

Lady Elks Plan Tea Saturday Afternoon For Visiting Wives

A tea for Lady Elks whose husbands will be attending the mid-winter session of the Oregon State Elks association, to be held in Ashland January 20 and 21, has been planned by the Lady Elks of Medford and Ashland. It will be held Saturday, January 21 in the party lounge of the Medford Elks temple and is set for 2 p.m.

Following the tea bridge, canasta, pinochle and bingo will be played.

All Lady Elks are extended a cordial invitation to attend.

Medford Lady Elks will meet at 2 p.m. Tuesday, January 17 in the party lounge of the Elks temple for dessert, followed by bridge, canasta, pinochle and pool.

Hostesses will be Mrs. J. F. Moore, Mrs. J. W. Bates, Mrs. Wm. Young, Mrs. Claude Hoover and Mrs. J. L. Duckett.

Seal Sale Reports Made At Meeting

A business meeting was held by the Medford unit of the Jackson County Public Health association Tuesday following luncheon at the Rogue Valley Country club. Mrs. Paul Skinner, who has replaced Mrs. Walter Graff as president, conducted the meeting.

Mrs. Dwight Findley, president of the county association, reported on the annual seal sale of the association and thanked members of the Medford unit for their work. She stated that an additional 4,000 names had been handled in the closing days of the campaign.

A letter from Mrs. Claude Thompson, county seal sale chairman, was read in which Mrs. Thompson congratulated the Medford group on its campaign efforts.

Reports were also given by Mrs. Aubrey Sander, chairman of booth sales this year, and Mrs. Boyard Getchell, treasurer. Mrs. Sander stated that booth sales fell off sharply this year, with only about 50 per cent of last year's total having been realized. Mrs. Getchell stated, however, that when funds have been realized, Mrs. Getchell stated, how that when funds have been received from people who still have not made their annual contribution, it was believed the total would be adequate.

The Medford group now plans to hold monthly meetings throughout the year, rather than only during the period preceding and during the annual seal sale, and the February meeting will be in the home of Mrs. William Barker, with Mrs. Charles Barnes as co-hostess.

Plan Dimes Dance For Country Club

Scheduled as a benefit for the annual "March of Dimes," a dance will be given at the Rogue Valley Country club Monday, January 30. The dance will be informal, and is for members and out-of-town guests.

In addition to dancing, there will be games and prizes, and supper will be served.

Society and Clubs

Mr. and Mrs. Darrell James McNeill were married December 25 at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy C. McCleary, 478 Allison street in Ashland. The bride is the former Barbara Ruth McCleary. Mr. McNeill is a son of Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Childreth of Jacksonville Star route, Medford.

Jacksonville Girl, Winford Osborne Married In Phoenix

Jacksonville — Miss Anita Rae Backes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Backes, Jacksonville, became the bride of Winford Dale Osborne, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sylvester Osborne, Talent, January 12 at 8 p.m. The wedding was performed in the Nazarene church, Phoenix and The Rev. Henry C. Lacy officiated.

Fred Hall sang accompanied by Mrs. John M. Eby.

The bride's dress was of gray tulle and her accessories were green. She wore an orchid corsage. Miss Donna Jean Lacy, bridesmaid, wore a navy blue tulle dress with black accessories. Her corsage was of yellow rose buds.

Don Lacy, Medford, acted as best man.

About 35 guests attended the wedding. The couple will live in Phoenix.

To Meet Wednesday
A dessert luncheon will begin the meeting of Get Together club members Wednesday, January 18, at 1 p.m. in the Eagles' hall. The luncheon will be followed by cards.

Ashland Girl Wed To Darrell McNeill In December Rites

Miss Barbara McCleary, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy C. McCleary, 478 Allison street, Ashland, became the bride of Darrell James McNeill in a ceremony read Christmas day at five o'clock in the afternoon at the home of the bride's parents. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Childreth, Jacksonville Star route.

Mr. McCleary gave his daughter in marriage and the Rev. Leo Wines performed the double-ring ceremony.

The bride's dress was fashioned from ice blue satin and her corsage was a white orchid. Mrs. James L. Ford, matron-of-honor, wore an aquamarine crepe dress.

Both the mother of the bride and the bridegroom wore dark suits with baby orchid corsages for the ceremony.

About 20 guests attended the reception which followed at the McCleary home. Holiday decorations were used, with white chrysanthemums, poinsettias and snapdragons. The refreshment table was laid with a hand-crocheted lace table cloth made especially for the occasion by the bridegroom's mother, and crystal table service was used.

Mrs. John C. Sears poured and Mrs. Ford cut the wedding cake. The bride's going-away suit was grey with grey accessories and she wore her wedding orchid.

The bride was graduated from high school in Ashland and the bridegroom, who attended school in Medford later served two years in the United States navy. He is now employed at White City.

Councilman To Speak For Junior High Unit At Meeting Thursday

Dwight Houghton, local banker and member of the city council will be speaker of the evening at the Medford Junior high school Parent-Teacher association meeting Thursday, January 19, in the girls' gymnasium at 8 p.m.

Mr. Houghton's subject will be "City Government, Finance and City Problems." The school orchestra under direction of Miss Melba Chehak will furnish music. A special invitation has been extended by officers of the association to the fathers of junior high school children to attend the meeting, since plans now under way to form a hobby club will be discussed.

Hosts for the evening will be the parents of children from the rooms of Larry Brunette, Mrs. Agnes Deiver and Mr. McLean. Refreshments will be served at the close of the meeting.

Announces Meeting
Mrs. Orville Shores will entertain members of the Oak Grove Neighborhood club at her home on Jacksonville highway Tuesday, January 17, at 1:30 p.m. A dessert luncheon will be served.

Fix it up...or RETIRE IT!

If your watch has outlived its usefulness, you'll be interested in looking over our assortment of beautiful new Hamilton watches—America's finest.

Lawrence's

In Medford 40 years, stocking the same High Quality Merchandise found in the best stores in the larger cities and more moderately priced.

130 E. MAIN

Lawrence's

Fix it up...or RETIRE IT!

If your watch has outlived its usefulness, you'll be interested in looking over our assortment of beautiful new Hamilton watches—America's finest.

Lawrence's

In Medford 40 years, stocking the same High Quality Merchandise found in the best stores in the larger cities and more moderately priced.

130 E. MAIN

Lawrence's

Fix it up...or RETIRE IT!

If your watch has outlived its usefulness, you'll be interested in looking over our assortment of beautiful new Hamilton watches—America's finest.

Lawrence's

In Medford 40 years, stocking the same High Quality Merchandise found in the best stores in the larger cities and more moderately priced.

130 E. MAIN

Lawrence's

Fix it up...or RETIRE IT!

If your watch has outlived its usefulness, you'll be interested in looking over our assortment of beautiful new Hamilton watches—America's finest.

Lawrence's

In Medford 40 years, stocking the same High Quality Merchandise found in the best stores in the larger cities and more moderately priced.

130 E. MAIN

Sojourners' Club Holds First Meeting With New Officers

First meeting of the new year for Medford Sojourners' club was held Thursday at the Medford hotel. Fifty-two members and prospective members were present to welcome the new officers, and to participate in the club's social activities.

The new president, Mrs. E. A. Stout was introduced by a past president, Mrs. Clay Lee, and presented a corsage of white gladioli, a gift from the club.

Mrs. Stout then introduced her corps of new officers who will assist her during the next six months. They are Mrs. Frank Cantrill, first vice-president; Mrs. Jack Lundgren, second vice-president; Mrs. J. N. Shoemaker, secretary and Mrs. Ralph Krows, treasurer.

Prospective members welcomed were Mesdames C. L. Nelson, J. I. Bacon, J. H. Fisher, L. G. McLaren, S. S. McLaren, and J. H. Graten. Mrs. E. L. Bunnell was accepted as a new member. Hostesses for the afternoon in charge of the dessert luncheon and cards were Mrs. Jack Weddle, Mrs. William Shel, and Mrs. Vest Fleeman.

Bridge winners were Mrs. Carl Mundon, Mrs. N. F. Reed, and Mrs. James Grigsby. Those winning at pinochle were Mrs. W. A. Sabel, S. C. Jones Jr., and Mrs. Fleeman. Mrs. Oral Schreyer was another winner during the afternoon.

Shrine Club Plans Annual Dinner-Dance Monday In Ashland

One of the large events of this week will be the annual ladies' night dance given by the Jackson County Shrine club. The dance is set for Monday, January 16 at the Elks' temple in Ashland.

A refreshment hour will be held from 7 to 9 p.m. and dinner will be served at 9 o'clock, with dancing to follow.

A special guest will be Herman Mayberry, Ashland, illustrious potentate of Hillah temple, and Mrs. Mayberry. Herbert Huston of Ashland is president of the club and J. H. Fitzgerald, Medford, is secretary.

It is announced that women are to dress formally for the event, and formal dress for men will be optional.

Couple To Observe 50th Anniversary

Of special interest to a wide circle of friends in Medford and other sections of the county, will be the reception which Mr. and Mrs. I. O. Williams will hold in the parlors of the First Methodist church on Wednesday, January 25, in observance of their fiftieth wedding anniversary.

Friends are invited to call between the hours of eight and ten o'clock that evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Williams were married in Newell, Ia., where Mr. Williams engaged in farming. After coming to Oregon in 1913, he continued farming in Talent, until 1944 when they moved to their present home in Medford. Both are active members of the Methodist church.

Republican Women To Meet Monday

January meeting of Jackson County Republican Women will be held Monday, January 16, at the Jackson hotel. Mrs. Marshall E. Cornett, Klamath Falls, national committeewoman from Oregon for the party, will be guest speaker.

Reservations for the luncheon are to be made with Mrs. Ben Stafford, telephone 2-8932.

Mrs. M. Allison Moulton, president, states that considerable business is to come before the organization.

Doctor To Speak

Dr. Lee Mellish will be guest speaker at the Oak Grove Parent-Teacher association meeting Monday, January 16, at 8 p.m. in the school. Dr. Mellish will speak on "Care of the Teeth," and will show movies.

Refreshments will be served and all members and friends are invited.

Shower Is Given For Recent Bride

Mrs. Darrell McNeill, the former Miss Barbara McCleary, was honored guest at a shower Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. William Childreth, 2393 Jacksonville highway. Refreshments were served following the opening of gifts and an entertaining evening was enjoyed.

Attending the affair were Mrs. Donald Bohl, Mrs. Floyd Lewis, Mrs. Roy Elliott, Mrs. William Coghill, Mrs. Lew Conley, Mrs. Amos Ayres, Mrs. Earl Brewold, Mrs. Wallace Brill, Mrs. Melton Winn, Mrs. Cloyd Sater, Mrs. Carl Childreth, Mrs. Chester Irish, Mrs. John Pond, Mrs. Philip Todd, Mrs. Ed Crowe, Mrs. Walter Sewell, Mrs. Roy McCleary, Mrs. L. MacFarlen, Mrs. Fred Baker, Mrs. Jack McNeill, Mrs. Orval Shores, Mrs. Fred Gardner, Mrs. Claire Shores, the hostess and honored guest.

College Women's Club To Hear Local Artist At Meeting Saturday

The meeting of the College Women's Club of Rogue River valley scheduled for January 14 was postponed because of inclement weather, until Saturday, January 21. The group will meet in the Pioneer room of the Jackson hotel for luncheon at 1 p.m.

Hal Bishop, local artist, will speak on "Art in the Home," and regarding the murals in the Pioneer room painted by him.

Mrs. A. V. Hardy will be hostess and Miss Annette Gray will be social chairman. Reservations by Medford members should be made by calling Mrs. Harold Snodgrass, phone 2-8204. Ashland members are asked to call Mrs. Arthur Peters, phone 2-1272.

Plan Dinner

Jacksonville — A covered dish dinner will be held by members of the Adair chapter OES, on Thursday, January 19, at 6:30 p.m., in the Masonic hall, Jacksonville. There will be stated meeting and visiting members are invited to attend.

Announce Meeting Of Extension Unit

Shady Cove — Mrs. Lois Hicks and Mrs. Leona Hughes will be in charge of a demonstration of herbs and seasonings at the Upper Rogue Extension unit meeting, Tuesday, January 17, in the home of Mrs. Cecil Kee, Shady Cove, at 10 a.m. Those attending are asked to take table service.

Health Board Head To Address BPWC

Dr. L. D. Inskeep, president, state board of health, will speak to members of the Business and Professional Women's club, Thursday, January 19, in the Girls' Community club, at 7:30 p.m. Dr. Inskeep's subject will concern public health in Jackson county, and the public health and safety committee of the club, with Miss Hazel Swayne as chairman, is in charge of the program.

Refreshments will be served with Miss Louise Drew, membership chairman, in charge.

Week Brings News Of Two Trothals; Miss Marx To Wed

Each week of January continues to bring news of engagements, and announcements of wedding dates.

The engagement of Miss Aylene Hopkins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hopkins of Ross lane to Donald A. Faber, son of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Faber of Central Point was announced Monday, January 9, at the Sigma Kappa sorority house at Oregon State college. Both young people are attending the college.

Miss Hopkins is a major in the school of home economics and Mr. Faber is a junior majoring in business.

No date has been set for the wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Marx, Kings highway, announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Pat Marx, to Gordon Deryll Allard, son of Mrs. J. W. McCullery, of Darwin, Cal., and Deryll Allard of Los Angeles.

The wedding will be an event of early February.

New Organization Will Raise Money For Armory Rooms

Representatives from military, fraternal and business organizations met at the Apple Inn Friday evening to organize for the purpose of raising money to furnish two rooms at the Medford armory. The two rooms will each seat approximately 200 persons and if properly furnished will make excellent meeting places for many of the city's clubs that have outgrown their club rooms. It is thought. There is also a dining room and kitchen available to organizations using the meeting rooms.

Mrs. Hazel van der Mark was elected to serve as chairman of the group, and Earl Sterigere was chosen as co-chairman to assist in the fund raising projects. Mrs. Tom Ginn acted as secretary. Next meeting of the group will be held in the armory February 1.

Any organizations interested in this city wide projects are invited to send two representatives to the next meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hopkins of Ross lane have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Aylene Hopkins to Donald A. Faber, son of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Faber of Central Point. Both young people are students at Oregon State college.

Week Brings News Of Two Trothals; Miss Marx To Wed

Each week of January continues to bring news of engagements, and announcements of wedding dates.

The engagement of Miss Aylene Hopkins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hopkins of Ross lane to Donald A. Faber, son of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Faber of Central Point was announced Monday, January 9, at the Sigma Kappa sorority house at Oregon State college. Both young people are attending the college.

Miss Hopkins is a major in the school of home economics and Mr. Faber is a junior majoring in business.

No date has been set for the wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Marx, Kings highway, announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Pat Marx, to Gordon Deryll Allard, son of Mrs. J. W. McCullery, of Darwin, Cal., and Deryll Allard of Los Angeles.

The wedding will be an event of early February.

Shower Is Given For Recent Bride

Mrs. Darrell McNeill, the former Miss Barbara McCleary, was honored guest at a shower Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. William Childreth, 2393 Jacksonville highway. Refreshments were served following the opening of gifts and an entertaining evening was enjoyed.

Attending the affair were Mrs. Donald Bohl, Mrs. Floyd Lewis, Mrs. Roy Elliott, Mrs. William Coghill, Mrs. Lew Conley, Mrs. Amos Ayres, Mrs. Earl Brewold, Mrs. Wallace Brill, Mrs. Melton Winn, Mrs. Cloyd Sater, Mrs. Carl Childreth, Mrs. Chester Irish, Mrs. John Pond, Mrs. Philip Todd, Mrs. Ed Crowe, Mrs. Walter Sewell, Mrs. Roy McCleary, Mrs. L. MacFarlen, Mrs. Fred Baker, Mrs. Jack McNeill, Mrs. Orval Shores, Mrs. Fred Gardner, Mrs. Claire Shores, the hostess and honored guest.

College Women's Club To Hear Local Artist At Meeting Saturday

The meeting of the College Women's Club of Rogue River valley scheduled for January 14 was postponed because of inclement weather, until Saturday, January 21. The group will meet in the Pioneer room of the Jackson hotel for luncheon at 1 p.m.

Hal Bishop, local artist, will speak on "Art in the Home," and regarding the murals in the Pioneer room painted by him.

Mrs. A. V. Hardy will be hostess and Miss Annette Gray will be social chairman. Reservations by Medford members should be made by calling Mrs. Harold Snodgrass, phone 2-8204. Ashland members are asked to call Mrs. Arthur Peters, phone 2-1272.

Plan Dinner

Jacksonville — A covered dish dinner will be held by members of the Adair chapter OES, on Thursday, January 19, at 6:30 p.m., in the Masonic hall, Jacksonville. There will be stated meeting and visiting members are invited to attend.

Announce Meeting Of Extension Unit

Shady Cove — Mrs. Lois Hicks and Mrs. Leona Hughes will be in charge of a demonstration of herbs and seasonings at the Upper Rogue Extension unit meeting, Tuesday, January 17, in the home of Mrs. Cecil Kee, Shady Cove, at 10 a.m. Those attending are asked to take table service.

Health Board Head To Address BPWC

Dr. L. D. Inskeep, president, state board of health, will speak to members of the Business and Professional Women's club, Thursday, January 19, in the Girls' Community club, at 7:30 p.m. Dr. Inskeep's subject will concern public health in Jackson county, and the public health and safety committee of the club, with Miss Hazel Swayne as chairman, is in charge of the program.

Refreshments will be served with Miss Louise Drew, membership chairman, in charge.

Week Brings News Of Two Trothals; Miss Marx To Wed

Each week of January continues to bring news of engagements, and announcements of wedding dates.

The engagement of Miss Aylene Hopkins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hopkins of Ross lane to Donald A. Faber, son of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Faber of Central Point was announced Monday, January 9, at the Sigma Kappa sorority house at Oregon State college. Both young people are attending the college.

Miss Hopkins is a major in the school of home economics and Mr. Faber is a junior majoring in business.

No date has been set for the wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Marx, Kings highway, announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Pat Marx, to Gordon Deryll Allard, son of Mrs. J. W. McCullery, of Darwin, Cal., and Deryll Allard of Los Angeles.

The wedding will be an event of early February.

Shower Is Given For Recent Bride

Mrs. Darrell McNeill, the former Miss Barbara McCleary, was honored guest at a shower Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. William Childreth, 2393 Jacksonville highway. Refreshments were served following the opening of gifts and an entertaining evening was enjoyed.

Attending the affair were Mrs. Donald Bohl, Mrs. Floyd Lewis, Mrs. Roy Elliott, Mrs. William Coghill, Mrs. Lew Conley, Mrs. Amos Ayres, Mrs. Earl Brewold, Mrs. Wallace Brill, Mrs. Melton Winn, Mrs. Cloyd Sater, Mrs. Carl Childreth, Mrs. Chester Irish, Mrs. John Pond, Mrs. Philip Todd, Mrs. Ed Crowe, Mrs. Walter Sewell, Mrs. Roy McCleary, Mrs. L. MacFarlen, Mrs. Fred Baker, Mrs. Jack McNeill, Mrs. Orval Shores, Mrs. Fred Gardner, Mrs. Claire Shores, the hostess and honored guest.

College Women's Club To Hear Local Artist At Meeting Saturday

The meeting of the College Women's Club of Rogue River valley scheduled for January 14 was postponed because of inclement weather, until Saturday, January 21. The group will meet in the Pioneer room of the Jackson hotel for luncheon at 1 p.m.

Hal Bishop, local artist, will speak on "Art in the Home," and regarding the murals in the Pioneer room painted by him.

Mrs. A. V. Hardy will be hostess and Miss Annette Gray will be social chairman. Reservations by Medford members should be made by calling Mrs. Harold Snodgrass, phone 2-8204. Ashland members are asked to call Mrs. Arthur Peters, phone 2-1272.

Plan Dinner

Jacksonville — A covered dish dinner will be held by members of the Adair chapter OES, on Thursday, January 19, at 6:30 p.m., in the Masonic hall, Jacksonville. There will be stated meeting and visiting members are invited to attend.

Announce Meeting Of Extension Unit

Shady Cove — Mrs. Lois Hicks and Mrs. Leona Hughes will be in charge of a demonstration of herbs and seasonings at the Upper Rogue Extension unit meeting, Tuesday, January 17, in the home of Mrs. Cecil Kee, Shady Cove, at 10 a.m. Those attending are asked to take table service.

Health Board Head To Address BPWC

Dr. L. D. Inskeep, president, state board of health, will speak to members of the Business and Professional Women's club, Thursday, January 19, in the Girls' Community club, at 7:30 p.m. Dr. Inskeep's subject will concern public health in Jackson county, and the public health and safety committee of the club, with Miss Hazel Swayne as chairman, is in charge of the program.

Refreshments will be served with Miss Louise Drew, membership chairman, in charge.

Week Brings News Of Two Trothals; Miss Marx To Wed

Each week of January continues to bring news of engagements, and announcements of wedding dates.

The engagement of Miss Aylene Hopkins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hopkins of Ross lane to Donald A. Faber, son of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Faber of Central Point was announced Monday, January 9, at the Sigma Kappa sorority house at Oregon State college. Both young people are attending the college.

Miss Hopkins is a major in the school of home economics and Mr. Faber is a junior majoring in business.

No date has been set for the wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Marx, Kings highway, announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Pat Marx, to Gordon Deryll Allard, son of Mrs. J. W. McCullery, of Darwin, Cal., and Deryll Allard of Los Angeles.

New Organization Will Raise Money For Armory Rooms

Representatives from military, fraternal and business organizations met at the Apple Inn Friday evening to organize for the purpose of raising money to furnish two rooms at the Medford armory. The two rooms will each seat approximately 200 persons and if properly furnished will make excellent meeting places for many of the city's clubs that have outgrown their club rooms. It is thought. There is also a dining room and kitchen available to organizations using the meeting rooms.

Mrs. Hazel van der Mark was elected to serve as chairman of the group, and Earl Sterigere was chosen as co-chairman to assist in the fund raising projects. Mrs. Tom Ginn acted as secretary. Next meeting of the group will be held in the armory February 1.

Any organizations interested in this city wide projects are invited to send two representatives to the next meeting.

Annual Tea Planned By Methodist Women On Friday Afternoon

An event looked forward to by members and friends of the Methodist Woman's Society of Christian Service is the annual membership tea, which will this year be held in the home of Mrs. G. A. Schuler, 33 Valley View drive, on Friday afternoon, January 20. Purpose of the event is to afford members an opportunity to become acquainted and to meet those who are new in the membership of the church.

Mrs. W. T. Frost is general chairman, Mrs. J. S. Heatherington is in charge of the dining room and Mrs. J. C. Sparks will arrange program numbers for the afternoon. Among numbers to be given will be a vocal selection by Mrs. Lyle Schoppert and Larry Brunette.

College Women's Club To Hear Local Artist At Meeting Saturday

The meeting of the College Women's Club of Rogue River valley scheduled for January 14 was postponed because of inclement weather, until Saturday, January 21. The group will meet in the Pioneer room of the Jackson hotel for luncheon at 1 p.m.

Hal Bishop, local artist, will speak on "Art in the Home," and regarding the murals in the Pioneer room painted by him.