

High School News

By Betty Lou Allison

Sports interest this week is centered around the district tournament to be held in Southern Oregon gym in Ashland, March 1 and 2. Two games will be played Friday and two Saturday. Bracketed for Friday are: The first game Medford and Klamath Falls, second Grants Pass and Ashland. Saturday the winners of the previous night's games will play for first and second place, and the losers for the third place in the district.

The referees chosen for the tournament are Al Ligner and Cliff McLane.

Mr. Ralph Carr, former governor of Colorado, spoke in assembly February 18. The topic of his speech was "Citizenship."

He gave many examples of Americans who have had the will to become great, among those mentioned were George Washington, Abraham Lincoln, and Lowell Thomas.

Mr. Carr also stated that his hobby was fishing for rainbow trout in Colorado and that while he is in Medford he would like to fish for steelhead in the Rogue.

Y.M.C.A. Torch club will sponsor a high school dance at the "Y" Saturday night, February 23.

Remedial English examinations were given Sophomores and Seniors Wednesday morning under supervision of Miss Delle Whisenant, with assistance of Mrs. Cox, Mrs. Steward, Mrs. Gray and Mrs. Smith.

This year a new athletic program will be enacted. The sports will be grouped under two main headings: recreation and competitive athletics. Basketball, softball, horseshoes and tennis are the recreation sports. Inter-mural games will be held.

Baseball and track practice will be scheduled so that one person may participate in both.

In assembly last Friday, the pep team presented another of their clever skits, "Allen's Alley," with Chuck Shinn as Mr. Allen, Delores Stenerson as Portland, Barbara Sands as Mrs. Noosebaum, Janis Duncan as Senato Claghorn, and Andree Andrews as Falstaff Openshaw.

H.E.C.A. and the Music Department is to present a George Washington Assembly, Friday morning. The program which is to pay tribute to George Washington will include a "gay nineties" skit and music by the band and the girl's chorus. Jerry Liebman is in charge, with Jerry Aldyn Jerome as his assistant.

FEWER CITATIONS FOR LOG TRUCK VIOLATIONS

There has been a decided drop the past 10 days in the number of citations for logging truck violations in the county, according to District Attorney George W.

Nelson. During a short previous period more than 30 citations were filed in justice court, charging overloading and other violations.

The state highway commission has suggested as a curb, the county increase fines for overloading and eliminate night hauling on the highways. It was also recommended similar restrictions be placed on hauling on county roads.

DROWNS IN PUDDLE

Sacramento, Feb. 21.—(U.P.)—William Sanders, 71-year-old pensioner, drowned last night in a six-inch deep puddle of water near his home, police reported. His body was found this morning, face down in the water. Coroner's deputies believe he lost consciousness while on the way home about midnight and fell into the pool.
