Masonic Groups Schedule Events For This Month

Closing days of February will bring two social events of wide interest to Masonic circles of southern Oregon. Malta Commandery, Knights Templar, have announced a reception and ball for Feb. 20 in Ashland and Hillah Temple of the Shrine has scheduled a reception and ball for Feb. 23 in Klamath Falls.

At the Malta Commandery affair honored guests will be Grand Commander and Mrs. Ralph E. Sweeney of Medford and Eminent Commander and Mrs. Elmer C. Biegel of Ashland. A dinner at 6:45 o'clock will precede the reception and dancing.

Illustrious Potentate Marshall E. Cornett, Mrs. Cornett and the Hillah Temple divan will be honored at the temple reception and ball. The affair will be held at the armory in Klamath Falls and is set for 9 o'clock.

Mrs. Jean Asbury Becomes Bride Of Air Corps Veteran

Announced last week was the wedding of Mrs. Jean Asbury to Paul Mittenell of Plymouth, Ind., which took place Jan. 19 in Indiana. Mrs. Mittenell is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Hulbert, 514 Beatty street.

Mr. and Mrs. Mittenell are now making their home near Plymouth on a farm. They plan to travel to Medford in March and upon their return east will be accompanied by Mrs. Mittenell's two children, Charlene Ann and Marcia L. Asbury.

Mrs. Mittenell was formerly employed in a Medford beauty parlor while the groom was recently released from the army at corps.

Student To Give Recital Sunday

Dale Ward, Prospect, 12-year-old accordion pupil of Mrs. Eve Prentice, will be presented in a recital Sunday, Feb. 24, at the Chapel of the Rocks and Roses at 2 p. m. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ward.

Mrs. Prentice states that the student will present 10 concert numbers. During intermission ensemble numbers will be presented by other pupils studying under Mrs. Prentice.

Medford Couple Married Sunday At Chapel Here

An event of last Sunday was the wedding of Mrs. Norma Clair Turner of this city to Staff Sgt. Clifford Eugene Clegg, Medford, which was solemnized at the Chapel of the Rocks and Roses at 2 o'clock in the afternoon. The Rev. D. E. Millard performed the ceremony.

For her wedding the bride wore an apple green suit with peach and brown accessories and a corsage of brown orchids. She was attended by Mrs. Donald Wimer as matron-of-honor, Mrs. Wimer's costume was an aqua suit with black accessories and she wore a white orchid corsage.

Best man for Sgt. Clegg was Roy Anderson.

Music was provided by the Rev. and Mrs. Millard who sang "Ah, Sweet Mystery of Life" and the Rev. Millard, who sang "Always."

Following the double ring ceremony a reception was held at the chapel. After the traditional first slice of wedding cake was cut by the bride and groom, Mrs. Wimer continued the serving. Mrs. Herman Offenbacher served punch and Mrs. V. A. Norris poured. Both are aunts of the bride. About 40 guests were present.

Sgt. Clegg will make their home in Berkeley, Calif., where the groom is stationed with the army air corps.

Mrs. Clegg, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul C. Jennings, 304 North Ivy street, is a member of one of the oldest pioneer families of the county and is a granddaughter of Judge and Mrs. J. B. Coleman.

Sgt. Clegg is a son of Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Clegg of Glen Cullen, Portland suburb, who formerly made their home in Medford. He has been in the army for 10 years, formerly having been with the 31st infantry division.

A veteran of the battle of Corregidor, Sgt. Clegg spent 42 months in Japanese prison camps and wears a number of decorations and citations.

In Medford for the wedding were Delbert Clegg and Maynard Clegg, brothers of the groom from Berkeley, and Mr. and Mrs. Jesse H. Coleman of Klamath Falls, uncle and aunt of the bride.

Bridge-Dinners Mark Calendar For This Week

Dinner and bridge parties continue to mark the social calendar of Medford folk.

Last evening Mr. and Mrs. Fitzhugh Brewer and Mr. and Mrs. Glenn A. Gibbons entertained 24 guests, with cocktails being served at the Brewer home on East Main street and dinner and bridge following at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gibbons on Barneburg Road. The two couples plan other affairs of a similar nature for later in the season.

This evening Mr. and Mrs. Justin Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Jackson are entertaining at a supper party at the Jackson home, 1917 East Main street, this being the second of a series of informal parties planned by these two couples.

Eugene Cummings Honored At Party

A surprise party was given the evening of Feb. 6 in celebration of the 15th birthday anniversary of Eugene Cummings of Rogue River, the affair being at the home of his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Stevens, 110 East Eleventh street.

Members of the orchestra to which the youth belongs were present and entertained with Hawaiian music and during the evening the honored guest was presented a number of birthday gifts.

Birthday refreshments were served.

Irene McDonough Is Wed Thursday To Medford Man

The Chapel of the Rocks and Roses was the scene of the wedding February 14 of Miss Irene May McDonough, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ivan McDonough of Jacksonville, and Edward Harrison Hawkins, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Hawkins, 310 Haven street. The service was read by the Rev. D. E. Millard.

The bride was dressed in a light gray striped suit with black hat and accessories. She wore gardenias. Miss Lillian McDonough, sister of the bride, was maid of honor and wore a light blue suit and hat with black accessories.

Arvid White served as best man.

"Because" and "Ah, Sweet Mystery of Life" were sung by the Rev. and Mrs. Millard following the ceremony which was attended by 30 guests.

The groom was honorably discharged from the navy in October and is now employed with the Southwest Oregon Dairy Cooperative association. Both the bride and groom have spent most of their lives in this vicinity, she having graduated from Medford high school in 1944. Mrs. Hawkins is employed at the Bear Creek orchards office.

Following a short wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Hawkins will make their home in Medford.

Marna Sandvig, Donald Vosika Wed At Chapel

Miss Marna Doris Sandvig became the bride of Donald Arthur Vosika at a ceremony performed by the Rev. D. E. Millard at the Chapel of the Rocks and Roses Friday, Feb. 15, at seven o'clock in the evening. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Sandvig, Central Point, and the groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Frank Vosika, 322 1/2 South Central avenue, Medford.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was gowning in a white velvet dress fashioned with a train. Her finger-tip length veil fell from a coronet of orange blossoms and the bridal bouquet was of gardenias and sweetheart roses.

Mrs. Harold Braun, matron-of-honor, was attired in a floor-length dress of pink marquisette and wore a corsage of gardenias. Hector Vosika served as best man for his brother.

Mrs. Millard played the wedding march and she and the Rev. Millard sang "Ah, Sweet Mystery of Life" preceding the service.

The reception was held at the chapel, with about 30 friends attending. Mrs. Russell Zundell, sister of the groom, served the wedding cake and Mrs. Avis Lovell served punch.

Mr. and Mrs. Vosika will make their home in Medford. The groom is a marine corps veteran, having served with the famous First Division for more than two years, 18 months of which he spent in the Pacific theater. He held the rank of corporal and was awarded a number of citations. Mrs. Vosika is a graduate of Central Point high school.

Mildred Burman, Loren Ashmore Married Monday

The wedding of Miss Mildred R. Burman to Loren J. Ashmore of Salmon, Ida., took place Monday, Feb. 1, the rites being solemnized at the Methodist parsonage by the Rev. Louis C. Kirby. The couple was attended by Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Davis of Medford.

The bride's wedding costume was a French wisteria dressmaker suit with black topcoat and black accessories. She wore a corsage of gardenias. Mrs. Davis wore a suit of fuchsia tones and a corsage of American violets.

Following the ceremony a wedding dinner was served at Rupp's dining room in Central Point to the bridal party and Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Rucker. Yellow narcissi decorated the dinner table.

Mr. and Mrs. Ashmore will make their home on a farm near Medford.

Mrs. Walker Treese Leaves For New York

Mrs. Walker Treese left Portland Friday night for New York City where she will spend a month with Mr. and Mrs. W. Garland Jones. While Lt. Treese is stationed in Europe, Mrs. Treese has been dividing her time between Medford, where she has been with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. E. Schuler, Medford Heights, and Portland where Lt. Treese's parents reside.

Medford Woman Leaves For Portland Visit

Mrs. W. P. Andrews, 35 Vancouver avenue, was to leave this morning for Portland where she will spend two weeks with her daughter, Mrs. Harold Olson.

Mr. and Mrs. Weldon Maynard Schnell were married Feb. 4 at the First Presbyterian church here at one of the season's largest weddings. The bride, the former Helen Hansen, is a daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. Harry W. Hansen, 52 Ross Court, and the Rev. Hansen performed the wedding service. Mr. Schnell is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred C. Schnell, Millersburg, O.

Miss Susan Vilas Is Honor Guest At Shower Party

Miss Nanette Holmes entertained Tuesday afternoon at a luncheon and shower party at her home on Reddy avenue for Miss Susan Vilas, whose engagement to Miss Holmes' brother, David H. Holmes, Jr., was announced last week.

Guests were Mrs. Richard Finch, Mrs. Walker Treese, Mrs. Steven Starr, Mrs. Grace Leiby, Mrs. Allyn Monroe, Mrs. George Rasmussen, Mrs. Frank Prime, Miss Carol Tengwald, Mrs. Dorothy Joyce of Beverly Hills, Calif., in Medford as a guest of Miss Vilas, and the honored guest.

Wednesday Miss Holmes left for San Francisco. She will be joined there next week by her father, David Holmes, Sr., and the two will then depart for Mexico City where they will spend a month's vacation.

Spokane Woman Leaves After Visit In Valley

Mrs. Richard C. Bamber, Spokane, left last week for her home after an extended stay in the valley with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. E. Ronald Rice, 302 Vancouver street. Mrs. Bamber, who collects antique and unusual buttons as a hobby, contacted button collectors residing in this county while here and was able to add to her collection. Button collectors in this country are now outnumbered only by stamp and coin collectors, Mrs. Bamber states.

Shirley Harden, Ned Barracough Have Home Rites

Miss Shirley Harden, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ross Harden, Ashland, became the bride of Ned W. Barracough, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Barracough, 1115 West Tenth street, Medford, at a ceremony Thursday, Feb. 14. The service took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Reginald Stagg, 25 Summit avenue, brother-in-law and sister of the groom, and was performed at 7 o'clock by Donald Barracough, Portland, an official of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints.

The bride's gown was of white net over satin worn with a short veil. Her corsage was of pink orchids. Mrs. Tony Coy, matron-of-honor, wore a floor-length gown of pink chiffon and a corsage of pink roses.

Best man for the groom was Max Barracough, his brother.

A buffet luncheon followed, with the wedding cake served from a candle-light table. Sweetpeas, phlox and snapdragons decorated the rooms of the Stagg home.

Mr. Barracough and his bride are making their home on Allison street in Ashland. The groom is a veteran of the last war, having only recently returned from Europe where he served 18 months with Hodges army, holding the rank of corporal.
