Dale Odom To Headline Feb. 1 Card

An elimination match to arrange for a contender for the southern Oregon amateur middleweight championship has been arranged for the first card of the newly organized Southern Oregon Boxing club. The program, with net proceeds going to the March of Dimes, will be held at the armory on February 1.

The main event will send Dale Odom, local middleweight, against Joe Carothers of Grants Pass, undefeated in the Climate city. They are expected to come in at 160 pounds with the winner to advance in elimination for a crack at Larry Burdette's southern Oregon crown.

Rooks Vs. Frosh Set For Friday, Saturday

Corvallis, Jan. 19—(U.P.)—Although hampered by a lack of practice room, before Gill coliseum was available, Oregon State's tall Rooks opened their 1950 season last Friday toppling Hood River 43 to 27.

The win will send the Rooks undefeated against Oregon's like-wise unbeaten Frosh next Friday and Saturday, the first game in Corvallis and the Saturday game in Eugene. The Frosh are unbeaten in almost 10 games.

On Corky King of Oakland, Cal., in a tune-up scrap pointing toward a rematch with Ray Stickle. Berry and Stickle staged two furious matches here about a year ago with each winning one.

Russ Williams of Grants Pass, who lost a close decision to Donovan Wolfe here in December, will tangle with Don Harper of Gold Hill in another spot on the benefit card.

There will be eight matches, it was announced, with the others to be revealed in a few days.

SOC to Play At Humboldt

Ashland, Jan. 19—Southern Oregon college's basketball team, currently lone possessors of first place in the Far Western conference, will play Humboldt State college Friday and Saturday nights at Arcata, Cal., in a conference series.

The Red Raiders have won two and lost none in conference play to date, while Humboldt rests in last place with no victories and two defeats.

Last week-end the Raiders, coached by Ted Schopf, broke even in a non-conference series with Oregon College of Education in games at Monmouth.

Schopf is not taking this series with Humboldt lightly as the Californians are regarded as one of the top quintets in the conference despite their present standings. They have a club of veterans in basketball and always they are tough to beat on their own floor.

Last week-end Humboldt dropped a pair to second-place Chico State by 69 to 34 and 98 to 48.
