MAIL TRIBUNE FM CHANNEL GRANTED

A conditional grant for a frequency modulation radio station has been issued for the Medford Mail Tribune by the federal communications commission, according to word received from Washington, D. C.

It is understood the conditional grant means that the commission has examined the qualifications of the applicant and has made available a channel and will now examine engineering data and make such other inquiry as may be deemed desirable.

Start of construction of the station will depend upon availability of equipment and material.

Eagle Pt. Legion Meeting Tuesday

Eagle Point, Feb. 2.—A second meeting to discuss organization of an American Legion post here has been called for Tuesday, Feb. 4, at 8 p. m. in the city hall. A previous announcement erroneously stated that the meeting would be Monday.

George B. Holmes, one of the organizers, announced that all but two of the 15 signatures required to petition for the post had been obtained Friday.

Cats Poisoned In So. Newtown Area

Three cats, highly valued as family pets, were poisoned last week in the South Newtown district, it was reported to the Jackson county humane society. Owners of two of the pets were the George Thomas family, 309 South New to w n street, and Charles Atterbury, the society stated.

Pet owners in the district are advised by the society to keep their animals close in as it is pointed out that it is not uncommon for several animals to be destroyed in the same manner over a short period of time.
