Wharton Here—Lt. S. T. (Ted) Wharton arrived home the past week on terminal leave from the Korean theater and will be discharged in March. Lt. Wharton and wife are at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Wharton, 1134 West Ninth street.

Return From Mexico—Dr. and Mrs. Dwight H. Findley have returned from a trip to Mazatlan, Mexico, following Dr. Findley's release from the service. While deep-sea fishing off Mazatlan, Dr. Findley was fortunate in hooking and landing a 200-pound nine-foot blue marlin sword fish. The fishing at this point in Mexico reaches its peak in March and the sword fish and marlin are not too prevalent in January, when Dr. and Mrs. Findley were there. However, the fishing was excellent this winter, with great numbers of toro and Spanish mackerel being caught on light tackle, the doctor reports. These were from two to 15 pounds in weight. The Findleys report delightful weather for their visit.

Enlists In Army—George D. Cormie, son of Dave Cormie of Prospect, has enlisted for a three-year period in the regular army, according to a dispatch from the Military Personnel Procurement service in Portland. Cormie enlisted in the air corps for European duty.

Joins Coast Guard—William J. Scheffel, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Scheffel of Medford, enlisted in the U. S. Coast Guard for a two-year cruise last Wednesday and was transferred to Alameda, Calif., for basic training, according to word from the Portland recruiting station.

Chorus To Rehearse—The Rogue Valley chorus will resume rehearsals Tuesday, Feb. 26 at 7:30 p. m. on the high school auditorium stage. All members are requested to be present. The spring concert will be given at the earliest possible date, according to Miss Mabel Nansen, director.

Discharged—Formerly a technician fifth grade, Alex J. Derring who has spent the past three years as a member of the military police at Camp White, received an honorable discharge from the army recently at Ft. Lewis. Mr. and Mrs. Derring are making their home at Ge-Bauer apartments while in Medford and expect to return to their home in Grand Rapids, Mich., early in April. Derring spent 42 months with the army.

Apply To Build—Making applications Thursday at the city superintendent's office for permits to build were Jack Braun, 1025 Court street, to erect a residence and garage at 1029 Court street, $4,500; Chrystal Brewing company, 301 North Fir street, remodel, $1,400; H. S. Kelley, erect residence at 415 West Clark street, $2,000, and F. H. Taylor applied for permit to move a residence from the Sears, Roebuck site to 806 South Holly street.

Smith, 335 North Central avenue, when in collision at the intersection of Court and Main streets with an auto driven by Everett Gillespie, 1315 East Main street, according to accident reports filed with city police. Also damaged slightly Thursday when they collided on North Central avenue, were cars operated by Victor Lehman, route 4, and Thomas J. Fuson, 32 North Central avenue, according to a report at police headquarters.

Cabinet Shop In Phoenix Planned

Phoenix, Feb. 23—Construction of a 48 by 48 foot frame building to house a cabinet shop and living quarters is planned here by G. L. Witte who hopes to have the structure completed by next summer.

Location of the building will be on the Pacific highway between Second and Third streets where Witte has already excavated for the basement. He will manufacture general wood products, specializing in kitchen cabinets and knotty pine furniture.

Witte is presently employed as an auto painter at the Rogue River Chevrolet garage.

CHARGES DISMISSED AGAINST 5 HUNTERS

Charges of hunting on a game refuge have been dismissed in the case of C. A. Tharp, W. F. Boye, Tom Fofahl, A. H. Boye and Herman Highday, according to counsel for the group. The men were cited to justice court last November by state police.
