Couple Arrives Here After Attending School

Spending a few days in Medford are Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Ross, who have arrived from Oregon State college to visit Mrs. Ross' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Olson, 40 Berkeley Way. Mr. Ross has left school to re-enter the army and will leave soon to report at Ft. Lewis, Wash. He is a veteran of World War II, having served in the Pacific theater with the Americal division with the rank of captain.

Here For Week-end

Miss Margo Gammill, student at the University of Oregon, Eugene, is spending the week-end in the valley at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Miles Gammill, Pioneer Road. Miss Gammill was accompanied by two guests, Miss Pat McDowell, Beverly Hills, Calif., and Miss Jean Patterson, Long Beach, Calif.

Colonial Women Topic of Paper Read at Meeting

An interesting paper on "Vocational Occupations of Colonial Women" was read at the meeting of Crater Lake chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, held last Saturday at the home of Mrs. M. M. Morris, King's Highway. The paper, read by Mrs. William P. Holt, was written by Mrs. Holt's mother, Mrs. Helen T. Pratt, in 1925 and gave a startling insight into the business and professional activities of colonial women.

Mrs. A. G. Nutting gave interesting historical facts about the Sibley home in Mendota, Minn., where she formerly lived. During the meeting annual reports were submitted to the regent, Mrs. O. H. Brennehan. Visitors introduced at the meeting were Lancaster Polard and Omar C. Spencer, Portland, superintendent and president of the Oregon Historical society in Medford to aid in organizing a southern Oregon society. They were introduced by Walter Jones of Medford.

Mrs. W. E. Morley, a visitor from Fontainebleau, La., spoke of her chapter, Mrs. Morley was the house guest of Mrs. R. E. Green.

Assisting the hostess were Mrs. Frances Cochran and Mrs. Clarence Pankey, Mrs. Brennehan and Mrs. Thomas Young presided at the tea table which was beautifully decorated with red, white and blue flowers.

College Students Here For Spring Vacation

Arriving yesterday from the College of the Pacific at Stockton, Calif., were Miss Jean Farley and Miss Shirley Pankey, who will spend a week's spring vacation with their parents, Dr. and Mrs. Kenneth Farley, Jacksonville Highway, and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Pankey, 321 Apple street.

Miss Farley was accompanied home by Miss Angie Parsons, also a student at the school. The young women are freshmen students at the college.

Games Party Set By Rebekah Lodge

An evening of games, with some of those "hard to find" articles for prizes, is being planned by Olive Rebekah lodge for Monday night following the business meeting. Husbands and friends will be invited to join in the entertainment and the social hour and Mrs. Jane McCarthy, noble grand, asks everyone to bring a number of pennies.

The lodge members will hold a business meeting at 7:30 and the program and games will start at 8:30 p. m.

Lila Hukill Honored At Birthday Party

Lila Hukill celebrated her 11th birthday anniversary with a party Feb. 18 at her home. Games were played and refreshments served. The honored guest was presented with a number of gifts.

Guests were Ferny Kellow, Lavonia Kimmens, Darrell Koger, Rose Hansen, Lila Strickland, Wilma Strickland, Jean Reilly, Muriel Swing, Charlene Croucher, Sharon Atkins and the honored guest.

Mrs. Klemm to Present Book Review For Club

"These are the Russians" by Richard Lauterback, will be reviewed by Mrs. Richard Klemm at the meeting of the College Women's club of the Rogue River Valley set for March 9.

Members are to be entertained at the home of Mrs. Louis C. Kirby, 27 North Orange street, and the meeting is scheduled for 2 o'clock.

Mrs. T. W. Frost will be social chairman.

Girls Spend Week-end As Guests of Sorority

Miss Joan Hoppe and Miss Barbara Sands, Medford senior high school students, will return today from Eugene where they spent the week-end as guests at the University of Oregon chapter of Gamma Phi Beta, social sorority. Miss Sands is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Sands, Roseborough addition, while Miss Hoppe is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hoppe, former Medford residents who left last fall to reside in Needles, Calif.

Astoria Family Here To Visit Relatives

Mrs. Ford Knutsen and two daughters, Barbara and Mary, of Astoria, arrived in Medford Thursday to visit Mrs. Knutsen's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Ferguson, Holly Apartments. Mr. Knutsen arrived Friday and Saturday he and Mrs. Knutsen left by United Mainliner for Los Angeles where they will spend a 10-day vacation, the children remaining here with their grandparents.
