Veterans Reminded Liberalized Loans Are Now Available

Washington, March 1.—(U.P.)—The Veterans' Administration reminded veterans today that the new liberalized regulations governing veteran loans go into effect tomorrow.

The regulations increase the government's guarantee on veteran home loans from $2,000 to $4,000 and extends the time during which veterans may make such loans from two to 10 years.

The time limit on loan repayments also is extended to 25 years on real estate and 40 years on farm property.

Under the new regulations the veteran borrower will have to sign only one legal sized sheet to obtain a loan instead of the average eight required under the old rules.

Britain Will Drag U.S. Into War With Russia, Is Warning

Los Angeles, March 1.—(U.P.)—Britain eventually will drag the United States into war with Russia, Baron Maurice de Rothschild, former member of the French senate, said today.

"This is because Britain still labors under the illusion that there is such a thing as a balance of power in Europe today," he said.

"For that reason, it is doing its best to prevent Spain from turning to Russia for relief. As
