

AMERICANS TOO ARROGANT, SMUG, SAYS CHURCHMAN

Portland, Ore., Feb. 13—(U.P.) The world is suffering from an overdose of individualism, the Rt. Rev. Fred Ingley, Episcopal bishop of Colorado, declared here today.

Delivering a sermon at a thanksgiving eucharist honoring the Rt. Rev. Benjamin Dunlap Dagwell on the tenth anniversary of his tenure as bishop of Oregon, Bishop Ingley said, "The belief in our common brotherhood was academic until the explosion of the atomic bomb, which forced us to practice brotherhood or run the risk of annihilation."

"No permanent peace on earth can come apart from united corporate action. That is the task facing the United Nations organization . . . God can not use a proud person or a proud nation. . . Americans are not humble. We are arrogant, lordly, smug and smirk."

Bishop Ingley said he saw "three stars of hope in the world today: the Y.N.O. 50 nations working for peace; the Bretton Woods plan to share our financial resources with other people; and UNRRA, which helps us share our food."

OPA DENIED SIGHT OF FIRM'S BOOKS

Portland, Ore., Feb. 13—(U.P.) Application by the OPA to subpoena a Portland concern's records was denied today by Federal Judge Claude McCulloch who held subpoena powers could not be delegated under the price control act.

The subpoena application, which the OPA termed an inspection requirement, was signed in Washington, D. C., by Acting Administrator James F. Brownlee Aug. 23, 1944. Judge McCulloch held that a recent Supreme court decision holding subpoena power under the fair labor standards act could not be delegated also applied to the emergency price control act, the language of which, he said, was substantially the same as that of the labor act. McCulloch also advised the OPA to "set an example of restraint" as the nation's chief law enforcement agency and commented the OPA apparently had preferred to attempt an "administrative interpretation" of the law instead of referring it to the courts in a test case.
