Medford Teacher Is Honor Guest At Shower Party

Miss Ruth Woods was complimented at a shower party given Friday evening by Mrs. I. E. Schuler and Miss Virginia Hammond at the Schuler home on Medford Heights. Miss Woods, on the staff of the Medford junior high school for the past four years, will leave Monday for her home in McMinnville, Ore., and her wedding to Warren F. Oksen will take place in February. Miss Woods has taught Spanish, Latin and English.

Miss Woods was presented with a shower of miscellaneous gifts. At bridge, which followed dessert, prizes went to Mrs. Bernice Kunzman, Mrs. W. E. Holmes and Mrs. Roger Rath, the latter of Ashland. Twenty-four guests were invited to the shower and party.

Miss Trueblood Marries Iowan In Recent Rites

Of interest here are details of the wedding of Miss Betty Jane Trueblood, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Trueblood, 2279 Howard avenue, to Howard Blew, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Blew of Perry, Iowa.

The wedding was an event of Jan. 12, taking place at the Methodist church parsonage in Perry, with the Rev. Ackman officiating. Miss Trueblood's wedding dress was of brown and white taffeta with brown accessories and she wore a corsage of pink rosebuds. She was attended by Mrs. Lloyd Bailey of Perry who wore a brown crepe dress with rosebud corsage.

Lloyd Bailey was best man for the groom.

A wedding supper followed the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Blew are making their home at 818 South First street in Perry and the groom is in the dairy business with his father. He was recently discharged from the navy. The bride, formerly a clerk for Fluhrer's Bakery here, later was on the staff of a nursery school in Watonsville, Calif.

Mrs. Don R. Newbury is the newly elected president of Kiwanian Dames, having been named at a luncheon meeting held Tuesday at the Holland Hotel. Mrs. C. Lyall Fidler was elected vice-president, Mrs. Tony Manno, secretary, and Mrs. Emerson Anderson, treasurer.

Mrs. E. C. Niles is the retiring president. Mrs. Frank Humphrey served as vice-president the past year and Mrs. Frank Perl as secretary and treasurer.

Mrs. Niles was presented with a gift in appreciation for her services as president.

Mrs. E. Ronald Rice was introduced as a new member of the group.

Pollyanna Party Is Held By Club

Mistletoe club held the annual "Pollyanna revelation party" at the Girls' Community club Wednesday afternoon. During the afternoon Mrs. Ruby Mallory presented the retiring president of the club, Mrs. Edith Beck, with a gift and Mrs. Gertrude Furry was introduced as a new member of the club.

Plans were made for the "Pollyanna thank you party" which will be held Feb. 8 at the home of Mrs. Frank Hussong, 56 Barneburg Road, at 7:30 p. m. Also planned was a St. Valentine's party for Feb. 13 with Elsa Walker, Jessie Lang, Dessa Hall and Marjorie Pearson as hostesses. At that time the group will also work on a quilt.

Needlework Lovers

For the reader desiring the address of a needlecraft magazine, Mrs. L. K. L., Minnesota, writes: "I'm sure the needlework lover would like Aunt Ellen's WORKBASKET. This monthly pattern and direction service brings the latest creations in handcraft and needlework from the country's foremost artists and designers. It is $1.00 a year for twelve issues, but no samples are sent because each issue contains large hot iron transfer patterns as well as ideas for such items as dollies, edgings, bedspreads, tablecloths, hats, bags, and baby's things. Orders should be sent to the WORKBASKET, 3285 Westport Station, Kansas City 2, Mo." If you are not delightedly pleased with the first issue, Aunt Ellen will return your dollar and you may keep the material you have received without any obligation. —Adv.
