

LOCAL and PERSONAL

Daughters To Meet—Daughters of Union Veterans of the Civil War will meet Friday at the armory at 7:30 p. m.

To Give Dance—A "hill Billy" dance will be given by members of the Pocahontas lodge Saturday, Jan. 26 at Redman hall on Apple street for members and invited guests.

Legion To Meet—Regular meeting of the Myers-Holland American Legion post of Central Point will convene this evening at 8 p. m. at the Sportsmen's club hall.

Officer Home—Lt. G. W. Fierling is spending a 45-day leave in Talent with his wife and baby daughter. Lt. Fierling, who arrived in New York Dec. 29, spent more than 16 months in Europe, mostly in Germany.

CALENDAR

Thursday
8:00 p. m.—Reames chapter, stated communication at Masonic Temple followed by refreshments.

Friday
1:00 p. m.—Electa Social club, home of Mrs. C. E. Kunz, Old Pacific highway, for anniversary luncheon. Bring service.

Meet Tonight—Crater Lake Aerie and Auxiliary, Fraternal order of Eagles, will meet at 8 p. m. tonight for initiation, committee reports and balloting. A dance is to follow the meeting.

Leave For Utah—Mrs. Jep Oaks and small daughter left the city yesterday for their home in Vernal, U., after an extended visit at the home of Mrs. Oaks' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Niel Franklin, 619 East Main street.

To Build—Kenneth K. Graham, route 2, applied for permit yesterday at the city superintendent's office to erect a residence at 1204 East Jackson street costing $6,000 and Harry B. Riggs, 675 West 13th street, applied to erect a garage and living quarters at a cost of $1,000.

Hardesty Released—Dr. J. E. Hardesty of the Rogue Animal Hospital on North Riverside avenue, was released from the Camp White Naval hospital Tuesday. Dr. Hardesty was injured in an auto accident on the Camp White military reservation Saturday morning.

To Give Recital—Miss Patsy Faber will present a piano recital this evening at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Faber, Central Point. The student will play a program of Chopin waltzes and etudes and numbers by Beethoven. Friends of the Faber family are invited to attend the recital, set for eight o'clock.

To Give Exams—Real estate examinations will be held by the Oregon State Real Estate board at the armory Tuesday, Jan. 29, at 9:30 a. m. it was announced today by Carl Y. Tengwald, member of the board, who will conduct the examination. Tengwald states that nearly 30 applicants from all parts of southern Oregon will take the examination.

Kenyon Home—Harold W. Kenyon, who has spent the past three years with an army engineer battalion, arrived in Medford recently after an honorable discharge from the service at Camp Beale, Calif. Mr. and Mrs. Kenyon are residing at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Burt Kenyon, 511 South Grape street. A private first class while in the army. Kenyon participated in three campaigns in the Pacific theater.

Report To Boards—Reporting to county selective boards yesterday following honorable discharges from the service were these men from Jackson county: Lowell C. Edwards, Joseph A. Wetterer, Claude J. Long, Robert B. Slagle, Harry B. George, Antony Kimek, William P. Elson, Wayne W. Smith, Robert B. Warrick, Manfred C. Richman, Harry A. Chaplin, Walter W. Seitz, Jean B. Prock, Jack E. O'Rourke and Clayton V. Fields.

Navyman Home—Roy W. Johnson, former chief specialist with the navy, has returned to the family home at 44 North Peach street following an honorable discharge at Bremerton, Wash., after 15 months service aboard a repair ship. Johnson arrived in the United States recently from Okinawa. Mrs. Johnson and children, Edward and Jane, have made their home in Medford since Mr. Johnson's induction in the navy, the family having formerly lived in Illinois.

Stark Home—Stanley Stark, recently released from the army after two years' service, has returned to Medford and is with Mrs. Stark at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. Ransstrom, Beall Lane. He will return to the employ of the Oregon Finance company. Stark, who held the rank of master sergeant, served in Italy, France and Germany with the 35th AAA Brigade, headquarters battery. He holds the purple heart and soldier's medal and five battle stars.

MacArthur Frees Jap Prostitutes Held in Bondage

Tokyo, Jan. 24—(U.P.)—Gen. Douglas MacArthur today ordered the Japanese government to annul all laws authorizing or permitting licensed prostitution and to cancel all agreements which bind any woman to practice prostitution.

Col. Crawford Sams, chief of the public health and welfare section, said that for centuries Japanese girls have been literally "sold" to proprietors of brothels for "loans" of from 500 to 10,000 yen to their parents. In many cases, he said, the houses had hired thugs who brought back and beat up all girls who had run away.

FORMER ARMY OFFICERS OFFERED REENLISTMENT

All former officers of the United States army and of the national guard reserve were reminded today by the local recruiting officer that if they were discharged after June and before Nov. 1, 1945, they may be enlisted in the first grade provided enlistment is accomplished before Jan. 31. Anyone desiring further information on the matter may visit the recruiting office in the federal building in Medford.

ASHLAND LEGION HEAD QUILTS AS COMMANDER

Ashland, Jan. 24—Beecher Danford, commander of Ashland American Legion Post 14, has resigned. Danford gave private business and increasing volume of Legion work as his reason. Jake Lahr, vice commander, temporarily assumed the chair pending election of a new commander.

WOMEN AND CHILDREN WILL HELP ON FARMS

Corvallis, Jan. 24—(U.P.)—Mixed platoons of city women and children will be used again in the 1946 farm labor program in Oregon, the Oregon State College extension service reports.

Groups of 35 or 40 women were organized last year and then joined with children. About 9,000 women—most of whom were city housewives—were placed by 26 county labor offices last year.

OBITUARY

MRS. MARY B. STRANG
Mrs. Mary B. Strang, wife of the late Charles Strang, and mother of Mrs. Helen Holmes, Fred, Virgil, Robert and Herbert Strang, passed away at her home on Medford Heights late Wednesday.

A complete obituary will be published tomorrow with time and day of funeral services, which are in charge of Perl Funeral Home.

DOCTOR KNIFE EXPERT

Los Angeles, Jan. 24—(U.P.)—Dr. Edwin B. Glass, San Francisco and Los Angeles gland specialist, threw butcher knives at their kitchen wall to prove how accurate his aim was. Mrs. Irene Dowling Glass charged today in trial of her divorce suit. Dr. Glass threatened to throw the knives at her, she said. He frequently knocked her down, she charged.

RUBBER ARRIVAL SLOW

Washington, Jan. 24—(U.P.)—The civilian production administration reported today that only about 500 tons of natural rubber have come to this country from the Far East since the war ended. In order to obtain increasing amounts of natural rubber, CPA said it was setting up five new consulting technical committees to advise its rubber division.

Any person having a claim against The Nightingale Club or Johnson Truck Lines account Nightingale, or Glen Johnson account Nightingale, or Sam Mete account Nightingale, please submit statement of claim at once to The Nightingale, 820 So. Central Ave., Medford.

NOW SHE SHOPS "CASH AND CARRY"

Without Painful Backache
Many sufferers relieve nagging backache quickly, once they discover that the real cause of their trouble may be tired kidneys. Tired kidneys are Nature's chief way of telling the excess acids and waste out of the blood. They help most people pass about 3 pints a day.

RED CROSS WORK SHOP IN APPEAL FOR MATERIALS

Supplies for Junior Red Cross work shop projects are at a very low ebb according to Miss Vera Humphrey, county chairman, and an appeal was made today by Miss Humphrey for numerous materials.

Needed are brightly colored yarns to be woven into afghan squares, since a partly completed afghan of the woven pieces awaits completion, and also fine yarns of yellow, black and brown to be used for stuffed doll wigs. Material for doll stuffing is also needed, this to be either kapok or snippings of flannel or soft white cotton.

Also needed are clean wool scraps, from which four-inch squares can be cut, felt hats and grosgrain ribbon for making and popular magazines, such as Time folios and new valentine, Easter and Mother's Day cards.

Miss Humphrey states that back copies of such magazines as Colliers and Saturday Evening Post are desired, and current copies of these and other binding slippers, writing port and Life, are also needed.

The Franklin Delano Roosevelt stamp collection, valued at

Do YOU suffer from CRAMPS NERVOUS TENSION

on "CERTAIN DAYS" of the month? If female functional monthly disturbances make you suffer cramps, headache, backache, weak, tired, nervous, cranky feelings—at such times—try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to relieve such symptoms. Taken through the month—Pinkham's Compound helps build up resistance against such symptoms. Also great stomachic tonic! Try it!

Thursday, Jan. 24, 1946 MEDFORD MAIL TRIBUNE—ELEVEN

$100,000, soon to be offered at public auction, does not include gifts from the rulers of foreign countries.

WANTED TO BUY

DOUGLAS FIR
POLES and PILING
PUGET TIMBER COMPANY

Box 566

Central Point, Ore.

CRATERIAN

NOW!
ENDS
SAT.

STARTS SUN.

Sparkling Comedy
ROBERT YOUNG
LARAINE DAY

Those Endearing
Young Charms

ALTO

STARTS SUN.

STARTS SUN.

DIZZY...
GIDDY... FUNNY...

It's the Glitter and Glow Show of the Year—
A Wonder of Laughs... Love... and Lovelies!

DANNY KAYE

WONDER MAN IN TECHNICOLOR!

with
VIRGINIA MAYO
VERA-ELLEN
Donald Woods S. Z. Sakall

and
THE GLAMOROUS
GOLDWYN GIRLS

Also KARTOON
Paramount
NEWS

Matinees
Saturday
Sunday

HOLLY THEATRE

Evening
Shows
6:45 p.m.

FLAT DRINKS ARE WASHOUTS

"See Humphrey First"

TO BUY OR SELL YOUR USED CAR

Humphrey Motors
Used Car Exchange
33 S. Riverside Ave.

QUINTUPLETS

always rely on this great rub for CHEST COLDS

MUSTEROLE

ROXY

40¢ THE FAMILY THEATRE 40¢
Always 2 Features
TODAY thru SAT.

