baking pan. Combine remaining ingredients in a saucepan and simmer until slightly thickened, about 15 minutes. Pour over the meat and bake in a moderate oven (350° F.) until the meat is tender, about 3 hours. Do not cover. Add a little water if needed but the richness of the sauce should not be too greatly thinned. Extra good served with hot buttered hominy and a green salad. Serves 5 to 7.

Just be sure it's Del Monte TOMATO SAUCE
