

LOCAL and PERSONAL

Chapins Here—Mr. and Mrs. Roy Chapin have returned to Medford to make their home, residing with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Chapin, 821 N. Main street at the present. Chapin served with the air corps throughout the war and spent four years with the U. S. army engineers prior to the war. He is a graduate of Talent high school.

Miller Discharged—Elton Miller, who served in both the European and Pacific theaters during the last war, has returned to Medford and is making his home at 1028 Reddy avenue. Miller, a fourth-grade technician, was overseas a year, serving first with the Ninth Army in Europe and then with the Eighth army in the Pacific. He was last on duty in Tokyo.

Visit Here—Mr. and Mrs. W. V. Daniels visited in Medford over the week-end as guests of their son, the Rev. Delbert W. Daniels, and family, 320 South Holly street. Mr. and Mrs. Daniels have been vacationing in southern California and were en route to their home in The Dalles, where Mr. Daniels is manager of the local J. C. Penney store.

Daley Home—Charles W. Daley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Crafts, 502 South Fir street, returned home Feb. 14 after receiving his honorable discharge from the army at Ft. Lewis the previous day. Daley, a staff sergeant, served 40 months in the army, the last 18 months being spent overseas in the European theater with the quarter-master corps.

Here From East—Mr. and Mrs. Robert R. Vroman arrived in Medford Saturday from New York and are at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Vroman, 525 South Ivy street. Vroman, who spent some time in the city in December before returning to New York to accompany his wife on the trip west, was honorably discharged from the army air force in December. A staff sergeant, he spent 46 months with the army, including 26 months with the public relations department in England, where he served as a reporter and artist for "Stars and Stripes," army newspaper.
