Keyers Observe 63th Anniversary Of Wedding Day

An event not often chronicled, that of the observance of a 63th wedding anniversary, took place in Medford Thursday, Jan. 24, when Mr. and Mrs. Albert Keyser of the Grand Hotel celebrated the anniversary of their wedding day. The elderly couple has lived here many years.

The Keyers were honored at a small reception and party given by their nephew and niece, Mr. and Mrs. V. T. Wilson, at their home on Janney Lane for a group of relatives and close friends, including Mrs. Keyser's sister, Mrs. Mary Wilson.

At refreshment time a wedding cake decorated with roses was cut and served.

Mr. and Mrs. Keyser were married in Elkhart, Ind., Jan. 24, 1878. Mrs. Keyser, 86 years old, was born in Clyde, Ohio, and her husband, 88 years of age, was born in Tuscarawas, Ohio. They have two daughters, one residing in Seattle and one in Elkhart.

For many years Mr. Keyser was on the staff of Evans store here.

Farewell Parties Given Last Week For Local Couple

Additional farewell affairs were given this past week for Mr. and Mrs. Tom Kurtz who are leaving this week-end for Washington where they will make their home near Chehalis in the future.

Tuesday night Mrs. Eloise Winklebeck, Mrs. M. E. Olson, Mrs. Charles Smith, Mrs. Wayne Troxell and Mrs. Arnold Bohner entertained for Mr. and Mrs. Kurtz, the party being at the Winklebeck home, 1113 South Oakdale avenue.

The farewell party had a "blue" theme, with hand made game tables and other decorations fashioned of blue and silver in the shape of music notes with the initials of the honored guests.

Prizes were presented to Mrs. Bert Gregory and Mrs. Kurtz. Thirty-five guests attended the pleasant affair.

Among those who entertained the couple at farewell dinners this week were Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Lathrop, Central Point, and Mrs. C. L. Emerick, 747 South Holly street.

To Visit Relatives

Leaving yesterday for a week-end visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Fellersen of Orland, Calif., were Mr. and Mrs. Edward C. Evanson and son Jimmy, 718 West 14th street, and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas McFadden, 530 South Grape street.

Returning with the group will be Mrs. E. A. Evanson, 530 South Grape street, who has spent the past three weeks visiting at the Fellersen home. Mrs. Fellersen is the daughter of Mrs. Evanson and sister of Mrs. McFadden and Edward C. Evanson.

Miss Milton Wed To Sgt. Jensen In Church Rites

A mid-January wedding was that of Miss Bobby Jean Milton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Schrader of Ft. Worth, Tex., to Sgt. Edwin J. Jensen, which took place January 12 at the First Methodist church here. The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Hans Jensen, Oak Park, Minn., and is stationed at Camp White.

The service was performed by the Rev. Louis C. Kirby. Given in marriage by her uncle, Pte. Louis DeWald of Camp White, the bride wore for the wedding a navy blue dress with a navy and white hat and black accessories. Her flowers were a corsage of white roses.

Miss Betty McGee, bridesmaid, wore a blue velvet dress with a corsage of peach colored roses.

Sgt. Leslie Myers was best man for Sgt. Jensen and Theodore Zahnow was usher.

Preceding the ceremony Harry Young sang "Always", and Miss Katherine Gentner was at the organ for the wedding music.

The reception was at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Zahnow, Route 4. The bride cut the wedding cake and assisted Mrs. Zahnow were Mrs. Ida H. Birdwell, Medford, and Mrs. Elva B. Lewis, Ashland.

Sgt. and Mrs. Jensen will live here for the present but plan to reside in Minnesota after the groom is released from the army. He has been stationed at Camp White for the past three years. Mrs. Jensen has resided in Medford since last June, having recently been on the staff of the Collyer Motor sales company.

Church Society Held Last Week

Mrs. J. K. Nielsen of Grants Pass was main speaker for the annual pledge meeting of the Woman's Society of Christian Service held Tuesday at the church. Mrs. Nielsen, formerly dean of girls of the Homer Toberman Settlement home in San Pedro, Calif., told of the program of the home which is supported by the Methodist church.

Mrs. Harry Myers, president, conducted an interesting business meeting. One of the new features of 1946 for the society will be an all-day meeting on the fourth Tuesday of each month, the session to start at 11 a. m. with lunch and a social hour at noon.

An inspiring program was presented by Mrs. W. T. Frost, Mrs. Myers, Mrs. Donna Taylor, Mrs. Frank Fanger, Mrs. H. S. Chirgwin, Mrs. W. Walker and Mrs. Ben Schmidt. Mrs. Lucille Schoppert then sang while the women of the society laid their pledges for the coming year on the altar.

Harris-Armstrong Rites Take Place In Local Church

Among weddings of last week was that of Miss Harriet Harris, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roger W. Harris, 48 Rose avenue, to Albert T. Armstrong, son of Mrs. Alma Armstrong, San Francisco.

The marriage took place Thursday afternoon in Sacred Heart Catholic church with Father H. A. Orth performing the ceremony.

Wedding costume of the bride was a lime green suit with brown accessories and her flowers were orchids. She was attended by her sister, Mrs. Betty Barber, who wore a blue suit and a corsage of gardenias.

Best man was James Humphreys.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the Harris home. The cake, cut by the bride, was served by her aunt, Mrs. M. N. Harris.

Mrs. Armstrong is a graduate of the 1945 class of Medford high school. Mr. Armstrong, who was recently released from the navy after several years overseas service, is now attending the School of Mortuary Science in San Francisco.

The couple will reside in San Francisco after Feb. 1.
