

Letter From Washington

By HARRIS ELLSWORTH
Member of Congress From Oregon

There is increasing evidence since the beginning of this session that Republican members of the house are asserting Republican principles and policies when opposing administration legislation. Heretofore, our general attitude seems to have been to complain and oppose without very strenuously offering our own version of a solution to problems being dealt with. Since the first of this year, it is obvious that the honeymoon of Republican passive resistance is over.

Beginning with the first major bill of the session, the Independent Offices Appropriation bill, the Republican leadership announced that federal spending would be opposed, and that we would fight for economy in government. Public approval of this forthright announcement was immediately noted, with the result, I think, that a substantial number of courageous Democrats joined our Republican minority in passing amendments to the appropriation bill, saving several millions of dollars.

Ordinarily, the Democratic majority of the house has voted solidly against any amendment to reduce appropriations. Quite obviously, the spending habit is imbedded deeply in the administration forces, but equally obviously, the people of the country are opposed to further spending.

bill will be violently opposed by labor leaders, but it is the obligation of congress, I think, to legislate for all of the people and not just for powerful labor leaders. In other words, I believe the best interests of all of the people, union members included, will be served by passage of legislation embodying the principles set out in the two paragraphs quoted above. In support of this opinion, I can quote from a book written by one of the greatest Liberals of all times, the late Mr. Justice Brandeis, who said:

"This practical immunity of unions from legal liability is deemed by many labor leaders a great advantage. To me it appears to be just the reverse. It tends to make officers and members reckless and lawless, and thereby to alienate public sympathy and bring failure upon their efforts. It creates on the part of the employers, also a bitter antagonism, not so much on account of lawless acts as from a deep-rooted sense of injustice, arising from the feeling that while the employer is subject to law, the union holds a position of legal irresponsibility. . . ."

Rev. Turney Going To Portland For Dagwell Ceremony

To participate in the celebration of the 10th anniversary of the consecration of Benj. D. Dagwell as bishop of Oregon, the Rev. George R. Turney of St. Mark's Episcopal church will leave this week-end for Portland. A number of special services are planned for the anniversary celebration Feb. 10 and 11, and four bishops from other western areas will be present.

The Rev. Turney announces that there will be no Friday morning service or 8 a. m. service at St. Mark's church Sunday of this week. Sunday morning Elwood Hedberg will conduct the service at 11 a. m., serving as lay reader. The Rev. A. H. MacDonnell of Ashland will be on call, it was also stated.

Mrs. Turney will accompany the rector.

FEAR COAST GUARDS LOST OFF HOQUIAM

Portland, Ore., Feb. 7.—(U.P.)—Four coast guardsmen were feared drowned when a 40-foot cabin boat was discovered washed ashore near Ocean City, Wash., 10 miles north of Hoquiam last night.

Coast guard officials said the boat normally carried a crew of four, none of whom were found in the boat. The vessel was undamaged but interior of the cabin was in disorder.

DON'T BE A SLAVE TO CONSTIPATION

Do As Millions Do—Eat KELLOGG'S ALL-BRAN For Lasting Relief

Constipated? Using harsh laxative drugs? Millions have solved the problem of constipation due to lack of bulk in the diet. They eat a daily dish of KELLOGG'S ALL-BRAN, and drink plenty of water for regular elimination! If you have this trouble and will follow this simple precaution, you may never have to take a laxative for the rest of your life!

ALL-BRAN is not a purgative. Provides gentle bulk to aid normal, natural elimination. It's a great, naturally regulating food.

Even Richer in Nutrition Than Whole Wheat

Because it's made from the vital outer layers of wheat, in which whole-wheat protective food elements are concentrated. One ounce of KELLOGG'S ALL-BRAN provides more than 1/3 your daily iron need—to help make good, red blood. Calcium and phosphorus—to help build bones and teeth. Whole-grain vitamins—to help guard against deficiencies. Protein—to help build body tissue essential for growth.

Get ALL-BRAN at your grocer's. Made by Kellogg's of Battle Creek and Omaha.
