Return Of Center Jump Sought By Mid-West's Outstanding Coaches

Chicago, Feb. 12 — (U.P.) — A campaign to return the center jump to basketball was started today by two of the mid-west's outstanding coaches, Arthur (Dutch) Lonborg of Northwestern and Ray Meyer of DePaul.

Lonborg and Meyer both have experienced great success in coaching since the advent of "race horse basketball," but now believe the game should be slowed down and that the return of the center jump is the most effective means of accomplishing this objective.

The center jump was eliminated from the basketball code in 1937 and since then the premi-

HOUSE OF DAVID CAGERS TO PLAY ELKS THURSDAY

House of David basketball team, only team playing under authority of The Israelite or City of David Colony, will meet the strong Ashland Elks on the Medford high school court Thursday night, beginning at 8 o'clock. A preliminary pitting the sophomores of Medford high against the junior varsity will get under way at 6:45 p. m.

The bewhiskered Davids travel by auto and play every night, averaging 125 games per season, and covering over 20,000 miles. Starting Nov. 27, they already have played through Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Wisconsin, Minnesota, Iowa, Nebraska, Wyoming, Utah, Montana, Washington and Oregon. They have an offer to go to Havana, Cuba, late in March and early April, which they will no doubt accept, according to their booking agent.

George Anderson, guard, has been manager of the team since 1937 with the exception of three years spent in the army. He is a member of the Israelite Colony at Benton Harbor, Mich. He also plays on the House of David baseball team and will be in charge of that group next spring when they take to the road for the first time since Pearl Harbor.

Their roster boasts several big-name college stars from the mid-west and east who have been stars of the maple court for the past several seasons.

The Elks' last big test came when they defeated the highly regarded Klamath Falls Marines here Jan. 30.

TORNADO RALLY WINS 49-42 ON LITHIAN COURT

A last half rally gave the Medford High cage crew a 49-42 cision over Ashland on the Lithian floor last night.

The host five were in front 24-23 midway but the Tornado turned on steam to go ahead in the third period and pile up a 12-point advantage in the fourth cant before reserves took over. Earl Stelle, substitute guard, spurred the Medford attack with 13 markers while Bob Watson and Derrell Riggs each whipped in 11. In spite of this high scoring the Tornado chalked up a poor field goal percentage, hitting only 20 out of 73 attempts.

Last night's battle was a non-league fray and the teams meet for blood in a final conference go next Friday.

Medford's Jayvee five drubbed a like quint from Ashland 48-36 in the prelim.

Coach Al Simpson's varsity men were en route to Eugene this morning where they will tangle with Eugene High at 4 p. m. today.

JOCKEYS AWAIT FIXING PENALTIES

Baltimore, Feb. 12 — (U.P.) — Seven steeplechase riders, a trainer, and a jockey's agent, awaited a decision from the Maryland Racing commission today, which probably will bar them from the turf for life if they are found guilty of "fixing" a race for a sensational betting coup last Nov. 30.

All of the jockeys admitted complicity in the deal which also involved two unidentified gamblers, who allegedly placed bets of more than $3,000 in order to insure the outcome of the race. The bets were made for the jockeys, the trainer, and the agent and on the basis of the $5,200 payoff for the winning horse, "Mamie's Lad," would have netted them more than $8,000.

How much more the unidentified gamblers and others who knew about the "fix" wagered on the race probably will never be determined, but it was established in the hearing before the commission that the horse was backed down to a price of 8 to 5 after being 10 to 1 in the morning line.

Clipper Franchise In Football Loop Is Expected Soon

San Francisco, Feb. 12 — (U.P.) President J. Rufus Klawans of the Pacific Coast Professional football league predicted today that the National league would grant a franchise to the San Francisco Clippers "in the not too distant future."

Klawans was in Sacramento today investigating two requests for a Sacramento franchise. George Theodoratos, former Washington State football and boxing star, and Dave Kelly, of the Sacramento entry in the American basketball league, both sought a franchise in that city.

Approval of one or the other application would boost league membership to ten teams, including Portland, Seattle, Oakland, San Francisco, Sacramento, Hollywood, Los Angeles, San Diego, Salt Lake City and Honolulu.

BOWLING

In Classic league mixes last night Signal Oil took two out of three from Maid-Rite (Barr 562—Sims 570). American grabbed two games from Domestic Laundry who garnered high score (K. Powell 541—Bradley 524). Beck's Bakery tallied three in a row over Hawkinson Tires (G. Lounsbury 559—Morgan 484) and Valentine's Cafe won two out of three from the Hi-Way club (Eads 605—Cannon 562).
