Miss Nina Tuttle Married Tuesday To Major Rayburn

Mr. and Mrs. Shelby M. Tuttle, 232 Valley View drive, announce the marriage of their daughter, Nina, to Richard G. Rayburn, major in the United States army. Major Rayburn is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred B. Rayburn, San Fernando, Calif.

The wedding took place at St. Mark's Episcopal church Tuesday, Feb. 19, at eight o'clock in the evening and was performed by the Rev. Francis Ball, rector of the Grants Pass Episcopal church, who read the service from an Episcopal wedding book which had been used at the wedding of the bride's maternal grandmother, married in San Francisco in 1893.

For her wedding Miss Tuttle wore a spring suit of light blue and a floral hat of pink. She carried an old-fashioned colonial-type bouquet of gardenias, sweetpeas and carnations.

Attending the couple were Mr. and Mrs. Shelby G. Tuttle, brother and sister-in-law of the bride. Mrs. Tuttle's costume was a beige suit worn with brown accessories and a corsage of tallman roses.

At the informal reception, held at the Tuttle home, Major Rayburn and his bride cut the first slice of wedding cake with a saber which had been presented to the bride's father when he graduated from the University of Ohio. Cutting of the cake was completed by Miss Shirley Weisenburger.

Major and Mrs. Rayburn are now at Carmel, Calif., and later will continue south to Mexico. Upon their return the couple will be at home in San Fernando.

Mrs. Rayburn attended Medford schools and later was a student at the University of Oregon. Major Rayburn, who was graduated from the University of California at Los Angeles in 1941, entered the army later that year and during the war served 26 months in the Aleutian Islands and later spent 10 months on Luzon in the Philippine Islands and on Honshu Island, Japan.

Party Is Given By Church Class
Homemakers' class of the Methodist church enjoyed a Valentine party given Feb. 15 at the church. Mr. and Mrs. Larry Kihn led games and refreshments were prepared and served by the men.

Nelson-Thornton Rites Are Held At Local Chapel

Chapel of the Rocks and Roses was the scene last week of the wedding of Miss Jacqueline Nelson, daughter of Mrs. Pearl Nelson, 330 North Holly street and Lt. Comdr. C. R. Nelson, San Francisco, to Denver Elgin Thornton, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Thornton of Kansas City, Mo. The service was read Friday, February 22, at eight o'clock in the evening by the Rev. D. E. Millard.

Miss Nelson's wedding dress was of white net and lace over taffeta designed with a train and worn with a finger-tip length veil. She carried a bouquet of white orchids and stephanotis. Her attendants were Miss Mary Cleland, maid-of-honor, and Miss Jerry Fasil, bridesmaid. Miss Cleland's gown was of white brocade net and she carried an old-fashioned bouquet of sweetpeas, carnations and gardenias. Miss Fasil also wore white net and carried an old-fashioned bouquet.

Sgt. Joe Doran was best man for the groom and Donald Vaughn served as usher. Harry Field, uncle of the bride, gave her in marriage.

Before the service, attended by about 30 friends and relatives, the Rev. Millard sang "God Made You Mine" and "Because" and Mrs. Millard played the wedding march.

A reception was held at the chapel, with Mrs. Harry Field, aunt of the bride, and Mrs. E. R. Thornton, grandmother of the groom, serving the wedding cake after the first slice had been cut by the bride and groom. The groom's mother served punch and Mrs. Donald Vaughn served coffee.

Traveling to Medford for the wedding were the groom's parents and his grandmother, Mrs. E. R. Thornton, who came from Kansas City; Mr. and Mrs. Leo Glascock of Dunsmuir, Calif., cousins of the bride, and Willard Reed, uncle of the bride.

The bride and groom will reside in Kansas City, Mo., at 703 71st Terrace after March 1. The groom was recently discharged from the army engineers' corps where he had served for three years, six months being spent in the European theater. The bride has resided in Medford for the past year and attended Medford high school.
