

INVESTIGATION OF WINCHELL CANTOR URGED BY SMITH

Washington, Jan. 31—(U.P.)—The Rev. Gerald L. K. Smith today urged the House Un-American committee to investigate radio commentator Walter Winchell and movie stars Eddie Cantor, Frank Sinatra, Ingrid Bergman, and Edward G. Robinson.

Smith, head of the America First party and one-time associate of the late Huey P. Long, described himself to the committee as "just an old-fashioned, Bible-believing, Christ-loving American."

He charged that a "left-wing cabal" is seeking to destroy foes of communism by branding them fascist, anti-Semitic and anti-American. A "thorough and courageous investigation," he added, would establish that Winchell is part of that "conspiracy."

Sinatra Branded

"Frank Sinatra, who on the surface seems to be a highly-paid emaciated crooner," Smith continued, "recently gave his support to a meeting of the American Youth for Democracy... which was branded by (FBI Director) J. Edgar Hoover as the successor to the young communist league."

Smith charged that Eddie Cantor helped to finance activities of the mobilization for democracy which, he continued, is "an out-and-out communist outfit."

Ingrid Bergman, Smith said, has been "publicized" for giving financial support to American Youth of Democracy, and Edward G. Robinson, he went on, has been active in the mobilization for democracy.

SOCE Cast Picked For Coming Play

Southern Oregon College, Ashland, Jan. 31—The Southern Oregon college drama season opened this week with announcement of the cast of the current school production, "Guest in House."

The influx of new students in the college has made exceptionally fine acting available for this production according to Angus L. Bowmer, director of the Southern Oregon college drama department. The play will be produced at the Southern Oregon college auditorium, March 15 and 16.

The cast includes: Nanele Cuddie, Klamath Falls; Gloria Preston, Medford; Frances Church, Bert Livingston, Carolyn Rose, Ashland; Patsy Robertson, Don Davis, Lee Hayes, Medford; Roland Piper, Klamath Falls; Marilyn Young, Angus McGinnis, Rosemary Messenger, Suzanne LaMarre, Ashland; Harold Peterson, James Glenn, Louis Lemire, Medford.

ASHLANDERS FORM RADIO CORPORATION

Articles of incorporation of the Siskiyou Broadcasting company were filed with the county clerk yesterday. The incorporators are listed as George Madden Green, Marian N. Green, William T. Green, Marian Isabel Green, Harry R. Morris, Elmer C. Biegel and William M. Briggs, all of Ashland. The business of the concern will be general radio broadcasting.

TIMBER ACCESS JOSEPHINE AIM

Grants Pass, Jan. 31—Aimed at tapping the largest remaining stand of timber in Josephine county, the county court will petition for inclusion of the Happy Camp road within the Forest Service system of highways it has been announced by Judge W. A. Johnson and Commissioner L. M. Mitchell.

The officials explained that the county has no funds with which to improve this road to the point where it could be used for hauling logs from the rich stands of ripe fir on government owned property tapped by the Happy Camp road. They felt that such improvement could be accomplished by having the road taken into the forest service highway system.

Improvement by widening and straightening the Happy Camp road would permit sale of a vast stand of timber now ready for market in that area, it was explained by Commissioner Mitchell and C. W. Thornberry, manager of the Chamber of Commerce. Most of this timber is fir, with some cedar and pine.

Tennyson's Brook Facing Fade Out

London, Jan. 31—(U.P.)—The brook made famous by Lord Alfred Tennyson is in danger of disappearing.

The Spilsbury rural council in Lincolnshire is considering a plan of its water engineer to remedy a water shortage by pumping and diverting the River Lynn at Partney Mill, the spot which inspired the poet's verse:

"I chatter chatter as I flow
To join the brimming river.
For men may come and men
may go,
But I go on forever."

Salem Eyes Offer Of Barrack Units

Salem, Jan. 31—(U.P.)—The Salem housing commission is meeting to consider problems arising from the federal government's plans to allocate 80 barracks from Fort Vancouver, Washington, to the city and Willamette university.

The government will pay the cost of moving and preparing the buildings for occupancy. But the property sites for the units must be provided locally, with city water, sewage and other utility services.

COLORADO WILL GET VETERANS HOSPITAL

Washington, Jan. 31—(U.P.)—The Veterans administration said today it was taking bids on a 150 bed general medical and surgical hospital at Grand Junction, Colo., to be opened Feb. 25. The hospital will cost approximately $1,527,000.

"Pie-Face" stands in the Breadline

Lorna first met "Pie-Face" when his folks bought the Watson Farm. Before moving to the Northwest his dad was a North Dakota "hard wheat" farmer—then later, he worked a season or two of fallow, seeding and harvest near Walla Walla. Small wonder that in chem class John— for that's his real name—talked as often about wheat—echoing his father, "Bread is best where bread begins." Lorna has just turned out her first full batch of weekly farm-home baking, and "Pie-Face" has lined up for a sample. You can tell by his expression that Lorna has won highest honors. She knew she would—for Lorna is one of the thousands of "flour-wise" farm girls of the Pacific Northwest who has learned from Mother's experience the dependability of enriched Fisher's Blend Flour. Buy a bag of Fisher's Blend Flour today! Your grocer has it in all sizes, 5 to 50 pounds, and in every bag you'll find a folder of Mary Miller's tested SEVEN recipes. Try them in your own oven and you, too, will echo the slogan—"Blend's Mah Friend."
