CALENDAR

Tuesday
7:30 p. m.—Weekly bridge party at Officers' Outpost for army and navy officers and wives.

Wednesday
10 a. m.—Daughters of the Nile, Red Cross cutting at court-house. Bring sandwiches for lunch.
12:30 p. m.—Jolly Stitches, home of Mrs. Helen Ford, 339 South Central avenue.

To Attend Funeral—C. V. Myers left last night for Lebanon, Ore., to attend the funeral of his aunt, Mrs. Della Pierce. Before returning home he will visit a brother, seriously ill in the Salem hospital.

Veteran Here—Ernie Gaines, AMMF 2/c, is spending a 65-day furlough visiting his wife and daughter at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Gaines, 119 Portland avenue. Gaines served in the CBI theater and also in Japan as aerial gunner, plane captain and flight engineer on patrol bombers. He has reenlisted in the regular navy and will report at Seattle at end of his furlough.

Apply To Build—Applying yesterday at the city superintendent's office for permits to build were Curtis Bitch, 1204 West Ninth street, remodel residence, $200; A. L. Duin, 427 South Central avenue, remodel residence, $1,000; and R. J. Bills, 122 North Ivy street, erect addition to garage, $200. Tom Swape, 108 Clark street, applied today for permit to erect a temporary garage costing $500.

Cars Damaged—Damage estimated at $135 was caused a car operated by Birch Scrivner, route 4, early Monday morning when it skidded on the Fern Valley road and turned over, according to an accident report filed with city police. A second report states that considerable damage was caused a pick-up truck driven by Nate H. Smith, Jacksonville star route, when in collision yesterday on North Front street with a car operated by E. W. Lindstrom, Los Angeles.

To Attend Meeting—B. C. Taylor, sales agent for Tide-water Associated Oil company, will attend the company's sales meeting for all Oregon sales personnel, Jan. 31 at the Benson hotel, Portland. The meeting, to be conducted by W. A. Rea, sales manager for the company from San Francisco, will be the first of its kind for the firm since the war. Accompanying Taylor will be E. W. Bean and H. E. Blum, sales representative for the company.

Marsh Home—Larry J. Marsh, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Marsh, 1626 Myers Lane, has returned home following an honorable discharge from the army after 18 months overseas service in the European theater. Marsh, a private first class, spent 14 months in the United States training for service in an anti-aircraft unit before leaving for overseas. Marsh wears the presidential citation, good conduct medal, three bronze battle stars, combat infantryman's badge and the purple heart for wounds received in action near Julich, Germany, during the battle of the bulge. He was a member of the 28th regimental band in Germany after peace was declared. Marsh expects to return to Oregon State college for the spring term.
