Wall Street

New York, Feb. 21.—(U.P.)—Stocks rallied one to five points today after three sessions of sharp decline had knocked 10 points off the industrial average.

Sales totaled 1,590,000 shares compared with 2,150,000 yesterday.

Today's rally was ascribed to an improved technical position and to indications of a fight ahead to crack the wage-price policy for a more generous distribution of price increases.

Preliminary closing Dow-Jones stock averages: Industrial 195.62, up 3.24; railroad 63.34, up 1.48; utility 39.27, up 0.83; 65 stocks 73.15, up 1.39.
