

JUVENILE OFFICER HAS BUSY WEEK IN DELINQUENT CHASE

Numerous detentions of run-aways, larceny of autos, a feeble minded youth and a sex offense topped a busy week for the Jackson county juvenile officer.

A 17-year-old Fruitdale, Ida., girl was apprehended for mas- quarading as a boy and being involved in numerous sex of- fenses in Medford. She has been returned to authorities in Idaho.

Betty Jean Haskell, 14, was taken from a bus at Redding, Calif., after running away from her home here. She told au- thorities she was en route to Sacramento for her dog, left be- hind when the family moved here recently.

Mrs. Bernice Garner, 22, was arrested for neglect of her chil- dren, aged 18 months and 2½ years. The children were taken from her and made wards of the court. Her husband is in the armed services.

WOMEN TO HEAR FACULTY MEMBER AT LEAGUE MEET

To bring Jackson county wom- en up-to-date on the United Na- tions' Organization, representa- tives of which are meeting in London now, Dr. Edna Landros will be featured speaker at a luncheon meeting tomorrow at the Holland Hotel Blue Room at 12:30 p. m. Dr. Landros' ap- pearance here is sponsored by the Jackson County League of Wom- en Voters as part of a sectional conference of the state league to open at the hotel at 10 a. m. The speaker is a faculty member of the University of Oregon and a member of the Eugene league.

At 3 p. m. new federal hous- ing legislation will be discussed by Miss Manche Langley, league vice-president from Portland, and during the morning these two, with Mrs. John Stark Evans, Portland, state president, will lead round table discussion on youth services of Oregon, league finance, technique for league campaigns and housing.

Mrs. Justin Smith, Medford, president of the county league, today extended a cordial invita- tion to anyone interested in the league's program to attend part or all of the meetings. The morn- ing round table meetings and Miss Langley's talk are to be in the Grey Room.

New York, Jan. 25—(U.P.)—Trading quieted on the stock market today and prices moved irregularly.

Uncertainties in the labor situ- ation brought caution all around. Market operators worried over reports the government planned to take over the steel companies. At the present time, the steel strike is bringing about a short- age of steel that is being felt in many other lines, notably the automobile.

PACIFIC VETERAN SEEKS RECRUITS FOR ARMY HERE

Capt. Russell V. Anderson of the U. S. army recruiting serv- ice has been permanently assigned to Jackson and Josephine counties with offices in the Fed- eral building on West Sixth street, he said today.

Capt. Anderson, who has been in the service since 1936, took part in the Solomon Islands, Guadalcanal and New Georgia campaigns with the 25th divi- sion. Following his return from the Pacific theater of war he was stationed at Camp Roberts, Calif., before being sent east for instru- 'on as a recruiter.

The army is stressing its edu- cational program, offering a col- lege education to enlistees re- gardless of the branch of serv- ice entered, Capt. Anderson said. Recruits will be accepted from 17 to 34 years of age for the original enlistment.

Capt. Anderson will be at his office from 8 a. m. to 5 p. m. daily, including Saturdays. Any one finding it inconvenient to call at the office may contact him at his home, GeBaur Apart- ments, 38 North Oakdale ave- nue, the captain said.

STRANG FUNERAL 3:30 SATURDAY AT ST. MARK'S

Funeral services for Mary Beall Strang, 79, native daugh- ter of Southern Oregon who died at the Strang home on Medford Heights Wednesday night, will be conducted at St. Mark's Epis- copal church Saturday at 3:30 p. m. w. h. the Rev. George R. Turney in charge. Entombment will take place in the Medford Memorial Mausoleum.

Mrs. Strang's body will lie in state at the Perl Funeral Home Saturday between the hours of 10 a. m. and 1 p. m. and friends may call between those hours. Reames chapter of the Eastern Star will conduct a service at the mausoleum.

Born On Farm

Mrs. Strang was born on the Beall farm on Beall Lane, near Central Point, May 17, 1866. In spite of advanced years, Mrs. Strang retained a keen interest in social and civic affairs, de- voted much time to her family and had a wide circle of friends throughout the valley. Her hus- band, Charles Strang, pioneer Medford druggist, passed away Feb. 23, 1942.

The deceased was a pioneer member of St. Mark's Episcopal church, a charter member of Reames chapter and a member of the Daughters of the Nile.

She is survived by one daugh- ter, Mrs. Helen Holmes, four sons, Fred, Virgil, Herbert Strang all of Medford and Robert Strang of Reno, Nev., who is here for the funeral service. One brother, R. V. Beall, lives on Beall Lane. Also surviving are three grandchildren, William C. Strang, S. C. stationed at Corpus Christi, Tex., Mary Lee Strang, Medford; Robert C. Strang with the army and stationed at Camp Bowie, Tex.
