

Goldfish Gulper Spoils Beautiful Fish Friendship

San Francisco, Feb. 9.—(U.P.)—Navy Pharmacist's Mate 3/c Ted Hanauka, Woodburn, Ore., accepted a challenge from his shipmates to swallow a goldfish from a bowl in the Treasure Island dispensary.

As a result, the 12th naval district announced today, one of the two remaining goldfish died of a broken heart and their owner, Wave Betty Peters, also a pharmacist's mate, burst into tears.

The upshot (again quoting the 12th naval district's official statement) was that Capt. A. S. Judy (USN) commandant of the dispensary, "reprimanded" Hanauka, ordered him to reimburse Miss Peters for the cost of the goldfish, and gave her a day of liberty to buy new ones in San Francisco.
