OBITUARY

JEFFERSON H. SALING

Funeral services will be conducted from the Perle Funeral Home Saturday at 2 p. m., for Jefferson Hugh Saling, who passed away Monday in Chelan, Wash. The Rev. Ivan Dupray, pastor of the Advent Christian church, will officiate and interment will take place in Phoenix cemetery.

Mr. Saling was born in Weiser, Idaho, Dec. 23, 1897. For a number of years he was employed by the Portland Traction Co., and during the past year had been in Skagway, Alaska, where he was engaged in the fishing industry. He returned to Washington just a short time ago.

Mr. Saling leaves to mourn his passing two sisters, Mrs. Nan Coat of Medford, and Mrs. Andrew Michelson of Payette, Idaho; two daughters, Mrs. Constance Bergeron of Portland and Elaine Saling of Portland, there are also two grandchildren.

FRANK B. GOODHUE
Frank B. Goodhue, 86, a resident of Jackson county for many years, residing on his farm west of Central Point until the last two years which was spent in Ashland, passed away there Tuesday. His wife preceded him in death several years ago. His only survivor so far as is known is a niece, Hilda Tucker in Norfolk, Va.

HOME APPLIANCE ELECTRIC STORE OPENS THURSDAY

Medford's newest electric store, the G. E. Home Appliance company, will open here Thursday at 115 East Main street, according to the owner, O. O.
Alenderfer. The new concern will feature a complete line of General Electric appliances as soon as production permits and a preview of the new G. E. line will be featured at the opening of the local store.

The new G. E. Home Appliance company store follows the pattern of similar stores now being established throughout the country, according to Alenderfer. As soon as possible a model kitchen and laundry room will be added. Shortages of materials will delay completion of the store's front in the new Goldy building.

O. O. Alenderfer was formerly in the electrical business in this city. He has recently represented the Aetna Life Insurance company in this area. Alenderfer is a past potentate of Hillah shrine temple, a past exalted ruler of the local Elks lodge and is active in business and fraternal circles of this city. Dick Finch, recently discharged from the army air corps, will be store manager. Finch was a pilot instructor during the war and now resides in Medford with his wife and daughter.

STEEL STRIKE SLOWS TIRE MANUFACTURING

Akron, O., Jan. 23.—(U.P.)—The nation's leading rubber companies announced here today that they planned a nearly complete shutdown within two to three weeks because of a shortage of bead wire caused by the nationwide steel strike.
B. F. Goodrich Co. said that it was considering curtailing production at the end of this week because of the shortage of bead wire used in the manufacture of tires.
